Rev. Dr. John H. Pavelko, Pastor of Crossroads Presbyterian Church in Walled Lake, offered the following invocation:

“Holy and everlasting God, we come to You seeking Your divine grace and blessing.

We acknowledge that by Your sovereign hand nations rise and fall, so, we give thanks to You for the creation of our nation. We thank You for giving the founders wisdom in creating a model of democracy that has survived not only political discord and dissent but even civil war. We praise You for Your watchful care and the wonderful blessings we have enjoyed.

We come before and ask that You grant wisdom and understanding upon these our elected representatives as they perform their legislative duties. They have accepted the responsibility of passing laws that will govern this state, yet they are faced with many formidable challenges.

People are still struggling to recover from a time of economic turmoil. Families still have unpaid bills at the end of the month. Friends and neighbors are still looking for work and some are wondering if they will ever be employed again. Our soldiers still risk their lives on the battlefield. The lines at our local food bank are getting longer each month. Foreclosures and evictions are still too common.

Give them a spirit of mutual cooperation that dissolves petty politics and egotistical stubbornness.

Give them a spirit of compassion and understanding to approve laws that care for the disabled, the unemployed, and the poor.

Give them a spirit of wisdom to creatively address the social, environmental, and economic issues confronting our state in such a way that Your justice and righteousness is protected and preserved.

Give them a spirit of strength to resist the temptation of catering to the powerfully elite thereby neglecting the voice and needs of the majority.

May all that is done this day reflect Your Spirit of justice, mercy and grace. Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.
