Reverend A. Richard Doss of Fews Memorial Christian Methodist Episcopal Church of River Rouge offered the following invocation:

Eternal God, we thank You once again for an opportunity that You have given us of a day of life. We've gathered here today to do the business of the people. Lord, we understand that we are inundated by so many interests, but help us in the end to recognize it's not about party, but it's about people; many of whom, Lord, have seen some evidence and signs of the recovery, but still not strong enough to where they're feeling comfortable. Help us, Lord, as we discuss, as we plan, as we caucus, as we debate, to understand in the end it's about we the people.

We ask Your blessings, Lord, on the many members of our military and their families from all across our state. Then, Lord, help us, most especially, to remember the least of these who, even in the best of times, have difficulties trying to get by. May we provide, Lord, a ladder for them to climb, that they might receive the blessings of liberty that we so often talk about in these chambers.

Now, Lord, bless all of the leadership levels of our state. In the mighty and matchless name of Jesus. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Resolutions

Senator Meekhof moved that consideration of the following resolutions be postponed for today:

Senate Resolution No. 34

Senate Resolution No. 37

The motion prevailed.

Senators Meekhof, Hune, Jones and Schuitmaker offered the following concurrent resolution:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 7.

A concurrent resolution to support Taiwan’s efforts to secure entry into the Trans-Pacific Partnership, promote bilateral investment and trade relations with the United States, and participate in the International Civil Aviation Organization.

Whereas, The Republic of China (Taiwan), which marked its centennial in 2011 and entered into its second century as the world’s 19th-largest economy, has achieved economic and social stability, been lauded in the last two decades as a beacon of democracy for Asia, dramatically improved its record on human rights, and taken great steps forward to enter the world arena as a trusted partner; and

Whereas, Taiwan gained membership in the United States Visa Waiver Program. It is the 37th country to receive visa-free travel privileges to the United States and only the 5th Asian country with visa-free status, behind Japan, South Korea, Singapore, and Brunei. As a result, more Taiwanese will travel to the United States, thus contributing to the national and local economies and strengthening bilateral ties with the individual states, including Michigan; and

Whereas, In 2011, Taiwan ranked as the United States' 10th-largest trading partner in the world, serving as the United States' 15th-largest export market overall. The value of total trade between Taiwan and Michigan in 2011 reached $778 million, an increase of 7.9 percent from the two-way trade value in 2010. This robust trade and our shared values of freedom and democracy greatly benefit both sides; and

Whereas, Taiwan's economic, cultural, and educational ties with Michigan run deep. There are great opportunities for exports of Michigan-grown agricultural goods to Taiwan, the world's 6th-largest market for U.S. agricultural products. There are also opportunities for further economic cooperation and technical exchanges in emerging sectors, such as high-speed rail transit, nanotechnology, health care, and photovoltaics and other renewable energy technologies. Hundreds of Taiwanese students enroll in Michigan colleges and universities every year; business, professional, legislative, and other delegations reciprocate visits regularly; and cultural, educational, and teacher exchanges continue to flourish, strengthening friendships and enhancing relations between Michigan and Taiwan; and

Whereas, Seeking greater regional integration in the Asia-Pacific region and promotion of bilateral investment and trade relations with the United States, Taiwan welcomed the opportunity presented by the United States' announcement at the 2011 leaders meeting of the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation of its intent to not only join the Trans-Pacific Partnership—the proposed 21st-century trade agreement between the United States and eight other Asia-Pacific Rim countries—but to expand the membership in the future to include other countries, such as Taiwan; and

Whereas, Taiwan has taken great steps forward to enter the world arena as a trusted partner. For the last three years, Taiwan has participated as an observer in the World Health Assembly of the World Health Organization (WHO). In 2012, Taiwan celebrated its 20th anniversary of participation in the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation forum, of which the United States is a longtime and respected member; and

Whereas, Aviation safety has become a major global concern since 2001. Taiwan, a key transport hub in the Asia-Pacific region, has more than 1 million flights per year passing through the Taipei Flight Information Region and has one of the world's largest airports by cargo volume, Taoyuan International Airport Taiwan. Yet Taiwan is not a member of the International Civil Aviation Organization, leaving a gap in the aviation security and navigation system; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we support Taiwan's efforts to secure entry into the Trans-Pacific Partnership, along with the United States and other friendly Asia-Pacific Rim countries, promote bilateral investment and trade relations with the United States, and support the participation of Taiwan in the International Civil Aviation Organization; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the United States Secretary of State, Secretary General of the International Civil Aviation Organization, President of the Republic of China (Taiwan), and Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Chicago, Illinois.

Pursuant to rule 3.204, the concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Senators Booher, Brandenburg, Green, Hansen, Marleau and Proos were named co-sponsors of the concurrent resolution.

Senators Hune, Jones, Meekhof and Schuitmaker offered the following concurrent resolution:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8.

A concurrent resolution to invite the Republic of China (Taiwan) to enter into a sister-state relationship with the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The people of the Republic of China (Taiwan) are among the most trusted friends of the American people. They have built a prosperous, successful, and free economy, particularly in the production of agricultural products, textiles, electrical machinery, and plastic products. Taiwan has established itself as an important trading partner with the United States; and

Whereas, In a complex world, it is important to promote greater world understanding by learning more about the people of different nations. Such learning is mutually beneficial and encourages social, economic, educational, and cultural connections through which all nations are enriched, and world understanding is increased; and

Whereas, It would be in the best interest of the state and Taiwan to strengthen our current knowledge of one another by creating a sister-state relationship between the state of Michigan and Taiwan. Through this relationship, we can create social, economic, educational, and cultural programs that bring our citizens closer together and strengthen international understanding and goodwill; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we invite the Republic of China (Taiwan) to enter into a sister-state relationship with the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the members of the Michigan congressional delegation and the executive and legislative officials of the Republic of China (Taiwan).

Pursuant to rule 3.204, the concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Senators Booher, Brandenburg, Green, Hansen, Marleau and Proos were named co-sponsors of the concurrent resolution.
