Senator John M. Proos of the 21st District offered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father, we come to You today as men and women of faith, trusting that our prayers of thanksgiving and our prayers of desperate wanting and need will be fulfilled. We are grateful for the beauty of the morning sun, grateful for the joyous laughter that our families and loved ones bring to each of us, and we are especially grateful that You have placed us all in Your loving care.

In today's Gospel word from John 14, Father, You remind us of Your blessed Son's words, "My peace I give you, My peace I leave you." No more important words can be spoken this morning as each of us seek Your peace, Your care, Your comfort, and Your guidance in our daily actions with all that we encounter throughout our day. Please bring peace to our broken world; please bring peace to our nation; please bring peace to our great state; and please bring peace to our hearts in all that we say, in all that we do, and with everyone we encounter today.

Lord Father, this week—a week that we remember the men and women in law enforcement and our first responders—please bring Your loving care to those who have fallen and peace to their families.

We ask all of this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Resolutions

Senator Kowall moved that consideration of the following concurrent resolution be postponed for today:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10

The motion prevailed.

Senator Zorn offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 60.

A resolution to recognize the Bicentennial of Monroe County.

Whereas, The county of Monroe, Michigan's second oldest county created on July 14, 1817, and named in honor of President James Monroe, the 5th President of the United States; and

Whereas, The county of Monroe is endowed with rich historical and natural resources, built on a strong agricultural base, home to innovative industries, and populated with a dedicated citizenry; and

Whereas, Monroe County is active in the preservation and presentation of its history by recognizing such significant sites such as the River Raisin National Battlefield Park, Dundee Old Mill Museum, Navarre Anderson Trading Post, and the General George Armstrong Custer Equestrian statue; and

Whereas, Today, Monroe County is acknowledged as a transportation hub including the largest highway gateway into Michigan, home to Michigan's First Road and having the state's only international port on Lake Erie; and

Whereas, Monroe County is made up of 14 townships—the first Michigan county to divide into townships; and

Whereas, Ash Township is a rich agricultural community that was established in 1837 with the Village of Carleton to follow in 1872, and is the home to a mixture of residential and agricultural lands; and

Whereas, Bedford Township is the site of Banner Oak School, built in 1871, and is on the Michigan State Register of Historic Sites; and

Whereas, Berlin Township contains Pointe Mouillee State Game Area; and

Whereas, Dundee Township is the site of the Dundee Old Mill, which over the years has served as a grist mill, hydro-electric power plant, Ford factory, fabricating factory, and museum; and

Whereas, Erie Township pioneers were of French Canadian ancestry, with many current residents being descendants of these families; and

Whereas, The proud legacy of Exeter Township is farming. Modest residential growth in the rural community continues to be steady due to its central location between the major employment centers of Toledo, Ann Arbor and Detroit; and

Whereas, Frenchtown Township is home to Sterling State Park and Detroit Edison's Fermi II Nuclear Plant; and

Whereas, Ida Township is the home of the Christmas in Ida Festival and Parade of Lights; and

Whereas, The LaSalle Township area contained a settlement along Otter Creek which was established by French pioneers in 1794, and this makes LaSalle Township one of the earliest settled areas in Monroe County; and

Whereas, London Township is home to London Methodist Church, one of the oldest churches in the county; and

Whereas, The city of Monroe, also named in honor of President James Monroe, is home to the River Raisin National Battlefield Park, the only National Park dedicated to telling the story of the War of 1812; and

Whereas, Monroe Charter Township was formed by an executive act of Governor Lewis Cass on May 4, 1818 and was one of the five original townships organized in Monroe county; and

Whereas, Raisinville Township pioneer settlers were the first citizens to fully organize a school district and construct the first public school in Michigan Territory; and

Whereas, Summerfield Township is traversed by the River Raisin, and is a rich agricultural community that produces world class produce; and

Whereas, Whiteford Township is an agricultural community; has a newly established disc golf course that will be a top course in the area; and fields for soccer, baseball, and walking trails go through a portion of Ayvar Prairie with wetland habitat where many species of birds can be seen; and

Whereas, The year 2017 will mark the 200th Anniversary of the creation of Monroe County; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan acknowledges the importance of Monroe County's history; and

Whereas, In preparation for this anniversary, Monroe County initiated a bicentennial coordination committee which has evolved into the Monroe County Bicentennial Alliance, comprised of citizens and organizations from across the county giving freely and generously of their time to commemorate this milestone in the history of Monroe County; and

Whereas, The Monroe County Bicentennial Alliance adopted the mission of celebrating and facilitating a year-long tribute to the Bicentennial of Monroe County; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of the legislative body support the mission and recognize the efforts of the Monroe County Bicentennial Alliance and its constituent members for their cooperative coordination of programs and special events to raise awareness and to create a greater appreciation of Monroe County during its bicentennial celebration throughout 2017.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Bieda, Booher, Brandenburg, Gregory, Hansen, Hopgood, Kowall, MacGregor, Marleau, Pavlov, Proos and Schmidt were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senator Casperson entered the Senate Chamber.

Senator Meekhof offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 61.

A resolution to commemorate May 16, 2017, as Chaldean American Day.

Whereas, 130,000 Chaldeans, the largest population outside of Iraq, reside in the state of Michigan; and

Whereas, Since migrating to America during the 1920s, Chaldeans have continued to use their strong work ethic to contribute to the growth of Michigan through the establishment of more than 15,000 Chaldean-owned businesses across the state; and

Whereas, The Chaldean population has consistently proven their entrepreneurial spirit with nearly 60 percent of the community owning at least one business and 80 percent of all food stores in the Detroit area alone; and

Whereas, The population of Chaldean Americans continues to grow in the state of Michigan, since the Iraqi Chaldean refugees began migrating in search of better economic, political, and religious opportunities; and

Whereas, The Chaldean American community works to help the refugees adjust and become contributing citizens to the Great Lakes State through business, philosophy, language, and cuisine; and

Whereas, The Chaldean Community Foundation provides social services to more than 8,000 people annually at its Sterling Heights and Southfield offices, by advancing the needs of the Chaldean American community and the communities in which they live and work through education, charitable giving, and advocacy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body commemorate May 16, 2017, as Chaldean American Day. We acknowledge the contributions of this innovative and entrepreneurial community as an important part of Michigan's diverse history; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce as evidence of our highest esteem.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Bieda, Booher, Brandenburg, Casperson, Conyers, Gregory, Hansen, Hood, Hopgood, Knollenberg, Kowall, MacGregor, Marleau, Pavlov, Proos, Rocca, Schmidt and Zorn were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senator Meekhof asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Meekhof's statement is as follows:

It is my pleasure to introduce a resolution to commemorate May 16, 2017, as Chaldean American Day. Michigan is home to 130,000 Chaldeans, the largest population outside of Iraq. Since immigrating to Michigan in the 1920s, Chaldeans have woven themselves into the fabric of our state. 60 percent of the individuals in the Chaldean community own at least one business, and 80 percent of all food stores are owned by Chaldeans in Detroit alone. The Chaldean community also plays a valuable, intangible role, adding to Michigan's culture through their unique and robust history, cuisine, art, and language. The community has also played a monumental role in the refugee population that has been relocated to southeast Michigan and helped them integrate into American life.

We sincerely appreciate the contributions, entrepreneurship, and history of Michigan's Chaldean community. Please help we welcome the Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce President, Martin Manna, who is joining me on the floor today.

Senator Kowall moved that rule 3.902 be suspended to allow the guests of Senator Hildenbrand admittance to the Senate floor, including the center aisle.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Kowall moved that rule 3.901 be suspended to allow photographs to be taken from the Senate floor.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Recess

Senator Kowall moved that the Senate recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The motion prevailed, the time being 10:11 a.m.

11:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by the President pro tempore, Senator Schuitmaker.

During the recess, Senator Hildenbrand introduced the Lowell High School Red Arrows Varsity Wrestling Team, Division II State Champions, and Coach R.J. Boudro; and presented them with a Special Tribute.

Coach Boudro responded briefly.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of General Orders

Senator Kowall moved that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of the General Orders calendar.

The motion prevailed, and the President pro tempore, Senator Schuitmaker, designated Senator Stamas as Chairperson.

After some time spent therein, the Committee arose; and the President pro tempore, Senator Schuitmaker, having resumed the Chair, the Committee reported back to the Senate, favorably and without amendment, the following bill:

The bill was read a first and second time by title and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Statements

Senator Bieda asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bieda's statement is as follows:

I rise to commemorate National Peace Officers Memorial Day. Yesterday, communities across our nation honored the men and women in blue who lost their lives while serving their country. Today, I want to take a moment to remember each and every one of those 394 peace officers and to recognize their courage and sacrifice to serve and protect.

More specifically, I want to remember the Michigan peace officers who had their lives cut short. Our state lost seven phenomenal officers this past year. It's become an unfortunate reality that our police officers suit up each morning without knowing whether or not they're going to make it home that night. But still, they put on that uniform every day and proudly display their badge because they believe, like many of us, that they will make a difference in their communities. While we take time to remember these officers today, I want us to also commit to doing what is necessary to keep them safe in the future.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of peace officers who lost their lives in the past year.
