Rep. Winnie Brinks, from the 76th District, offered the following invocation:

“In this season of thankfulness, Lord, we have much to be grateful for.

In our state we are surrounded by lakes and streams, forests and fields. Our cities and towns and homes are set in this landscape, and our seasons lived out in this beautiful environment, and we are thankful for the many ways it enriches our lives. Help us be good stewards of these gifts.

We have been blessed with family and friends, colleagues and supporters, and even strangers who have put their confidence in us. We are grateful for the privilege and responsibility of this leadership placed on our shoulders.

May we serve the people of Michigan well, with hearts and minds committed to doing what is good and just, not only for those we know and love, but for those with whom we find little in common as well.

I conclude with the words of Reverend Ted Loder:

Empower us
to be bold participants,
rather than timid saints in waiting,
in the difficult ordinariness of now;
to exercise the authority of honesty;
rather than to defer to power,
or deceive to get it;
to influence someone for justice,
rather than impress anyone for gain;
and, by grace, to find treasures of joy, of friendship, of peace hidden in the fields of the daily
You give us to plow.

Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Darany, Barnett, Brown, Crawford, Denby, Driskell, Durhal, Geiss, Heise, Howrylak, Kelly, Lamonte, LaVoy, O'Brien, Roberts, Slavens and Stanley offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 270.

A resolution to commemorate the 150th anniversary of President Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address of November 19, 1863.

Whereas, It was one hundred and fifty years ago on the afternoon of November 19, 1863, that Abraham Lincoln, sixteenth President of these United States delivered what has been noted as one of the most eloquent speeches in the annals of American oratory. Lincoln's Gettysburg Address was delivered at the dedication of the Soldiers National Cemetery, established in the aftermath of the bloody battle of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania July 1-3, 1863. Almost five thousand men from the Great Lakes State fought on that hallowed ground and over one thousand Michiganians became combat casualties in the horrific battle; and

Whereas, Thirteen regiments and units from Michigan participated in the great struggle on the charred battlefield of Gettysburg and the blood of Michigan men and boys helped to make that ground sacred. From the 16th Michigan Infantry's defense of Little Round Top, where the regiment's colors were shot from the staff and fell “enveloping the fallen with their silken folds like a funeral pall”, to Battery I of the First Michigan Light Artillery Regiment and the 7th Infantry's defense against Pickett's charge on Cemetery Ridge where their commander, Lieutenant Colonel Amos Steele of Mason, Michigan died, to the Michigan Cavalry Brigade's heroic fight on the extreme right of the union line, where their commander Brigadier General George Armstrong Custer of Monroe, Michigan led his men into battle by extorting them to “Come on you wolverines”; and

Whereas, We also recognize and honor the 3rd Michigan Infantry's defense of the Peach Orchard, the 5th Infantry's stubborn defiance in the woods near the wheat field, the 4th Infantry's tenacious hold of the wheat field, where their colonel, Harrison Jeffords of Dexter, Michigan died by bayonet while defending the colors of the regiment, at the loop between the wheat field and the Emmitsburg road the First Michigan fought with valor. We also remember the four companies of Michigan sharpshooters who fought and bravely died with Berdan's U.S. sharpshooters at the wheat field and Little Round Top; and

Whereas, We must also pay tribute to the tremendous sacrifice paid by the Wayne county boys of the 24th Michigan of the famed Iron Brigade. Of the more than 400 union regiments engaged at Gettysburg, the 24th had the distinction of suffering among the highest casualties, by the end of the battle 80% of the regiment had been killed, wounded, or were listed as missing in action, including 9 men who died carrying the colors of the regiment; and

Whereas, These few, simple, and admittedly meager words shall not resurrect from the cold, shallow, hastily dug, graves of Pennsylvania, the flower of Michigan's long ago martyred youth. However, by remembering these "honored dead" we can, in some small way, make their sacrifice worth the immeasurable price that was paid. Perhaps by paying homage to the words that President Abraham Lincoln said there we can honor "what they did there" and in the words of the great emancipator, remember those boys in blue, including those from the peninsular state, who "gave the last full measure of devotion"; now, therefore, be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 150th anniversary of President Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address of November 19, 1863. We also honor the sacrifice made by the 90,000 Michigan soldiers and sailors who fought in the Civil War, and the 15,000 Michigan men who lost their lives, including those who were casualties on the battlefield of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. We declare "that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth".

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Cotter, Brown, Crawford, Darany, Denby, Driskell, Durhal, Geiss, Heise, Hooker, Howrylak, Kelly, Lamonte, LaVoy, O'Brien, Roberts, Slavens and Stanley offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 271.

A resolution to declare November 2013 as Long-Term Care Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The U.S. Census Bureau has projected that the population of Michigan residents age 65 and older will increase by nearly 70 percent to more than 2 million in 2030; and

Whereas, The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has reported that 70 percent of people over the age of 65 will need long-term care services at some point, with more than 40 percent of this group requiring nursing home care and another 30 percent requiring in-home assistance; and

Whereas, In 2012, long-term care insurers paid $6.6 billion in claim payments to some 264,000 individuals and by 2032 insurers are expected to pay $34 billion-a-year in benefits which is a 415 percent increase; and

Whereas, The average cost for a semi-private room in a nursing facility costs is nearly $75,000 a year and costs associated with long-term care needs are expected to continue to increase; and

Whereas, The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has reported less than 33 percent of adults over the age of 50 have begun saving for their long-term care needs; and

Whereas, Michigan citizens should recognize this critical situation and with the assistance and cooperation of state and federal government and businesses of all sizes, begin to take the appropriate steps to ensure that individuals and their families' long-term care needs can be met; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 2013 as Long-Term Care Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Rep. Barnett offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 272.

A resolution to declare October 31, 2013, to November 28, 2013, as Pumpkin and Pumpkin Spice Season in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Pumpkins retain historical significance as they were frequently utilized among Native Americans and colonists prior to Michigan attaining statehood in 1837 whether the pumpkin was utilized as a water vessel or bowl, in cooking pumpkin pie, among other applications; and

Whereas, Pumpkins today are recognized for being low in calories, fat, sodium, and are exceptional sources of Vitamin A, Vitamin B, potassium, iron, and protein; and

Whereas, The Michigan Vegetable Council concluded that the growth and cultivation of pumpkins generated approximately $16.8 million from 98.6 million pounds of pumpkins alone, helping our local and state economies thrive; and

Whereas, The Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development recognizes Michigan as one of the leading states in the United States in the production of pumpkins as an agricultural commodity; and

Whereas, Pumpkin spice is a seasoning which typically includes a mixture of cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, and cloves that provides a vibrant taste and seasonal theme; and

Whereas, The pumpkin spice seasoning has retained contemporary cultural significance as numerous businesses in Michigan have utilized it in a variety of food products and cosmetics among other applications; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 31, 2013, to November 28, 2013, as Pumpkin and Pumpkin Spice Season in the state of Michigan. We promote state enthusiasm among our residents as we celebrate the popularity of pumpkins and the pumpkin spice seasoning. We encourage Michigan residents and businesses from every community throughout our great state to acknowledge and support the spirit of pumpkins and the pumpkin spice seasoning throughout the fall season.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.
