With the beginning of autumn comes a time of change. We pray that You will bless all of the hardworking families of our state with health, strength, and wisdom, so that they may face new challenges and opportunities with the comfort of Your strength.

Motions and Communications

Senators Hune, Jones, Warren, Emmons, Schuitmaker, Robertson, Johnson, Ananich and Marleau entered the Senate Chamber.

Senator Caswell asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Caswell's statement is as follows:

It is my privilege today to, unfortunately, send another staffer out of my office. Since I am leaving, they are finding jobs in other places. Today I want to announce to all of you Dave Marvin and what he has meant to me.

When I came to Lansing in 2003, Larry Julian mentioned this guy to me and told me he was a good staffer. He hasn't been a good staffer; he has been a great staffer. I think the issue in Lansing is we like to hear everybody tell us how wonderful we are. Dave would tell me the truth. He kept me out of a lot of trouble for the first few years here while I was learning the ropes.

Dave has been with me for my full 10 years in Lansing. I thought about the characteristics of this man and why he means so much to me. He is loyal without a fault. He has always defended me, quite frankly, when I didn't deserve it. He is truthful and willing to tell me, as I mentioned, when I am wrong and offer suggestions to go in different directions. With all the lobbyists and staff he has dealt with, he was always truthful, sometimes brutally truthful. Since I am from Hillsdale County, I appreciate brutal truth. He is honest—absolutely honest to the nth degree. He is humble. He didn't want me to say anything today. He has always wanted to be in the background. In Lansing, not too many people want to be in the background, while we all like to be out front.

This man is very caring about constituents. He has handled my constituents' services, which I think is the most important thing we do up here. I can tell you there is not a home that I go to in Hillsdale and Branch Counties where people haven't said, "You helped me with this, or you helped me with that," and it's due to this guy back here. There was one day I was ringing the bell for the Salvation Army in Hillsdale, and this young man stopped and asked me if I was Bruce Caswell. I said I was, and he told me that after what I did for him, he would vote for me no matter who ran against me. That is due to Dave.

A very hardworking man, Dave is repeatedly in the office until 9:00 p.m. He works weekends, and I can call him anytime. When I call him, it isn't just a matter of telling me what is going on; it is a matter of the next morning, the very first thing, that problem is solved. He is precise about details. Words have meaning in Lansing, as I have discovered. He is very careful to make sure that anything that comes out of our office is exactly correct.

He works extensively in his church. In fact, he started a Burmese church and a church from Nepal. He does whatever needs to be done. He fixes things at the church, he is a janitor, and, as I said, he is very humble. He is also a tremendous photographer. If you ever get on the website, google Dave Marvin and you will see some absolutely beautiful pictures. He has a very strong interest in lighthouses. Here in the state of Michigan, we have a lot of them. He and Val travel many times during the summer, when they have the time, and take pictures of lighthouses. His wife is very involved with the history of the state, as is Dave. He is very proud of Michigan and all that it represents.

Finally, I think the best thing that I can say about Dave is he has a servant's heart. He understands that he was put here to help others, and he has always done that. I am going to greatly miss this man. He is a real credit to the institution that we have here in Lansing.

Senator Hopgood moved that Senator Hunter be temporarily excused from today's session.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Meekhof moved that Senator Brandenburg be temporarily excused from today's session.

The motion prevailed.

Resolutions

Senator Meekhof moved that consideration of the following resolutions be postponed for today:

Senate Resolution No. 34

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 20

The motion prevailed.

Senators Brandenburg and Hunter entered the Senate Chamber.

Senator Hune offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 181.

A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to reauthorize federally-provided terrorism reinsurance for insurers.

Whereas, Insurance helps protect the United States economy from the risks inherent in economic growth and development, while also providing the resources necessary to rebuild physical and economic infrastructure. Insurance also offers indemnification for business disruption and provides coverage for medical and liability costs from injuries and loss of life in the event of catastrophic losses to persons or property; and

Whereas, The terrorist attack of September 11, 2001, produced insured losses larger than any natural or man-made event in history. Claims paid by insurers to their policyholders eventually totaled some $32.5 billion. The sheer enormity of the loss, combined with the possibility of future attacks, produced financial shockwaves in insurance markets, causing insurers and reinsurers to exclude coverage arising from acts of terrorism from virtually all commercial property and liability policies. The lack of terrorism risk insurance contributed to a paralysis in the economy, especially in construction, tourism, business travel, and real estate finance; and

Whereas, The United States Congress originally passed the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (TRIA) to provide terrorism reinsurance to insurers and reauthorized the program under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Extension Act of 2005 and the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2007 (TRIPRA). Under TRIPRA, the federal government provides such reinsurance after annual industrywide losses attributable to certified terrorism events exceed $100 million. Coverage under TRIPRA is provided to individual insurers after the insurer has incurred losses related to terrorism equal to 20 percent of the insurer's previous year earned premium for property-casualty lines; and

Whereas, Without question, TRIA and its successors are the principal reason for the continued stability in the terrorism insurance and reinsurance market to the benefit of our overall economy. The presence of a robust private/public partnership has provided stability and predictability and has allowed insurers to actively participate in the market in a meaningful way. Without a program such as TRIPRA, many of our citizens who want and need terrorism coverage to operate their businesses all across the nation would be either unable to get insurance or unable to afford the limited coverage that would be available. Without federally-provided reinsurance, property and casualty insurers would face less availability of terrorism reinsurance and would, therefore, be severely restricted in their ability to provide sufficient coverage for acts of terrorism to support our economy; and

Whereas, TRIPRA is set to expire in December 2014. The need for TRIPRA to stabilize markets continues as the threat from terrorist attacks in the United States remains both real and substantial and will remain as such for the foreseeable future; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we urge the Congress of the United States to reauthorize federally-provided terrorism reinsurance for insurers in order to maintain stability in the insurance and reinsurance markets, so that companies may continue to deliver substantive, direct benefits to businesses, workers, consumers, and the economy overall in the aftermath of a terrorist attack on the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Meekhof moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Senator Meekhof moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Insurance.

The motion prevailed.

Senators Booher, Green, Hansen, Kowall, Marleau, Meekhof, Pappageorge and Proos were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senator Richardville offered the following concurrent resolution:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24.

A concurrent resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for George C. Steeh, former member of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Whereas, The members of the Legislature were saddened to learn of the passing of the Honorable George C. Steeh, former State Senator, State Representative, and District Court Judge. He will be remembered for his long years of public service, dedication to his community, and unwavering respect and compassion for people and their problems; and

Whereas, Born and raised in Mt. Clemens, George Steeh graduated as president of his senior class at Mt. Clemens High School. A veteran of World War II, a graduate of the University of Michigan, a practicing attorney, an active community member, and a dedicated father, he experienced a lifetime of achievement in just his first 35 years. In 1954, he would begin a new chapter upon his election as state representative for his hometown; and

Whereas, For eight years, George Steeh honorably served the citizens of Mt. Clemens in the Michigan Legislature. Over the course of his legislative career, he was a member of numerous committees covering a wide range of issues, including business, conservation, health and welfare, highways, insurance, the judiciary, local government, and veterans affairs. In 1962, he chose to forego further legislative service and not run for re-election; and

Whereas, George Steeh moved on to a long and successful career as an attorney and public servant, serving as chairman of the Macomb County Democrats, president of the Macomb County Bar Association, member of the State Board of Tax Appeals, and eventually as judge of the 41-B District Court. During his career, he mentored numerous attorneys and worked to maintain an atmosphere of civility in the practice of law; and

Whereas, George Steeh's life was a tribute to family, friends, and community. His children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren can take immense pride in his achievements; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of George C. Steeh, a member of the House of Representatives from 1955 to 1956 and a member of the Senate from 1957 to 1962; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Steeh family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the concurrent resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Meekhof moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The concurrent resolution was adopted by a unanimous standing vote of the Senate.

Senator Meekhof moved that rule 3.204 be suspended to name the entire membership of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor as co-sponsors of the concurrent resolution.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of George C. Steeh, Sr., former District Court judge and former member of the Senate and House of Representatives.

Senator Bieda asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bieda's statement is as follows:

It is my honor today to have George Steeh III here, who is the former Senator's son. He is a federal district judge and is here today representing the family. He wanted to express his gratitude to the Senate for offering this resolution in honor of his father. I have known his father for a number of years, and I also know Judge Steeh. The very positive attributes of his public service are some things that he carries through in his public service as a judge.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senator Moolenaar asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Moolenaar's statement is as follows:

This legislation would modernize the regulation of continuing care retirement communities. The act has not been modified since the 1970s, and with the growing number of seniors in this state, it is time to ensure that we are providing appropriate protections for some of our most vulnerable citizens.

In addition to modernization, these changes will better reflect new and innovative models of care for Michigan's seniors. My desire is to continue to support consumer choice and protection while encouraging continued investments in these models of care.

This legislation adds clarity, transparency, and consumer protection to the act which governs care of our senior citizens. To that end, I ask for my colleagues' support of Senate Bill Nos. 886, 887, 888, and 889.

The following bill was read a third time:

Senate Bill No. 887, entitled

A bill to amend 1978 PA 368, entitled "Public health code," by amending sections 20106 and 20171 (MCL 333.20106 and 333.20171), section 20106 as amended by 2000 PA 253 and section 20171 as amended by 1990 PA 252.

The question being on the passage of the bill,

Protest

Senator Anderson, under his constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against the passage of Senate Bill No. 730 and moved that the statement he made during the discussion of the bill be printed as his reasons for voting “no.”

The motion prevailed.

Senator Anderson’s statement is as follows:

I would ask members to consider voting “no” on this bill because of the fact that it does very little to address safety issues for patrons in restaurants. The problem is, I think, that it creates a false sense of security and safety for patrons who may have extreme allergies. We know it is a problem, and we know it is an issue, but this bill does very little to address that.

If we are going to do something to give families and patrons a sense of real protection, then we need to address it in a meaningful way. This bill would not do that, and I will be voting “no.”
