Rep. Robert Dean, from the 75th District, offered the following invocation:

“Our Father Who Art in Heaven, we are once again together here at the beginning of a new day. We are here to give You thanks for blessing us in days past and asking Your blessing in days to come. We ask that You were to look on us even now as we wait before Thee as Thy stewards to learn Thy will for us this day. Give us understanding minds that shall find opportunities for service, loving hearts that shall rejoice in being brothers and sisters to all who are in need, unselfish spirits shall find their deepest joy in sharing our blessings with others. Help us so to live this day at its close when we can come again to Thee and give an account of our stewardship of time, of talent and of possessions, that shall win from Thee those gracious words that were spoken long ago to the faithful steward: ‘Well done...enter thou into the joy of Thy Lord.’ Hear our prayer, we beseech Thee and send us O God Thine blessings as we go forth from this moment into this new day. We ask in Jesus name, Amen.”

Rep. Sheen, having reserved the right to explain his nay vote, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Again the Democratic Party subverts the legislative process by not even recognizing the Republicans to speak even though they can out vote us at any moment. They substitute bills and give us 5 minutes to read 31 pages of the bill and expect us to vote. The Democratic majority has made a mockery of this institution and the legislative process.”

Rep. Stahl, having reserved the right to explain his nay vote, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This is another disappointment with substitute legislation that was not previously put before a committee nor was there time to review before voting. This is nothing less than reckless and irresponsible abuse of the people’s authority entrusted to the legislature. This was the work of one man without review.”
