Rep. Jim Howell, from the 94th District, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Lord, we ask that You give us wisdom today as we make decisions that will affect the citizens of this state. We ask that You watch over us and provide us with strength and good judgment. We ask, Lord, that You watch over our men and women who put their lives in jeopardy every day to protect our rights, guard our borders, and fight for us in other lands. As we celebrate and memorialize our heroes this coming Monday – Memorial Day – we ask that You guide our thoughts and prayers to those who have given their lives for this great country, as well as their families. We ask this in Your name. Amen.”

Rep. Waters moved that Rep. Stallworth be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.
