Rep. Andy Meisner, from the 27th District, offered the following invocation:

“Our God and God of our Ancestors: We ask Your blessings for our country, for our veterans and active military fighting to defend our country, for our government, its leaders and advisors, and for all who exercise just and rightful authority.

Teach them insights of Your Torah, that they may administer all affairs of state fairly, that peace and security, happiness and prosperity, justice and freedom may forever abide in our midst.

Creator of all flesh, bless all the inhabitants of our state and our country with Your spirit. May citizens of all races and creeds forge a common bond in true harmony to banish all hatred and bigotry and to safeguard the ideals and free institutions which are the pride and glory of our country.

May this land under Your providence be an influence for good throughout the world, uniting all people in peace and freedom and helping them to fulfill the vision of Your prophet: ‘Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they experience war any more.’ And let us say: Amen.”

House Resolution No. 287.

A resolution to urge the Family Independence Agency to work closely with the United States Department of Justice to implement recommendations made concerning the operations of the W. J. Maxey Training School.

Whereas, Pursuant to federal law, the Civil Rights Division of the United States Department of Justice conducted a thorough investigation of the conditions at W. J. Maxey Training School at Whitmore Lake. This study, which included on-site inspections, discussions, and document review, identified significant deficiencies at the facility and called for new measures to bring the Maxey Training School into compliance with federal standards in all areas; and

Whereas, The Justice Department review of conditions at the Maxey Training School uncovered practices that are very troubling. The study found many conditions that must be remedied. Several of the deficiencies put the youthful residents at significant risk. Instead of treatment designed to help residents turn their lives around, certain conditions and practices have been creating a counterproductive atmosphere; and

Whereas, Justice Department investigators found "quite disturbing" uses of restraints, troubling reports of peer restraint practices, excessive use of isolation, inadequate due process in disciplinary cases, inadequate staffing levels, insufficient education programs for residents with disabilities, insufficient fire safety protection, and discrimination against individuals with physical or mental impairments. Conditions for young people in need of special education services and those needing mental health services were found to be especially poor; and

Whereas, In our state and across the United States, individuals with sarcoidosis and their family members are seeking treatment and support services to assist in controlling the effects of sarcoidosis. Our health care community can play a major part in combating this condition through increased efforts to diagnose the disease in its earliest possible stages. The public health community can also play a key role by promoting public awareness and supporting research for better treatment options and a cure; now, therefore, be it
