

MICHIGAN ELECTION LAW (EXCERPT)
Act 116 of 1954

168.613c Consolidation of local units as new city; election of officers on March 7, 2000.

Sec. 613c. Notwithstanding any law or charter provision to the contrary, if 2 cities and a village are to be consolidated as a new city in 2000 and the new city is scheduled to elect officers on March 7, 2000, the governing body of any of the local units that are to be consolidated may, by resolution adopted before January 14, 2000, cancel an election of officers of that local unit. If the election is canceled, terms of office that would have expired after that election are extended until the effective date of the consolidation.
