Reverend Steve Bean of Sturgis Wesleyan Church of Sturgis offered the following invocation:

Our Father and our God, as we gather in faith, we ask Your blessing and favor on this group of public servants. God, we pray that today in faith they would serve with all of their heart. We pray, God, for Your blessing on this great country and on this great state of Michigan.

Father, we unite our hearts and ask for protection for the members of this institution as they travel, as they serve, and as they work. We pray, God, that a spirit of diligence will be theirs. Father, we pray that this great state of Michigan would be a lighthouse to the nation for courage, for work ethic, for motivation, for good, and for community service.

Father, we pray and pause for those who are venturing out into the workforce today to further their families, to further their communities, and to further their good causes. God, we ask Your blessings not just on this gathering, but on this great state. I pray, God, that what is done here today will push us forward in faith.

We pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Richardville, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Motions and Communications

Senators Kahn, Nofs, Barcia, Garcia, Hunter, Bishop, Jelinek, Kuipers and Sanborn entered the Senate Chamber.

Senator Cropsey asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Cropsey's statement is as follows:

Last week, I was not here. I was out of the state on business, including some very intriguing businesses on advanced solar manufacturing. Consequently, I missed some votes, and I want the Journal to reflect my voting intentions had I been here. On Roll Call Nos. 274, 275, 276, and 277, I would have voted "no"; on Roll Call No. 278, I would have voted "yes"; on Roll Call No. 279, I would have voted "no"; and on Roll Call Nos. 280, 281, and 282, I would have voted "yes."

The following communication was received:
Office of Financial and Insurance Regulation

June 7, 2010

Pursuant to MCL 500.3515, the Commissioner of the Office of Financial and Insurance Regulation is required to make a determination as to whether the greater copayment and coinsurance levels allowed by the amendatory act that added this subsection have increased the number of employers who have contracted for health maintenance organization services and whether these levels have increased the number of enrollees receiving health maintenance organization services. Be advised that the annual report required by MCL 500.3515 is attached to this correspondence.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Jenita Moore, Deputy Commissioner for Policy at (517) 373-1866.

Felicia A. Barnes, Executive Secretary
Policy Division

The communication was referred to the Secretary for record.

The Secretary announced that the following House bills were received in the Senate and filed on Tuesday, June 8:

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of

General Orders

Senator Cropsey moved that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of the General Orders calendar.

The motion prevailed, and the President pro tempore, Senator Richardville, designated Senator Jacobs as Chairperson.

After some time spent therein, the Committee arose; and, the President pro tempore, Senator Richardville, having resumed the Chair, the Committee reported back to the Senate, favorably and without amendment, the following bill:

House Bill No. 4480, entitled

A bill to authorize the state administrative board to convey a certain parcel of state owned property in Wayne county; to prescribe conditions for the conveyance; to provide for certain powers and duties of state departments in regard to the property; and to provide for disposition of revenue derived from the conveyance.

The bill was placed on the order of Third Reading of Bills.

The Committee of the Whole reported back to the Senate, favorably and with a substitute therefor, the following bill:

House Bill No. 4893, entitled

A bill to amend 1953 PA 181, entitled "An act relative to investigations in certain instances of the causes of death within this state due to violence, negligence or other act or omission of a criminal nature or to protect public health; to provide for the taking of statements from injured persons under certain circumstances; to abolish the office of coroner and to create the office of county medical examiner in certain counties; to prescribe the powers and duties of county medical examiners; to prescribe penalties for violations of the provisions of this act; and to prescribe a referendum thereon," by amending section 5 (MCL 52.205), as amended by 2006 PA 569.

Substitute (S-1).

The Senate agreed to the substitute recommended by the Committee of the Whole, and the bill as substituted was placed on the order of Third Reading of Bills.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of Messages from the House

Senate Bill No. 1157, entitled

A bill to make appropriations for the state institutions of higher education and certain state purposes related to education for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2011; to provide for the expenditures of those appropriations; and to prescribe the powers and duties of certain state departments, institutions, agencies, employees, and officers.

The House of Representatives has substituted (H-3) the bill.

The House of Representatives has passed the bill as substituted (H-3) and ordered that it be given immediate effect.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.202, the bill be laid over one day,

Senator Cropsey moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on concurring in the substitute made to the bill by the House,

The substitute was not concurred in, a majority of the members serving not voting therefor, as follows:

The bill was read a first and second time by title and referred to the Committee on Families and Human Services.

Statements

Senators Scott, Cherry, Basham and Sanborn asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Scott’s statement is as follows:

As elected officials, we all know that we serve a purpose that is beyond what we want for ourselves. We serve in order to help others. We embody what Robert Byrne meant when he wrote, “The purpose of life is a life of purpose.” We give our efforts to making good decisions and helping create a better life for our constituents.

So given that we are all here to serve the people of this great state, it causes many to wonder why we cannot come together to enact auto insurance reform. The Legislature is trying hard to squeeze savings out of our 2010-2011 budgets, but when it comes to helping our constituents squeeze savings by enacting much-needed rate-setting reforms, we are oddly silent. Saving money is just as important to our constituents as it is to us. Paying a fair price for a product is just as important to our constituents as it is to us.

And still we have yet to pass bills that offer insurance reform. Auto insurance reform is just as important as any other reform we will tackle this year. It needs to be added to our list, and we need to act on it sooner rather than later.

Senator Cherry’s statement is as follows:

A new poll issued last week by the Detroit Free Press and WXYZ-TV found that barely a third—barely a third—of Michigan residents think the state’s struggling economy has begun to turn around. The poll also showed that 47 percent of the people surveyed said that an immediate family member had lost a job in the last two years. That means for nearly half the people questioned, unemployment is literally hitting close to home.

It is no surprise then that 600 people surveyed decided Michigan’s economy and the lack of jobs is their top priority. During this economic crisis, Michigan is being hit harder than any other state in the nation, and the citizens of this state are hurting in every corner. From April 2009 to April 2010, 16 of Michigan’s 17 major labor markets recorded increases in unemployment that are still over 10 percent. In that same span, unemployment rates rose in 78 of Michigan’s 83 counties.

The northeast Lower Peninsula had the state’s highest jobless rate in April at 17.2 percent, and the northwest Lower Peninsula had the second-highest rate at 15.3 percent. The Flint and Muskegon-Norton Shores metropolitan areas both posted an unemployment rate of 14.9 percent, and the Detroit-Warren-Livonia areas were 14.8 percent. Saginaw, Jackson, and Monroe were no different.

My Senate Democratic colleagues and I are fighting to do something to help the workers in our districts. Shouldn’t the people elected to serve those areas be doing the same? The suffering of Michigan families is not limited by political boundaries, as people are facing the same challenges in Democrat and Republican districts alike. Support for Michigan's working families shouldn't be bogged down in partisanship either. Senate Republicans control the Senate and set the legislative agenda, but they have yet to move any significant legislation to create jobs or help workers.

In addition to neglecting existing bills, they have not offered any solutions of their own to Michigan's ongoing economic struggles. It's time for the Senate leadership to step up and tackle the real crisis at hand, and start addressing the economic needs of this state instead of a political agenda. I call on the Senate leadership to take up bills that will ensure that Michigan workers get back on the job.

Senator Basham's statement is as follows:

I just received an e-mail from the president of a business of logistics supply chain from West Michigan, area code 616. The name of the company is TLC, and anyway, it is from Pete Westermann. I would like to read it, Mr. President. It says, "Dear Senator, our business is focused on Supply Chain Logistics services and is based in Michigan. Establishing a second Bridge Crossing is essential to the services we provide for our clients. We are eager to support efforts to ensure this gets the proper attention by our lawmakers. Please support these actions and help us foster an improving business climate in Michigan."

This business is from West Michigan, the Grand Rapids area. So the issue with the Detroit International River Crossing (DRIC) is not just a Wayne County issue or Downriver or Detroit issue. This actually affects the entire state and, in fact, our country. I would encourage members if they are interested in seeing this e-mail that I got. I don't know if they received it or not, but please stop by my desk. I would be glad to share it with you.

Senator Sanborn's statement is as follows:

I rise to respond to the repeated partisan attacks of the Senator from the 26th District. I appreciate that some members have said that if we could tone down the partisan rancor, then we could probably work together. I mean, if Jim Joyce and Armando Galarraga can work together to find grace and forgiveness, the world would be a more beautiful place if we'd follow that lead. It doesn't appear that that is the way that we are going to close out our legislative careers now being term-limited.

To get up day after day and blame the Republicans for this economy is a bit absurd. The last I recall, long before we were blown away, I can remember a better time in Michigan when the Republicans controlled the Governor's office, the Senate, and the House. I had the good fortune of serving here in those days when the economy was so much stronger. But in the blown-away generation that we are in now, the Democrats control Congress; the Democrats control the U.S. Senate with Levin and Stabenow; the Democrats control the Governor's office and all the administrative appointments that go along with the executive branch, with Governor Granholm and my good friend—yes, he is a good friend—Lieutenant Governor John Cherry. Perhaps if he had been Governor, we would not have deteriorated to this point. The Democrats control the House of Representatives. The only firewall to bad tax-and-spend legislation would appear to be the Senate majority in the Michigan Senate.

I am very puzzled, and it is unfortunate to see a fellow Senator go on with this partisan rancor to maybe reshape the legacy of the blown-away administration.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of

General Orders

Senator Cropsey moved that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of the General Orders calendar.

The motion prevailed, and the President pro tempore, Senator Richardville, designated Senator Jacobs as Chairperson.

After some time spent therein, the Committee arose; and, the President pro tempore, Senator Richardville, having resumed the Chair, the Committee reported back to the Senate, favorably and without amendment, the following joint resolution:

Senate Joint Resolution V, entitled

A joint resolution proposing an amendment to the state constitution of 1963, by adding section 8 to article XI, to disqualify a person who has been convicted of certain felonies from election or appointment to an elective office in this state.

The joint resolution was placed on the order of Third Reading of Bills.
