Fr. Matthew Zetouna, Father of Holy Martyrs Church in Sterling Heights, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty God, we praise and thank You for all the generous gifts You’ve blessed us with throughout our lives, and especially for powerfully revealing Your Son Jesus Christ to us.

Impart on us a portion of Your understanding and justice, so that we may better care for the poor and suffering within these United States.

Help us to know that a society’s greatness is seen in how it shows respect to those who are weak and most in need.

Shine Your Holy Face upon us and give us the grace to embrace those three profound gifts of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

We thank You for the gift of life, life You have bestowed on us so we might know You. Bless and care for the unprotected and those waiting to be born, that they be welcomed and cared for, as well as for our sick and elders, that they be treated with heartfelt compassion according to the dignity due them.

We thank You for the gift of liberty. Give us courageous witnesses to defend our basic freedoms. Renew a profound respect for religious freedom, an essential component in our founding. May our liberty be founded on truth and justice, and may we live this freedom in faith, hope, and love. Receive those, O Lord, who have given their lives in defense of freedom.

We thank You for the gift of our life and liberty so that we may pursue happiness. Grant us the happiness that necessarily comes from following Your laws. May these laws be executed justly by a government which serves its people, and not itself.

Generously impart Your guidance and wisdom upon our leaders: President Barack Obama, Vice President Joseph Biden, Governor Rick Snyder, Lieutenant Governor Brian Calley, and all those who seek to serve the common good.

We make supplication, Lord, for Your benediction upon all of us here. We beg You to remember, as we pledge to remember, those who are not free, those who suffer for freedom’s cause, those who are poor, out of work, and those who are persecuted for their religious convictions.

And with great gratitude of heart, Almighty God, we thank You for our beloved country. Continue to protect and make her prosperous. We proclaim to You that in God we trust, and so we place all our hope and trust in You, who live and reign, forever and ever. Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Segal, Brown, Darany, Durhal, Geiss, LaVoy, Slavens and Talabi offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 71.

A resolution to memorialize Congress to pass H.R. 1014 to amend the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 to provide that military technicians (dual status) shall be included in military personnel accounts for purposes of any order issued under that act.

Whereas, A federal military technician (dual status) is a federal civilian employee who is assigned to a civilian position as a technician in the administration and training of a Selected Reserve or in the maintenance and repair of supplies or equipment issued to a Selected Reserve or the armed forces. The Selected Reserves include the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard Reserves, and the Army and Air National Guards. The primary mission of a military technician is to provide day-to-day continuity in the training of reserve units, particularly, Army and Air National Guard. More than 58,000 military technicians are currently employed helping to maintain our military readiness; and

Whereas, Military technicians are generally required to maintain membership in the National Guard or Reserve as a condition of their employment. They are required to attend weekend drills and annual training with their reserve unit and military technicians can be involuntarily ordered to active duty just as other members of the Guard or Reserve; and

Whereas, Under sequestration, uniformed military personnel are exempt from furlough days and pay cuts. However, military technicians in the National Guard and the Reserves were not exempted, placing the readiness of our military at home and abroad at risk; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize Congress to pass H.R. 1014 to amend the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 to provide that military technicians (dual status) shall be included in military personnel accounts for purposes of any order issued under that act; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs.

Reps. Howrylak, Barnett, Brown, Darany, Denby, Durhal, Geiss, Haines, Heise, Hooker, Kesto, LaVoy, O’Brien, Poleski, Potvin, Slavens and Talabi offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 72.

A resolution to declare March 17-23, 2013, as Poison Prevention Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The ability to quickly and appropriately respond to emergencies resulting from poisoning and to prevent poisoning is of paramount concern to all citizens of the state of Michigan; and

Whereas, Congress designated the third full week in March to be National Poison Prevention Week in 1961 and since then this week has helped to raise national awareness of the dangers of potentially poisonous medicines, household chemicals, and other substances; and

Whereas, Each year, the nation's poison centers answer more than 4 million calls; and

Whereas, Approximately 90 percent of poisonings occur in people's homes; and

Whereas, Over 50 percent of poisoning exposures involve children under age 6; and

Whereas, National Poison Prevention Week has been established to encourage consumers to make their homes and offices safe, to adequately prepare for poison emergencies, and to acknowledge the importance of poison centers; and

Whereas, By calling your poison center you are accessing a dedicated staff of highly trained medical professionals who are certified specialists in poison information; and

Whereas, The Children's Hospital of Michigan's Poison Control Center is one of the largest and most comprehensive poison prevention and control centers in the country and assists in more than 100,000 poison cases in Michigan per year; and

Whereas, The Children's Hospital of Michigan Poison Control Center is accredited by the American Association of Poison Control Centers and is 1 of only 52 such centers in the country; and

Whereas, The people of Michigan recognize the importance of coming together as a community to educate ourselves on poison prevention and pledge our commitment to ensuring the safety of ourselves, our families, and our community; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare March 17-23, 2013, as Poison Prevention Week in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Kowall, Barnett, Brown, Crawford, Darany, Denby, Durhal, Geiss, Haines, Heise, Howrylak, Kesto, Lamonte, LaVoy, O'Brien, Poleski, Potvin, Roberts, Singh, Slavens and Talabi offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 73.

A resolution to declare March 2013 as Women's History Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan women of every race, class, and ethnic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of Michigan in countless recorded and unrecorded ways; and

Whereas, Michigan women have played and continue to play a critical economic, cultural, and social role in every sphere of the life of Michigan by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working inside and outside of the home; and

Whereas, Accomplished women in Michigan such as Cora Reynolds Anderson, Lorraine Beebe, Cora Mae Brown, Anna Clemenc, Mary Stallings Coleman, Betty Ford, Martha Griffiths, Marie-Therese Guyon-Cadillac, Erma Henderson, Mildred Jeffrey, Rosa Parks, Elly Peterson, Dorothy Comstock Riley, Anna Howard Shaw, Lucinda Stone, and Sojourner Truth deserve more recognition; and

Whereas, Michigan women have played a unique role throughout the history of Michigan by providing the majority of the volunteer labor force of Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan women were particularly important in the establishment of early charitable, philanthropic, and cultural institutions in Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan women of every race, class, and ethnic background served as early leaders in the forefront of every major progressive social change movement; and

Whereas, Michigan women have been leaders not only in securing their own rights of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor movement, the civil rights movement, the peace movement, and other movements which created a more fair and just society for all; and

Whereas, The population of Michigan is fifty-one percent women, the percentage of women legislators in the Michigan House of Representatives is twenty-two percent, the percentage of women legislators in the Michigan Senate is eleven percent; and

Whereas, Despite these contributions, the role of Michigan women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued in the literature, teaching, and study of Michigan history; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare March 2013 as Women's History Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Price, Barnett, Brown, Darany, Denby, Durhal, Geiss, Haines, Heise, Hooker, Howrylak, Kesto, Kowall, Lamonte, LaVoy, MacMaster, O'Brien, Poleski, Potvin, Roberts, Singh and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 74.

A resolution to declare April 2013 as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Since 1983, April has been designated National Child Abuse Prevention Month and has served to increase public awareness of the need to ensure the safety and welfare of children; and

Whereas, Crossing all racial, economic and geographic boundaries, and including physical, sexual, and emotional abuse and physical neglect, the repercussions are long-lasting, not only for the victims and their families, but also for communities and society as a whole; and

Whereas, Nationally, in 2011, an estimated 676,569 children were victims of maltreatment at an expense of at least $124 billion annually, costing the average American family $1,400 each year; and

Whereas, In Michigan during 2012, there were 91,159 confirmed investigations, an increase of 7,532 over the previous year, with a parent as the perpetrator in approximately 86 percent of the cases; and

Whereas, A focus on promoting the Protective Factors, including building parent resiliency, providing social supports, and educating about child development will help build and strengthen positive relationships between parents/caregivers and the children in their care; and

Whereas, The Power of One, an initiative led by the Michigan Children's Trust Fund that asserts that one community, one person, one dollar, or one action can help protect Michigan's children from abuse and neglect; and

Whereas, We recognize that no one person can do everything, but that everyone can do something, and together we can create change for the better; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 2013 as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of this legislative body encourage all Michiganders to work to build safe communities, promote strong families, and raise healthy children by supporting those who are striving to end the tragic abuse and neglect of children and allow them to realize their full potential.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Stamas and Hobbs offered the following resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 5.

A concurrent resolution prescribing the legislative schedule.

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That when the House of Representatives adjourns on Thursday, March 21, 2013, it stands adjourned until Tuesday, April 9, 2013, at 1:30 p.m.; and be it further

Resolved, That when the Senate adjourns on Thursday, March 21, 2013, it stands adjourned until Tuesday, April 9, 2013, at 10:00 a.m.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,
The concurrent resolution was adopted.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

In The Chair: Walsh

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
 Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
 The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Tlaib, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
 “Mr. Speaker and members of the House:
 I am opposed to Senate Bill 252 because it should not be the responsibility of the state to provide loans for dredging private facilities. It should be the market that decides the viability of such projects. In addition, the bill opens the program to marinas that exclude the general public.”

Rep. Stamas moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today’s session.
 The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Announcements by the Clerk

March 19, 2013

Received from the Auditor General a copy of the following audit report and/or report summary:

Financial audit of the Michigan Strategic Fund, a discretely presented component unit of the State of Michigan, for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2012.

Gary L. Randall
Clerk of the House

The Clerk received the following dissent on House Bill No. 4093, from Rep. Irwin:

I continue to object to the use of procedural tricks to subvert the Constitutional rights of citizens to know accurately the actions of the House of Representatives. Motions for immediate effect are routinely gavelled through without even a pretense of vote counting. This motion requires support from 2/3rds of the members and there is no genuine effort to ascertain the level of support for immediate effect. I object to this practice and I object to the erroneous assertions printed in the House Journal that suggest an authentic counting of votes occurred on the House floor.
