Mr. Mike Jackson, of Rugged Cross Church in Hancock, offered the following invocation:

“I am a slave of Jesus Christ.

I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land, (Jonah 1:9) the God of the ancient Hebrew, the God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob. (Exodus 3:6)

The Great I AM! (Exodus 3:14)

Blessed be the Name of the LORD. (Job 1:21)

O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your Name in all the earth! You who have set Your glory above the heavens. When I look at Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have set in place, what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You care for him? (Psalms 8:1 & 3-4)

O LORD, You search the hearts of all men and You know them! (Psalms 139:1)

And I, O LORD, am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips. I am undone! (Isaiah 6:5)

For, Your wrath O God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, we who by our unrighteousness suppress the truth. For what can be known about You is plain to us, because You have shown it to us. For Your invisible attributes, namely, Your eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So we are all without excuse.

For although we have known You, we have not honored You as God or given thanks to You, but we have become futile in our thinking, and our foolish hearts have been darkened. Claiming to be wise, we have become fools, and exchanged the glory of You, our immortal God, for images of the mortal. (Romans 1:18-23)

Have mercy on us, O God, according to Your steadfast love; according to Your abundant mercy blot out our transgressions. Wash us thoroughly from our iniquity, and cleanse us from our sin! Grant us repentance, O God, for against You, You only, have we sinned. (Psalms 51:1-4)

You who so loved the world, that You gave Your one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16)

Praise You O Christ!

Praise You Jesus our Lord, You who have been delivered up for the sins of Your people and raised for their justification. (Romans 4:25)

O Christ, may Your people, Your sheep, hear Your voice! Call them by name Lord Jesus! (John 10:3)

O Father, that Your Son would have the reward of His sufferings, this day, in this place.

Please, show us Your glory!

Make Your goodness pass before us. Be gracious, O LORD, to whom You will be gracious, and show mercy on whom You will show mercy. (Exodus 33:18 & 19)

O that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Philippians 2:10-11)

Amen.”

Rep. Lund moved that Rep. Haines be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Goike, Barnett, Constan, Crawford, Darany, Denby, Dillon, Heise, Hooker, Horn, Huuki, Kowall, LeBlanc, Liss, McCann, Poleski, Slavens and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 69.

A resolution to declare April 28, 2011, as Community College Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The first Michigan two-year college, Grand Rapids Junior College, opened in 1914 and provided high school graduates with two years of general education classes preparing them for future education or workforce experience; and

Whereas, Twenty-seven additional community colleges have been established throughout the state of Michigan since 1914. The community colleges of Michigan include Alpena Community College, Bay College, Delta College, Glen Oaks Community College, Gogebic Community College, Grand Rapids Community College, Henry Ford Community College, Jackson Community College, Kalamazoo Valley Community College, Kellogg Community College, Kirtland Community College, Lake Michigan Community College, Lansing Community College, Macomb Community College, Mid Michigan

Community College, Monroe County Community College, Montcalm Community College, Mott Community College, Muskegon Community College, North Central Community College, Northwestern Michigan College, Oakland Community College, St. Clair County Community College, Schoolcraft College, Southwestern Michigan College, Washtenaw Community College, Wayne County Community College District, and West Shore Community College. These institutions educate nearly a half-million students each year; and

Whereas, Michigan community colleges have developed and evolved their educational offerings to include state-of-the-art technical and vocational programs while maintaining high academic standards; and

Whereas, Our state's community colleges are now recognized as leaders in workforce preparation, training, and retraining, as well as offering community services and cultural opportunities to Michigan communities; and

Whereas, Students investing in a Michigan community college education enjoy an attractive return on investment because of future earning capacity; and

Whereas, The role community colleges play in Michigan's economic development continues to be more vital as our state's workforce looks to compete both nationally and globally for the jobs of tomorrow; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 28, 2011, as Community College Day in the state of Michigan. We urge appropriate observance of this occasion; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan Community College Association members as a token of our appreciation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Nesbitt, Barnett, Brown, Constan, Crawford, Darany, Denby, Dillon, Heise, Hooker, Horn, Huuki, Kowall, LeBlanc, Liss, McCann, Poleski, Slavens and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 70.

A resolution to declare April 2011 as Esophageal Cancer Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, With more than 16,500 new cases in the United States in 2010, esophageal cancer is one of the fastest growing cancer diagnoses in our nation; and

Whereas, Esophageal cancer is a disease in which cancer cells form in the tissues of the esophagus, often preceded by symptoms of pain or difficulty swallowing, indigestion, heartburn, hoarseness and coughing. Risk factors for esophageal cancer include gastric reflux, heavy alcohol and tobacco use; and

Whereas, Esophageal cancer is often discovered during advanced stages, but if discovered early, chances for recovery and survival are far better, and treatments for the disease include surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, laser therapy and electrocoagulation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 2011 as Esophageal Cancer Awareness Month in the state of Michigan. We encourage citizens to pay attention to esophageal cancer symptoms in order to promote early detection.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The question being on agreeing to the title of the bill,

Rep. Stamas moved to amend the title to read as follows:

A bill to amend 1967 PA 281, entitled "Income tax act of 1967," by amending the title and sections 2, 4, 6, 24, 26, 30, 30f, 36, 51, 52, 91, 102, 103, 105, 110, 115, 132, 195, 201, 251, 255, 256, 265, 266, 270, 271, 272, 278, 301, 311, 315, 322, 325, 351, 355, 365, 402, 408, 451, 455, 471, 475, 508, 510, 512, 514, 520, 522, 526, 527a, 530, and 532 (MCL 206.2, 206.4, 206.6, 206.24, 206.26, 206.30, 206.30f, 206.36, 206.51, 206.52, 206.91, 206.102, 206.103, 206.105, 206.110, 206.115, 206.132, 206.195, 206.201, 206.251, 206.255, 206.256, 206.265, 206.266, 206.270, 206.271, 206.272, 206.278, 206.301, 206.311, 206.315, 206.322, 206.325, 206.351, 206.355, 206.365, 206.402, 206.408, 206.451, 206.455, 206.471, 206.475, 206.508, 206.510, 206.512, 206.514, 206.520, 206.522, 206.526, 206.527a, 206.530, and 206.532), section 4 as amended by 2003 PA 52, section 26 as amended by 2003 PA 50, section 30 as amended by 2009 PA 134, section 30f as added by 2000 PA 163, sections 51 and 270 as amended by 2007 PA 94, section 52 as added by 1988 PA 1, section 110 as amended by 2003 PA 21, sections 255, 256, 301, and 475 as amended by 1996 PA 484, section 265 as amended by 1998 PA 19, section 266 as amended by 2008 PA 447, section 272 as added by 2006 PA 372, section 278 as added by 2010 PA 235, section 311 as amended by 2004 PA 199, section 315 as amended by 2003 PA 49, sections 325 and 514 as amended by 1987 PA 254, sections 351, 355, and 365 as amended by 2008 PA 360, section 402 as added and section 408 as amended by 1980 PA 169, section 451 as amended by 2003 PA 46, section 471 as amended by 2002 PA 486, section 508 as amended by 1990 PA 283, sections 510 and 520 as amended by 1995 PA 245, section 512 as amended by 2003 PA 29, section 522 as amended by 2000 PA 41, section 527a as amended by 2004 PA 335, and section 530 as amended by 1982 PA 480, by designating sections 1 to 532 as part 1, and by adding part 2; and to repeal acts and parts of acts.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.
Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Geiss, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Mr. Speaker:

I rise today in opposition to House Bill 4361.

This bill will be a fundamental shift of burden from businesses in Michigan to Michigan’s citizens. There will be an 82% reduction in corporate taxes, with Michigan’s citizens taking on a higher tax rate, seniors paying more money and school children taking a substantial hit.

In my communities, this bill will result in the closing of a library Romulus, reduction of our police force in Taylor by over 50% and the safety and welfare of my constituents being unfairly compromised due to this unprecedented windfall to corporations.

This bill, but its very nature, is Voodoo economics. In these tough economic times, by passing this legislation, we are gambling our current vitality and viability on the false premise that jobs will be created - someday.

Mr. Speaker, we cannot afford to make this gamble, and I fully refute the claims that this is the answer to solve Michigan’s problems. I did not come to Lansing to see our schools and communities decimated.

While many in this chamber have cloaked themselves in the tea parties rhetoric, I ask, where are they now? This bill raises taxes on Michigan’s taxpayers. Period. Services are guaranteed to be reduced. Period. Is this the winning formula? Pay more, get less?

As this bill is a primary example of legislative schizophrenia, where we undo promises made just a few short years ago, I have a simple message for businesses which may choose to locate to Michigan. This windfall will not last. This policy will be revisited. Enjoy your short term gains, because as this bill breaks promises that were made to food banks, communities, schools, the film industry and many others, this bill too will be revisited in the years to come.

I urge a no vote from my colleagues. Let your constituents know you are fighting for them - That you value their safety and welfare.”

Rep. Irwin, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This measure will drastically and immediately change tax policy in Michigan for the worse. Specifically, HB 4163 shifts the burden of funding government onto seniors and low-income workers and away from corporations. After the passage of this bill into law, the total tax obligation of corporations plummets from just over 2.2 billion dollars in this fiscal year to just over 300 million dollars in the following fiscal year (according to the House Fiscal Agency). This represents a near total elimination of tax obligation for corporations and places that burden on struggling citizens. This is an unfair and unproductive tax policy. In addition, this bill removes support for urban renewal programs such as Historic Preservation Credits and Brownfield Redevelopment credits. These programs have demonstrated effectiveness in producing jobs and economic development and eliminating these credits is yet another public policy mistake folded into this monumental bill. Finally, but not comprehensively, this bill removes the favorable tax treatment for charitable donations. This is another cruel mistake that further restricts our success as a state and the success of the charitable organizations that operate here.”

Rep. Durhal, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

The elimination of the EITC will have a devastating effect upon families that are in poverty. The actions of the majority party speaks to their total disregard for working families that are scrambling to keep their heads above water. With the combined actions of this House of taxing pensions, attacking collective bargaining, eliminating statutory revenue sharing, reducing the length of time for unemployment benefits, removing people in need from the public assistance rolls after 48 months retroactively, and eliminating programs that help troubled families to survive, I could not in good conscience, support this or any other legislation that will hurt my district’s people more.”

Rep. Hovey-Wright, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While I agree that changes need to be made to the tax on business, these changes are in the wrong direction. The huge tax shift from business to seniors, the working poor and middle class will not serve to grow the economy or produce jobs.”

Rep. Lund, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While I applaud the efforts put forth here to make Michigan a more attractive state to attract and grow jobs, specifically the elimination of the Michigan Business Tax...there are some of the provisions of the bill I disagree with.

I am hopeful that as our economy recovers, jobs grow, and unemployment shrinks, we can revisit some of the provisions of these bills that are difficult to accept for my constituents.

Unfortunately, as it stands, I must vote on the bills in their entirety. As such, I must cast a No vote.”

Rep. Townsend, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

The people of Michigan sent us here to solve the state’s problems - not win philosophical arguments. Instead, we’ve seen nothing but a parade of legislation pushing a Far-Right agenda to strip worker rights and balance Michigan’s budget by shifting the burden of paying our bills from corporations to low income and older Michiganders.

There’s a double-standard at work here. When they’re calling for massive tax-cuts for corporations, the Governor and the majority in this House tell us that taxes matter. We must lower people’s taxes so they’ll behave in ways we want. The Lt. Governor places great importance on where Michigan ranks with respect to business tax climate. Yet, when they’re proposing to strip away the earned-income tax credit, they tell us that taxes don’t affect the behavior of low-income people. We can raise their taxes, plunge tens of thousands into poverty and our communities and welfare rolls won’t be affected. We have one set of principles for those who own corporations and another for the middle class, seniors and the working poor.

Cutting corporate taxes by $1.7 billion without any evidence that such a move will create good-paying jobs is not a balanced or pragmatic approach to our state’s problems. It’s ideology. It’s a plan that Grover Norquist, who is the acknowledged leader of the Far Right’s shrink-government-no-matter-what crusade in Washington, DC would heartily endorse. Norquist likes to brag that he wants to shrink government down to the size that would enable him ‘drown it in a bathtub.’ That may excite the ideologues and wealthy patrons of his cause but we should all remember that he’s talking about drowning our schools, our communities, our families.

Mr. Speaker, in addition to eliminating the EITC, this bill would impose new taxes on the majority of our seniors’ pensions, for which they have worked hard for all their lives and around which they have planned their retirements.

This bill also reneges on the Governor’s promise to support of our center cities and urban communities. By elimination the Historic Preservation Tax Credit and the Brownfield Redevelopment Credit, they have taken away proven tools that help our urban centers evolve and thrive. These are job creators and revenue enhancers for our local communities and should not be cast aside.

We need to push the reset button on this tax-cut and work with our businesses to simplify our system, reduce compliance costs and create a tax regime that works for our businesses and our people and will stand the test of time - so we are not back here in another year or two changing it all over again.”

House Bill No. 4362, entitled

A bill to amend 2007 PA 36, entitled “Michigan business tax act,” by amending sections 107 and 117 (MCL 208.1107 and 208.1117), section 117 as amended by 2009 PA 142, and by adding section 500; and to repeal acts and parts of acts.
