Rev. Kathy Groff, Pastor of Newaygo United Methodist Church in Newaygo, offered the following invocation:

“Creator God, One who made this incredible world, One who shaped and formed all that we see, then gifted it with the breath of life, we give You thanks for these men and women who have dedicated this part of their lives to work for the good of the people of this state we call Michigan. You know what sacrifices they make, sometimes being away from family, sometimes traveling long distances, sometimes facing criticism and disappointment. But You also know the joys they experience in their work, their fellowship with each other, their sense of satisfaction when a difficulty is resolved, the chance to voice their opinions. As they gather this day be present with them. Give freely of Your wisdom and guidance, that whatever they do they will do in keeping with Your will. Remind us all that this is Your world, created with purpose and that we have been set in this world to care for it and for each other. Where there is rivalry and conflict in this decision making body, help the voice of peace and reconciliation to speak out as well. You, O God know the economic hardships of these uncertain days, so we ask for strength of purpose and knowledge to discern the things that might help. We thank You God for the love You give us and the ways You walk with us through life. Remind us as we come to the celebration of Veterans Day tomorrow that there have been so many who have sacrificed to make this a great nation and that all that is done here is in keeping with the sacrifices they have made. Be present God, continue to love and nurture Your sons and daughters, and honor the sacrifice of time and effort that these gathered here freely give. And bless us all in the work of being Your children and listening to and following Your way. Amen.”

Rep. Segal moved that Rep. Meadows be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Stamas moved that Rep. Scott be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 157.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Howard Wolpe, former member of the Michigan House of Representatives and the United States House of Representatives.

Whereas, The members of the legislative body were saddened to learn of the passing of Howard Wolpe, a gentleman who served his community, state, and nation most effectively and in many different capacities. His intellect, passion for public service, and vision touched lives in Michigan and across the world, and the example he set will not soon be forgotten; and

Whereas, A graduate of Reed College who earned a doctorate at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Howard Wolpe came to Michigan to teach at Western Michigan University. He soon became involved in civic affairs in Kalamazoo, serving on the city commission, where he championed fair housing laws for low-income citizens. In 1973, he brought his talents and principles to Lansing. In his two terms as a state legislator, he was a strong advocate on environmental issues; and

Whereas, In 1978, he was elected to Congress, where he earned great respect for his effectiveness working on behalf of his constituents. As the chair of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Africa for several years, Congressman Wolpe was widely acknowledged for his expertise on issues involving Africa. He was an early and articulate advocate of U.S. policies to combat apartheid. After his tenure in Congress, he continued to represent our country in this continent as a diplomat to Africa in both the Clinton and the Obama administrations; and

Whereas, While Howard Wolpe’s varied public life, including serving as his party’s candidate for governor in 1994, spanned a wide range of responsibilities and skills, the distinguishing feature of his life and career is contained in a single ideal – his deep personal commitment to serving others. This legacy will long endure; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Howard Wolpe, a member of this legislative body from 1973 to 1976 and a member of the United States House of Representatives from 1979 to 1992; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Wolpe family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

Reps. Byrum, Barnett, Brunner, Constan, Cotter, Damrow, Darany, Dillon, Genetski, Haines, Irwin, Johnson, Kowall, LeBlanc, Liss, Lori, Lyons, Nesbitt, O'Brien, Santana, Shaughnessy, Slavens, Smiley, Tlaib and Yonker offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 158.

A resolution to declare November 17, 2011, as Prematurity Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Prematurity has been increasing steadily and alarmingly over the past two decades; and

Whereas, One out of eight babies is born prematurely in the United States; and

Whereas, Every year, an estimated 13 million babies worldwide are born too soon and too small. More than a million of these tiny babies do not survive; and

Whereas, Half of all neurological disabilities in children are related to premature birth and premature babies face an increased risk of serious medical complications and death, including lasting disabilities such as cerebral palsy, intellectual and developmental disabilities, chronic lung disease, and vision and hearing problems; and

Whereas, Although doctors have made marvelous advances in caring for babies born too soon and too small, we need to find out how to prevent preterm birth from happening in the first place; and

Whereas, Women who have had a previous preterm birth, who are pregnant with twins, triplets or more, or women with certain uterine or cervical abnormalities are more at risk for having premature births, but preterm labor and delivery can happen to any pregnant woman; and

Whereas, Organizations such as the March of Dimes have worked tirelessly to raise public awareness of the problems of prematurity and to decrease the rate of preterm birth in the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 17, 2011, as Prematurity Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Slavens, Barnett, Bauer, Constan, Darany, Haines, Kurtz, Liss, Lori, Santana and Tlaib offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 159.

A resolution to declare November 17, 2011, as Smoke-Out Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The state of Michigan has long been concerned with the health of its citizens; and

Whereas, The United States Surgeon General has said that smoking remains the single most preventable cause of premature death in our society; and

Whereas, For thirty years, millions of smokers have participated in the American Cancer Society's Great American Smoke-Out, a day on which they give up cigarettes for 24 hours in the hope that they may quit permanently; and

Whereas, A significant number of those who gave up cigarettes for the day were able to give up the habit entirely; and

Whereas, This demonstration of success suggests that the Great American Smoke-Out has potential for improving the health of the citizens of Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 17, 2011, as Smoke-Out Day in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That we recognize that the citizens of Michigan deserve the opportunity to grow, thrive, be healthy, informed and aware of their health and of the factors that affect that health.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. O'Brien, Barnett, Brown, Constan, Damrow, Darany, Heise, Johnson, Knollenberg, Kowall, Kurtz, Liss, Lori, Nesbitt, Santana, Shaughnessy, Slavens, Tlaib and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 160.

A resolution to declare November 2011 as Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy Syndrome Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy Syndrome (RSDS), also known as Complex Regional Pain Syndrome (CRPS), is a debilitating and progressively chronic condition characterized by severe burning pain, pathological changes in bone and skin, excessive sweating, tissue swelling, and extreme sensitivity to touch; and

Whereas, While RSDS is thought to be a nerve disorder that generally occurs at the site of a minor or major trauma injury, it may also occur without an apparent injury to the afflicted person; and

Whereas, The causes of RSDS are unknown, the syndrome is thought to be the result of a malfunction of the sympathetic nervous system. RSDS is often misdiagnosed because this condition is either unknown or is poorly understood. The disorder is unique in that it simultaneously affects the nerves, skin, muscles, blood vessels, and bones; and

Whereas, The prognosis for patients suffering from RSDS is generally much better when the condition is identified and treated as early as possible, ideally within three months of the onset of the first symptoms; and

Whereas, If treatment is delayed, the disorder can quickly lead to changes in bone and muscle and may become irreversible, resulting in limited mobility, atrophy of the muscles, and eventual disability and unemployment of patients; and

Whereas, A delay in diagnosis or treatment for this syndrome can result in severe physical and physiological problems, and early recognition and prompt treatment of RSDS provide the greatest opportunity for recovery; and

Whereas, It is in the best interest of the state to educate both individuals and medical professionals regarding this debilitating disease and to promote research to accurately identify, diagnose, and treat this disease; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 2011 as Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy Syndrome Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Bumstead moved that his name be removed as co-sponsor of the bill.

The motion prevailed.

Reps. Bauer, Bledsoe, Brunner, Byrum, Callton, Clemente, Constan, Crawford, Darany, Durhal, Foster, Geiss, Haugh, Heise, Howze, Hughes, Lane, Liss, MacMaster, McCann, Nathan, O'Brien, Oakes, Olson, Olumba, Ouimet, Rendon, Rutledge, Roy Schmidt, Wayne Schmidt, Segal, Slavens, Smiley, Stallworth, Stanley, Stapleton, Talabi, Tyler, Womack and Zorn were named co-sponsors of the bill.

Rep. McBroom, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

The recent vote in the Senate seems to have heated the debate, if it wasn't hot enough, on school bullying. Any of us who actually take time to remember school bullying know just how difficult it is to manage at the local level- so why do we even begin to believe some legislation passed down from Lansing will have any effectual impact? I understand that Michigan is one of three states without a state mandate on bullying. I believe bullying needs to be taken seriously and dealt with, but a Lansing solution will not be sufficient or an honest approach to dealing with the problem.

Any policy Lansing passes should allow for local control. It seems that bullying could be different in Escanaba than in Menominee and certainly different than Grand Rapids or Dearborn. The local schools are best equipped to address this issue. Let the local communities demand standards and policies that are appropriate and necessary to their local issues.

The unintended consequences from past micro-meddling in schools should be well remembered: students suspended for knives used for brownies or cake because of weapons free legislation, elementary students suspended for a kiss or hug from sexual harassment policies, and students reprimanded for handing out a Bible, Christmas card, or candy cane from non-discrimination rules.

And what can we expect to occur after this? It is too easy for us to believe what we are doing here today will only make the difference we intend: to protect children from a bully. But if a school district staff and parents aren't already taking the personal responsibility to protect those who are being preyed on, how can we expect this legislation to help? In fact, by doing this legislation I believe we further facilitate the local abdication of responsibility to protect the vulnerable in a local, affective way because, 'now the state has done the work. Now the state knows best and has done the job- I don't need to use my own sensibilities about bullying, I'll just follow the standards sent down from Lansing.' Bullying is not like breaking the speed limit- protecting the vulnerable from bullying takes care and involvement that Lansing is not in a position to provide. And where will it end? Should we start passing anti-bullying bills for the workplace?

Ultimately, it is like asking for a shotgun blast to only hit a bull's eye from 200 yards. This legislation will not stop bullying and it will not stop the tragedies that bullying has led to in some cases. I encourage members; don't get roped into chasing the wind- stand against bullying by voting for our local schools and communities to take on this local issue. Vote against placing our local schools into another mandate that creates no impact besides busyness and warm fuzzies in Lansing. Thank you.”

Rep. Poleski, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

There is no excuse for people being bullied or otherwise abused. How to thwart it effectively?

In speaking with each of the school districts in my area, I am told that each has an anti-bullying policy, crafted for its purposes by its school board and management. If we enact HB 4163 or any similar bill, it will provide no more tools to our school districts than they currently have to enforce discipline.

Tangentially, by enacting a State mandate, we invite the reasonable response that we have imposed yet another unfunded mandate upon our local districts. I respectfully decline to impose such a burden.

This bill, while well-meaning, is not necessary in my view.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to explain my no vote on this very sensitive topic.”

Rep. Shirkey, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

It is imperative we take the safety of all children seriously. Passing legislation will not impact, in any material way, the safety of children. It will result in yet another unfunded mandate. But that is not my primary objection. I am certain that some young, innocent young man or lady will be accused of bullying while saying or doing something that, the day before passage, would have not been viewed as bullying at all. This will cause children to become labeled as a bully for something that, prior to legislation, would be typical childish misbehavior.

Schools, administrators, trained teachers, parents, and local leaders are best suited to address and solve this, without government intervention, at the local level. Communities can impact behavior. Legislation has proven rather ineffective in doing so.

Over 80% of schools already have bullying policies. We don't need legislation to get to 100%. We need parents and communities to lead it.”

Reps. Franz and Pettalia, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Bullying is a serious problem, and I hope parents and schools keep up the good work they've already begun finding new ways to prevent it. I believe they can and they will, without state government forcing them to do it the state's way.

The schools in my community are best-suited to address the bullying concerns students face.

I voted against House Bill 4163, which would amend the revised school code, because I believe it creates requirements for local communities that take away their right to govern themselves.

Because of this, I cannot vote in favor of this legislation as it is currently written.”

Rep. Nesbitt, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

There is an old axiom, 'Why let the legislature get in the way of movement.' The movement is already underway in Michigan, as nearly eighty percent of school districts in Michigan have anti-bullying policies and the number of school districts continue to grow who work together to create a policy that will work in their district. Growing up and attending public school's I understand how tough it can be attending school and how mean some students can be, however, a legislative solution is no replacement to a locally decided solution. Bullying is a serious problem, and I hope our local schools continue to work on ensuring they have proper anti-bullying policies in place. The local community is in the best position to address concerns of the serious problem of bullying. I voted against HB4163, as it creates a new mandate on local schools, without ensuring that our schools are equipped to enforce policies on bullying. Because of this, I cannot vote for this legislation in its current form. I appreciate our teachers, parents, administrators, and students who continues to work towards solutions to end the practice of bullying in our schools.”

Rep. Johnson, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Bullying is indeed a serious problem, and I hope parents and schools keep up the good work they've already begun on finding ways to address it. I believe that they can and they will without state government forcing them to do so. In conversations with my local schools in the 97th House District, I am confident that they realize the importance of addressing this topic.

I believe the loss of local control that HB4163 creates is unnecessary and have voted no on this legislation as currently presented.”

Rep. Hooker, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I have been throughout my teaching career, one who would not tolerate any young person, not treated with respect and dignity. I believe every young person needs to have a safe environment to learn and grow. I believe each school works to guarantee that safety. A Lansing directive will only add paperwork, bureaucracy and multiple work for local schools. This legislation will not solve the problem...teachers, administrations and parents are the answer. The federal government and Michigan Department of Education already require every school to have and enforce a bullying policy.”

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of
