Fr. Nate Harburg, Parochial Administrator of Nativity of the Lord Parish in Alma, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Father in heaven,

Please help the members of the House of Representatives to be faithful stewards of the many gifts You have given each one of them. In the recent words of Your servant Pope Francis to our Congress, may they ‘defend and preserve the dignity of [their] fellow citizens in the tireless and demanding pursuit of the common good’, especially, ‘the greatest common good: that of a community which sacrifices particular interests in order to share, in justice and peace, its goods, its interests, its social life.’

May everyone here strive with zeal to stimulate ‘the growth of all... especially those in situations of greater vulnerability or risk.’

Give these servants of Yours a fresh outpouring of Your Spirit. Give them new and exciting ideas of how ‘to protect, by means of the law, the image and likeness fashioned by God on every human face.’

Father of mercy and love, You desire the earthly good and eternal salvation of all people. Thank You for all the good You have accomplished through this house of representatives, and thank You in advance for all the good You will do through them in the future.

We pray this in the Name of Jesus Christ Your Son,
Amen.”

Rep. Singh moved that Rep. Driskell be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Love, Irwin, Moss, Robinson, Wittenberg, Derek Miller, Brunner, Chang, Hoadley, Garrett, Talabi, Neeley, Santana and Pagan offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 170.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to ban crude oil shipments on the Great Lakes and call for a comprehensive review of Great Lakes pipelines and spill response times.

Whereas, The Great Lakes are the world’s largest system of fresh surface water and an oil spill would have disastrous consequences for the environment and economy in Michigan. The Great Lakes, particularly the Straits of Mackinac, are especially vulnerable to a devastating oil spill because of the challenges of responding to spills in fresh water or under heavy ice. Current methods of spill response and cleanup may not be effective if a major spill were to occur in the Great Lakes; and

Whereas, All levels of government should play a role in ensuring that the transportation of crude oil and other hazardous liquids do not jeopardize the Great Lakes and endanger public health. The federal government currently has a leading role in oil pipeline safety and spill response. In order to protect the Great Lakes from an environmental and economic disaster, Congress should strengthen existing laws and regulations by enacting legislation, such as the Pipeline Improvement and Preventing Spills Act of 2015 (S.2080), which will reduce the odds of a major spill and provide a framework for the most effective response if a spill does occur; and

Whereas, To prevent oil spills in the Great Lakes and improve our ability to respond to them, federal legislation needs to address a number of issues. Congress should ban the dangerous shipment of crude oil by tanker vessels in the Great Lakes and should institute a comprehensive review of Great Lakes pipelines. Analysis is needed to better understand the risks associated with pipelines in the Great Lakes region and to craft more comprehensive spill response plans which are specifically suited for the conditions present in the Great Lakes; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to ban crude oil shipments on the Great Lakes and call for a comprehensive review of Great Lakes pipelines and spill response times; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources.

Reps. Love, Moss, Hovey-Wright, Rutledge, Glenn, Sheppard, Graves, Canfield, Barrett, Howrylak, Kelly, LaVoy, Pagan and Potvin offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 171.

A resolution to declare November 2015 as Gratitude Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The month of November holds national holidays such as Thanksgiving and Veterans Day. These two federal holidays both have a binding commonality as they both bring to the collective memory of our nation the consideration of the gift of sacrifice and its impact on others; and

Whereas, We honor our veterans in the month of November and are thankful for all of their past and future sacrifices. In this month of thanksgiving, we contemplate the untold heroics of our veterans that have allowed us to have the freedom and blessings that we experience today; these sacrifices can never be repaid. They have been a priceless gift to all of the citizens of this great state and the United States of America; and

Whereas, Thanksgiving is a time of enjoyment and reflection which is often overlooked. It's labeled a shopping holiday when reflection on what we are most grateful for is warranted. Thanksgiving Day is a day when families gather and remember to be thankful for what we have been blessed to receive. We are thankful for our families, friends, and community. We are grateful for our jobs and homes and the freedoms that have been graciously bestowed upon us; and

Whereas, With beautiful landscape and great citizens, we have much to be thankful for in this state. We are surrounded by the largest fresh water system in the world. The citizens of this state are world renown and the innovations that have been launched from within these borders have made us proud to be citizens of Michigan. We are grateful to move, live, and have our being in the shadow of those great men and women who have walked this path before us; and

Whereas, The state legislature is grateful for the trust and faith the citizens of Michigan have in this institution. We show gratitude for many reasons, not the least of which science has demonstrated that showing gratitude improves both physical and psychological health which is the foundation of our lives; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of legislative body declare November 2015 as Gratitude Month in the state of Michigan. We express our gratitude to the constituents of this great state.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Hooker, Aaron Miller, Chatfield, McBroom, Goike, Runestad, Dianda, Sheppard, Glardon, Callton, Outman, Inman, Potvin, Hovey-Wright, Vaupel, Heise, Canfield, Kosowski, Santana, Kivela, Moss, Singh, Yonker, Tedder, Lauwers, Rendon, LaVoy, Irwin, Clemente, Yanez, Derek Miller, Liberati, Chirkun, Cochran, Cole, Howrylak, Glenn, Forlini, Victory, Somerville and Barrett offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 172.

A resolution to encourage the business community and the citizens of Michigan to preserve the original intentions of Thanksgiving Day by refraining from offering or participating in sales promotions, and to encourage community organizations and religious institutions to offer their own events for individuals unable to celebrate with family and friends.

Whereas, On October 3, 1789, President George Washington proclaimed the final Thursday in November a national day of reflection, gratitude, and rest so that the citizens of the United States could recognize and celebrate the fruits of American labor. For the past 226 years, families and communities across this nation have come together in celebration and brotherhood to express gratitude and appreciation for one another on this day; and

Whereas, Citizens in the state of Michigan deserve the opportunity to observe and celebrate our national day of Thanksgiving. In recent years, non-essential businesses, such as retail establishments, have steadily encroached upon this day, using sales promotions and other marketing techniques to entice consumers away from their celebrations, and requiring employees to forgo or limit the enjoyment and togetherness brought by this holiday. This is a detriment to the employees, their families, and our communities; and

Whereas, For the sake of our communities and citizens, non-essential businesses in Michigan should support their employees and their families by observing this great holiday. In keeping with the spirit of Thanksgiving and to honor their workers, non-essential businesses should refrain from using sales promotions and other marketing techniques that entice individuals away from their celebrations and mandate the absence of employees from these celebrations; and

Whereas, Business and public services that are necessary for the well-being of our communities should make every attempt to allow their employees the opportunity to celebrate Thanksgiving Day. Emergencies and natural events don't observe holidays, and our communities rely on people like first responders, hospital workers, and utility workers to combat these events. These individuals forfeit part of their holiday for the safety and well-being of Michigan's families, and employers should ensure these individuals the best opportunity to celebrate with their family and friends; and

Whereas, Citizens of Michigan should refrain from participating in commercial events on Thanksgiving Day. A gesture of respect and caring to their fellow citizens, refraining from participating in these events would demonstrate to businesses that we support Michigan's working families. Moreover, drawing people out of their homes and into the streets creates additional demands on public services, like police, fire, and medical professionals, demands that must be met; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we encourage the business community and the citizens of Michigan to preserve the original intentions of Thanksgiving Day by refraining from offering or participating in sales promotions; and be it further

Resolved, That for citizens of this state without family or friends with which to celebrate this holiday, we encourage community organizations and religious institutions to offer their own events and community spaces in celebration and brotherhood.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Commerce and Trade.

Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Franz called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Cox to the Chair.
