Rep. Fulton Sheen, from the 88th District, offered the following invocation:

“Lord You wield great resources and provision at Your command. You release and bestow them on whom You choose. The world’s systems have done all they can to maintain the balance of power, to protect themselves and play one against another. These are the intrigues of men. These things happen in the dark of the night with a cloak of secrecy. Men arrogantly believe that they are in control and that no eye sees them, no ear hears them, and no mind perceives what they do. They do not even consider that You are ever seeing, ever hearing, and that You not only perceive their minds, but You know their thoughts and the motivations of their hearts.

America has chosen their next president and the intrigues of men are in full swing. Even now the balance of power is shifting and decisions and actions are being made and taken. Lord too many of our citizens sit unaware and oblivious to what is going on in the earth. Insulated and consumed by trivial concerns of schedules, activities, entertainment, and the business of life, they neither care, nor perceive the times in which they are living.

Lord let us embrace, engage, and discern the moment, for there is a battle going on. Let us not take lightly what is transpiring all around us; let us not be unaware or complacent.

Freedom is not free. You paid a price to set us free from sin and darkness, just as a price is paid for the nations of the earth to retain their sovereignty. A people who are unwilling to fight for their freedom will be overcome, but a people willing to fight for their freedom will not be overcome. There is a time for peace and a time for war and this has nothing to do with preference. So help us to engage in the battle, whether that battle is economic, for the family, for life, or one fought by American soldiers in a foreign land. We pray for protection, for wisdom and that we may persevere. Lord have mercy on our state and on our nation. May we be now, as we began, one nation under God, indivisible, with Liberty and justice for all. - Amen.”

Rep. Tobocman moved that Reps. Dean and Hood be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Messages from the Governor

The following line item veto message from the Governor was received and read:

Executive Office, Lansing, September 27, 2008

Michigan House of Representatives
State Capitol
Lansing, Michigan 48909-7514

Dear Legislators:

Today I have signed Enrolled House Bill 5808, which makes appropriations for the Department of Transportation for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2009. However, I have disapproved one item pursuant to Section 19 of Article V of the Michigan Constitution of 1963. The specific item veto is contained in the attached copy of this bill, which has been filed with the Secretary of State.

This bill provides over $3.6 billion for rebuilding, repairing and maintaining Michigan's roads and bridges, as well as key intermodal and public transportation programs. My action today:

- Provides over $2.7 billion in road and bridge construction funds to the Department of Transportation and local road agencies for the preservation, repair, and maintenance of Michigan's transportation network.
- Provides $275 million for public transit programs, including $186 million for bus operating assistance grants to local transit agencies.

However, I have again disapproved Subsection (3) of Section 306 which would mandate that the Department of Treasury develop a cost allocation plan for motor fuel tax collections based on time and effort.

I thank the Legislature for its work on this important budget bill.

Sincerely,
Jennifer M. Granholm
Governor

The bill was signed by the Governor September 27, 2008, at 5:10 p.m.

Whereas, Over the course of his remarkable career as a member of the United States House of Representatives, John Dingell has exerted an impact that has strengthened our nation and safeguarded our people in many ways. His unprecedented tenure of leadership has had a profound impact in such fundamental policy areas as environmental protection, energy, health care, and commerce. The "Dean of the House," Representative Dingell has amassed a record unparalleled in scope and depth; and

Whereas, John Dingell's effectiveness in marshaling support among his colleagues for vitally important legislation is well established. He has been essential, as an author and co-author, in the crafting of many of the nation's most important environmental and conservation laws. These included not only landmark legislation dealing with brownfield revitalization, safe drinking water, and hazardous and solid waste handling, but also lead exposure reduction, weatherization grants, and energy conservation; and

Whereas, Several pressing problems facing our nation at this critical time are policy areas that have long been the focus of Representative Dingell's diligence. Health care, including treatment standards, patient rights, and access for children, have long been championed by this tenacious public servant. Moreover, at a juncture where the very survival of America's large manufacturing industry is in peril, John Dingell brings a breadth of knowledge to these challenges that is unsurpassed. Clearly, his grasp of key issues and his ability to get results are needed more than ever in the chair of the Energy and Commerce Committee; now, therefore, be it

A resolution recognizing October 13-17, 2008, as Credit Union Week and honoring all Michigan credit unions.

Whereas, Credit unions have been organized in Michigan since 1934, they have a proud tradition of innovation and leadership among the nation's credit unions. The Michigan credit union movement is one of growth, progress, and success; and

Whereas, Michigan credit unions are rooted in the communities in which they serve, whether supporting local charities; offering financial education seminars; or operating student-run credit union branches in schools. They do this voluntarily, because as not-for-profit, member-owned, financial cooperatives, credit unions recognize that social responsibility is an integral part of their mission; and

Whereas, Michigan credit unions continue to improve the financial literacy of their members and the community, following the credit union philosophy of "People Helping People", and

Whereas, Michigan credit unions remain informed through the assistance of the Michigan Credit Union League which has focused exclusively on serving its members throughout its history; a commitment that is concisely expressed in its mission statement: To foster, protect, and promote the vitality of credit unions by providing programs and services that will enhance their ability to enrich the lives of members; now, therefore, be it
