Rev. Horace L. Sheffield III, Pastor of New Destiny Baptist Church in Detroit, offered the following invocation:

“Eternal God, we give Thee thanks for this day and for all that You have through providence placed in our hands to preside over and to be responsible for. Help us to be mindful and to honor these sacred tasks.

I pray this morning that You would endow these chosen men and women to deliberate and decide on the affairs of this state and its people based on principle and not public opinion nor party affiliation.

We ask You Lord, that You would, in all that we think, say, and do, be mindful of those in need of mercy, considerate of those in social and economic need and disposed by Your grace and goodness. And to always put the real and mundane needs of the people of this state before anything else.

We pray for all of those who have rule over us that they would so govern that the children in Cheboygan; the men in Mackinac and the women in Warren can live peaceful and prosperous lives.

We finally ask that You would return this state and particularly my city of Detroit to a greater place than ever before.

We also pray that we cherish freedom and covet the franchise and seek to encourage one and protect the other.

Now bless this body to be mindful of us all and especially the least of these.

AMEN.”

Rep. Hobbs moved that Rep. Haugh be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. LaVoy, Genetski, Franz, Kosowski, Knezek, Stanley, Slavens and Cavanagh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 169.

A resolution to urge Congress to enact legislation to adopt the Honor and Remember Flag as an official symbol to recognize and honor members of the Armed Forces who died while serving or as a result of serving.

Whereas, Since the Revolutionary War, more than one 1.5 million members of the United States Armed Forces have sacrificed their lives while protecting their country. Their contribution to our country is deserving of national recognition; and

Whereas, There is no officially recognized national symbol that acknowledges members of the Armed Forces who have died while serving their country. Therefore, Honor and Remember, Inc. has created the Honor and Remember flag to honor and remember the members of the United States Armed Forces who lost their lives while performing their military duty; and

Whereas, The Honor and Remember Flag’s red field represents the blood shed by brave men and women who sacrificed their lives for freedom. The flag’s white field and border recognizes the purity of that sacrifice. The flag’s blue star is a symbol of active service in military conflicts dating back to World War I. The gold star signifies the ultimate sacrifice of a warrior in active service who is not returning home and reflects the value of the life given. The folded flag highlights this nation’s final tribute to a fallen service member and a family’s sacrifice. The flag’s flame symbolizes the eternal spirit of the departed; and

Whereas, The Honor and Remember flag should be displayed on all official federal holidays, additional days as designated by the governor, and whenever there is a state military casualty; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge Congress to enact legislation to adopt the Honor and Remember Flag as an official symbol to recognize and honor members of the Armed Forces who died while serving or as a result of serving; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs.

Reps. Lamonte, Brown, Cavanagh, Darany, Faris, Geiss, Hovey-Wright, Kowall, McCann, Roberts, Singh and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 170.

A resolution to urge the Attorney General to conduct an investigation to determine why gasoline prices in Michigan are consistently among the highest in the nation and to report the findings along with policy options to the Legislature.

Whereas, The recent spike in gas prices has once again caused concern across Michigan. Gasoline prices affect consumers, the state's tourism industry, and the overall health of the state's economy. Just as we are starting to see encouraging signs that Michigan's economy is improving, the recent spike in prices at the pump threatens this progress and shakes the confidence that is so important to economic activity; and

Whereas, According to the AAA's Fuel Gauge Report, gasoline prices in Michigan during the first week of June were higher than in any other state in the continental United States. While Michigan's high gasoline prices have been blamed on regional refinery issues, Michigan seems to be more adversely impacted than other Midwest states. Ohio's gasoline prices were nearly 30 cents lower than Michigan's. The significant gas price increases that have taken place of late—even before the summer driving demand takes hold—has many Michiganders worried about what the situation will be like in a few months; and

Whereas, As the executive responsible for protecting Michigan consumers, the Attorney General has authority to investigate price fixing and price gouging. Unscrupulous parties should not be allowed to make profits at the expense of Michigan consumers. Price fixing and gouging not only harm those who fall victim, but they also erode faith in the integrity of the market and all companies within this industry; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Attorney General to conduct an investigation to determine why gasoline prices in Michigan are consistently among the highest in the nation and to report the findings along with policy options to the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Office of the Attorney General.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

Reps. Darany, Brown, Cavanagh, Denby, Faris, Geiss, Haines, Hovey-Wright, Howrylak, Kowall, Lori, McCann, Poleski, Roberts, Singh and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 171.

A resolution to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the founding of Camp Grayling.

Whereas, Rasmus Hanson donated 18,000 acres of land to the state of Michigan in 1913 for the use of replacing the previously inconsistent guard training process; and

Whereas, Camp Grayling is the largest National Guard training facility in the United States, which now spans 147,000 acres of ranges and ample training maneuver areas in Grayling, Michigan; and

Whereas, This monumental training camp annually trains over 10,000 military personnel from National Guard units in Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, and Ohio; and

Whereas, Much of the beautiful camp is accessible to the public for hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, and other recreational uses when military training is not taking place; and

Whereas, Camp Grayling is one of the largest employers in Crawford County, creating over 200 full-time jobs to local residents; and

Whereas, The camp activities generate over $20 million annually in local economic impact; and

Whereas, The federal dollars that pay employee salaries are often used to pay local taxes and to support schools, hospitals, churches, and local businesses for generations; and

Whereas, Camp Grayling has played a monumental part in training the military personal that defend this United Nation as well as benefitting the local community both economically and recreationally; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 100th anniversary of the founding of Camp Grayling.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to prescribe the Amber alert of Michigan as the official response to reports of child abductions; to prohibit certain conduct; and to prescribe penalties.”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Poleski, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

It has been my consistent position to oppose income tax return checkoffs for charitable purposes. My opinion is that an income tax return is an inappropriate place to collect a charitable contribution.

This is not a reflection upon the excellent charities for whom the checkoff is desired; on the contrary, I admire the causes supported.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to explain my No vote.”

Announcements by the Clerk

The Clerk received the following dissent on Senate Bill Nos. 27, 79 and 256, House Bill No. 4768 and Senate Bill Nos. 341, 342 and 150, from Rep. Irwin:

I continue to object to the use of procedural tricks to subvert the Constitutional rights of citizens to know accurately the actions of the House of Representatives. Motions for immediate effect are routinely gavelled through without even a pretense of vote counting. This motion requires support from 2/3rds of the members and there is no genuine effort to ascertain the level of support for immediate effect. I object to this practice and I object to the erroneous assertions printed in the House Journal that suggest an authentic counting of votes occurred on the House floor.

Rep. Kowall moved that the House adjourn.
The motion prevailed, the time being 3:35 p.m.

The Speaker Pro Tempore declared the House adjourned until Wednesday, June 12, at 1:30 p.m.

GARY L. RANDALL
Clerk of the House of Representatives
