Rep. Kenneth Kurtz, from the 58th District, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Heavenly Father, as we assemble this day, we acknowledge our need of Your divine presence. Over the course of time You have shown Your pleasure with those who have sought Your guidance and Your direction. Most importantly for all who would seek You, they do find You.

Today may we be more than just mindful of You. May we seek You for the guidance and wisdom we need. May we realize and sense Your divine presence.

Help us O God to never forget that we are mortal and thank You, O God, are Holy and immortal. May we seek Your will above our will and give us the wisdom to know the difference.

Today I ask for Your mercy, grace and peace to be with our colleague, Representative Ben Glardon and his family as they mourn the loss of his mother.

As we remember and honor those who have given all in the service of our country, bless their memory and help us to continually dedicate ourselves to preserve our freedoms and God given liberties.

All of these request I humbly asked and in Jesus name I pray,
Amen.”

Rep. Hobbs moved that Reps. Kivela and Nathan be excused from today’s session.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. McBroom, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I am opposing this bill due to two main factors. One is that no sufficient explanation was give for why the Commission of Agriculture or the Director of Agriculture have not already placed the Autumn Olive on the invasive species list. While I have no problem with the legislature also applying its authority to do so, I believe our designation of this authority to the commission was done in good faith of their abilities and expertise. Therefore, at least obtaining an explanation from them was necessary to me to determine the reason why the legislature should act instead.

Also, the bill creates a new designation of a terrestrial invasive species. The department of agriculture did not, or could not, supply significant explanation as to the necessity of this new designation.

After the 2010-2012 significant abuses of the invasive species act and the transfer of the legislative intent from the commissions to the directors by the previous administration it is becoming more and more obvious that serious reform of the Act is urgently needed before new powers and new designations are made. This bill provides those new authorities with no reform and can not obtain my support at this point and should not have the support of this legislature at this point.

Thank you Madame speaker.”

Rep. Dianda, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I am opposed to this bill, due to the fact that the Commission of Agriculture or the Director of Agriculture have not placed the Autumn Olive on the invasive species list.”

Announcements by the Clerk

The Clerk received the following dissent on House Bill No. 4038, from Rep. Irwin:

I continue to object to the use of procedural tricks to subvert the Constitutional rights of citizens to know accurately the actions of the House of Representatives. Motions for immediate effect are routinely gavelled through without even a pretense of vote counting. This motion requires support from 2/3rds of the members and there is no genuine effort to ascertain the level of support for immediate effect. I object to this practice and I object to the erroneous assertions printed in the House Journal that suggest an authentic counting of votes occurred on the House floor.
