Rep. Ray A. Franz, from the 101st District, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father, We thank You for the honor and privilege to be able to serve You and the people of this Great State in this magnificent chamber.

We ask that You grant us the wisdom and patience to expect and respect the opinions of others because we know that, through Your grace – we all want what is best for the citizens we represent.

We thank You for the service of all the staff that support us in this effort — for they make us a little better than we are alone.

We thank You for all who serve in uniform- both past and present. In particular – as You bring ‘Our Greatest Generation’ to Your side – please quench their thirst, relieve their pain, and grant them the peace that they gave us through their sacrifice.

Please watch over all that serve today – that they return to their loved ones safe and sound. Strengthen those families that their sacrifice will be short and their joys will abound.

Protect those that protect us here at home – and continue to bring happiness and prosperity to all who live, work and play in this piece of paradise we call Michigan.

All this we ask in Your name and in the name of Your loving Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Kandrevas, Knezek, Brown, Dillon, Darany, Irwin, Roberts, Tlaib, Brunner, Smiley, Brinks, Zemke, Singh, Greimel, Pscholka, Walsh, Clemente, Oakes, Barnett, Geiss, LaVoy and Schor offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 426.

A resolution to declare October 28, 2014, as Ohi Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Ohi Day honors the valor of the heroic Greek resistance to Axis forces on October 28, 1940, and marked a turning point in the fight against Axis aggression. Ohi Day led to the subsequent Allied and Greek victory over Italian Axis Forces and ensured the eventual defeat of the Nazi regime; and

Whereas, Prime Minister Metaxas was delivered an ultimatum to surrender Greek sovereignty to Axis forces at 5:30 a.m. and his response was truly the will of the Greek nation: Ohi (No). This was a “no” to hate and aggression and a reaffirmation of the revolutionary Greek vow, “Freedom or Death”; and

Whereas, Italian forces enjoyed a firepower ten times greater than Greece and seven times in population. These numbers were proven irrelevant as Greece not only soundly repelled the Italian offensive, but initiated a counter offensive of her own retaking half of Italian-occupied Albania. Germany would soon intervene and occupy Greece leaving much destruction in its wake, but the Greek resistance showed the Axis could be defeated and marked the first allied victory of the war; and

Whereas, Axis powers up to that point remained undefeated and seemingly invincible. Greece resisted and inspired the Western world, bringing hope and courage in dark days; and

Whereas, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, amazed and awestruck at what was a David vs. Goliath victory, stated: “When the entire world had lost hope, the Greek people dared to question the invincibility of the German monster, raising against it the proud spirit of freedom.”; and

Whereas, Even after the Greek military was overrun by Axis forces, the armed forces continued to fight in exile and civilians resisted the foreign invaders by any means. The island resistance of Crete is just one example as grandmothers waited with scythes and farming tools for German paratroopers to land and old men fought with obsolete weaponry left over from the First World War. Crete would become known to Hitler as the graveyard of paratroopers; and

Whereas, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill stated in admiration: “Until now we were saying that Greeks fight like heroes. From now on we will say that heroes fight like Greeks”; and

Whereas, Poland fell in 36 days, France in 43 days, and Yugoslavia in 11 days, Greece was able to hold for 189 days; and

Whereas, The heroic Greek resistance to Axis aggression delayed the German invasion of Russia by at least 6 months, forcing Germany to invade in the face of the unforgiving Russian winter and led to the eventual defeat of fascism and hate; and

Whereas, The following German occupation of Greece would leave 14% of the Greek population annihilated. Many Greek families, having lost everything during the war, migrated to Michigan in search of prosperity, peace and opportunity. Many of the over 100,000 Greek-Americans presently in Michigan have found such peace and prosperity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 28, 2014, as Ohi Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize Greek heroism and sacrifice in the face of inevitable defeat and suffering that was undertaken on October 28, 1940; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Office of Michigan Attorney General, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Singh, Barnett, Brown, Geiss, Kandrevas, LaVoy, Roberts and Schor offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 427.

A resolution to declare October 2014 as Microenterprise Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Microbusinesses, small businesses with five or fewer employees, comprise over 17 percent of Michigan's employment and provide jobs for over 970,000 people; and

Whereas, Microenterprise development produces employment and business opportunities through all economic cycles, growing from 678,230 to over 750,000 total microbusinesses (88% of total businesses) in Michigan between 2002 and 2012 ; and

Whereas, Women entrepreneurs make up 69 percent of those benefiting from microenterprise development in Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan recognizes that microbusinesses stabilize the economies of Michigan communities by providing local ownership and homegrown products and services; and

Whereas, Michigan recognizes that microenterprise training propels people out of poverty and into economic growth; and

Whereas, Michigan recognizes the contributions of microentrepreneurs who come from diverse cultures and backgrounds to live the American dream of owning their own businesses; and

Whereas, Michigan treasures the social, economic, and environmental contributions of its microbusinesses; and

Whereas, Michigan recognizes the importance of development, training, business counseling, and accessible credit to the success of microbusinesses; and

Whereas, Microenterprise development is an essential component of every community hoping to inspire and promote entrepreneurship; and

Whereas, Michigan communities can stimulate growth and successful entrepreneurship by fostering microenterprise development and by working together to promote outreach, advocacy, and education encouraging the growth of microenterprise opportunities for Michigan citizens; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 2014 as Microenterprise Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Kesto and Kowall offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 428.

A resolution urging the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency to abandon its potential tightening of the ground-level ozone standard and Congress, the Governor, and the Director of the Department of Environmental Quality to take measures to prevent the implementation of any new ground-level ozone standard.

Whereas, Ground-level ozone is formed on hot sunny days from emissions of volatile organic compounds and nitrogen oxides. Since high ozone levels can be detrimental to human health, the federal Clean Air Act directs the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to issue standards reducing its levels. Adherence to the ozone standard is borne primarily by the electric generating, manufacturing, petroleum, and automotive sectors who must undertake costly measures to reduce their air emissions; and

Whereas, The EPA is contemplating lowering the National Ambient Air Quality Standard (NAAQS) for ozone by 20 percent, reducing it from 75 to as low as 60 parts per billion (ppb). The last time the agency reduced the standard was in 2008, and the new standard has not yet been implemented; and

Whereas, Ratcheting down the ozone standard is unnecessary since the existing standard has resulted in lower ozone levels and is protective of human health. The current ozone NAAQS has lowered ozone concentrations, preventing cases of bronchitis, aggravated asthma, hospital and emergency room visits, nonfatal heart attacks, and premature death; and

Whereas, A more stringent ozone standard will severely weaken the U.S. and the Michigan economies. The National Association of Manufacturers estimates that a 60 ppb ozone standard could cost the country $270 billion annually and result in the loss of 2.9 million jobs or job equivalents per year. The impacts to Michigan could be devastating: 83,092 lost jobs or job equivalents per year, $75 billion gross state product loss from 2017 to 2040, and $58 billion in total compliance costs. The EPA's potential new ozone standard would be the most expensive regulation ever imposed on the American public and undo all the economic progress Michigan and the nation have made in recent years. Simply put, we cannot afford a lower ozone standard; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency to retain the existing ground-level ozone standard and we urge Congress to prevent the implementation of any new ground-level ozone standard; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge the Governor and the Director of the Department of Environmental Quality to do all they can to ensure any new ozone standard does not go into effect in Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Administrator of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the members of the Michigan congressional delegation, the Governor of Michigan, and the Director of the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

Reps. Kesto, Crawford, Heise and Kandrevas offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 429.

A resolution to urge the President of the United States to allow an additional 25,000 refugee visas for displaced Iraqis, with preference for placement in Michigan.

Whereas, The United States has long been a safe harbor for persecuted foreign nationals. Through the U.S. refugee visa program, individuals and their families who are harassed, oppressed, or have faced harassment or oppression at home because of their race, religion, nationality, public opinion, or social association can find relief in the U.S. When a humanitarian crisis occurs, the U.S. may also grant eligible individuals refugee visas. Once in the country, federal resettlement agencies help match refugees with local communities that can help support their needs; and

Whereas, The number of refugee visas available is determined and set by the President of the United States. In consultation with the cabinet and the House and Senate committees on the judiciary, the President assesses all concerns of humanitarian and national interest to determine the number of visas that will be available for the upcoming fiscal year; and

Whereas, The recent crisis in Syria and Iraq has forced hundreds of thousands of Iraqis, largely from religious minorities in the region—many of which are Assyrians, Chaldeans, Syriacs, and Yazidis—from their hometowns that have been ransacked by the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL). Those displaced persons are unable to return to their homes, and most do not have access to resources needed to fulfill basic needs, including food, water, and shelter. Moreover, these refugees face constant fear of persecution due to nothing more than the faith they claim, and their pronouncement of faith has led to violence as explicit as crucifixions, beheadings, and slavery. Minimal support has been offered to many of the estimated 2.8 million displaced Iraqis that remain in temporary shelter, overburdening and overcrowding neighboring nations and communities who stand on constant guard for fear that they will be the next target of ISIL. As this regional conflict endures, the displacement and imminent migration and persecution of refugees will continue; and

Whereas, Displaced Iraqi refugees must be offered relief from this regional instability and granted entry into the United States. Iraqi refugees have complemented our American society with a proven history of contributing to the economic and social well-being of this nation. In the Chaldean or Catholic Iraqi community of Metro Detroit, which is the largest concentration of Chaldeans outside of Iraq, 61 percent of households founded their own business, and this network of businesses is indispensable to the local economy. Moreover, organizations like the Chaldean Community Foundation offer resources to bind and strengthen the community as well as welcome and support refugees, in part by using community businesses to invest in new members and encourage the advancement of the community; and

Whereas, The current allotment of refugee visas may not be adequate to accommodate these individuals. When an unforeseen emergency arises, the President has the flexibility to issue emergency refugee visas for an affected group if the remaining annual allotment is insufficient to assist these displaced individuals; and

Whereas, The Chaldean Church and its bishop have garnered support for this request and driven a body of people able and willing to sustain and support the incoming refugees. The community stands ready to assist persecuted Iraqis and victims of war rebuild their lives in the U.S.; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the President of the United States to allow an additional 25,000 refugee visas for displaced Iraqis, being the Assyrians, Chaldeans, Syriacs, and Yazidis displaced because of their faith; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge that these refugees be given preference for placement in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Families, Children, and Seniors.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.
