Rep. Martin Howrylak, from the 41st District, offered the following invocation:

“Lord God, Open the hearts and minds of those who are present with us today in service to the people of Michigan. Bless us, Lord, and help us know right from wrong and good from bad. Help us to be inspired to do good for the people of Michigan, to dream that dream, to improve the lives of others. As we ask Your assistance today Lord for this legislature, may we reflect on the words from the Book of Revelation:

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, ‘Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them [as their God]. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, [for] the old order has passed away.

We ask this in the name of the Father, the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

Rep. Rutledge moved that Rep. Stallworth be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Rep. Faris offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 299.

A resolution to urge the Governor to take additional steps in response to the propane shortage affecting Michigan residents.

Whereas, A shortage of propane is causing hardship for many Michigan residents. In one of the coldest winters in recent times, many people who use propane as a heating fuel are shivering in their homes due to a shortage of propane. When propane supplies are available, the fuel’s current exorbitant price prevents households from fully filling their tanks. Nine percent of Michigan households use propane as the primary space heating fuel. Many of these households are in rural areas and consist of elderly persons. They are being pushed to their limits, faced with subzero temperatures amidst a severe propane shortage; and

Whereas, While some steps have been taken to alleviate the situation, more must be done to assist affected Michigan residents. The easing of motor carrier restrictions to facilitate propane transport to areas in need has helped the supply chain issues. However, actions are needed to help people struggling to cope with the propane shortage; and

Whereas, A comprehensive public information campaign informing Michigan residents about ways to conserve energy is needed. Conservation can stretch fuel supplies. Residents should be educated about turning down thermostats, wrapping hot water pipes, repairing weather stripping and caulking, taking showers instead of baths, and forgoing automatic dishwashers; and

Whereas, The cost to fill propane tanks can be reduced by suspending the collection of fuel taxes on propane for 90 days. Lifting the 15 cents per gallon Michigan propane tax would make a meaningful dent in the cost a struggling resident must pay to fill a 500 gallon tank; and

Whereas, Funds should be made immediately available to residents who have been affected by the propane shortage. The Michigan Energy Assistance Program can be used to distribute funds to those in need. In light of Michigan’s revenue surplus, dedicating $1 million to help struggling homeowners stay warm is a small price to pay; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Governor to take additional steps in response to the propane shortage affecting Michigan residents; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Office of the Michigan Governor.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

The Speaker laid before the House

House Resolution No. 288.

A resolution to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the addition of the words “under God” to the Pledge of Allegiance. (The resolution was introduced and postponed for the day on January 22, see House Journal No. 7, p. 45.)

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

—————
The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore O'Brien to the Chair.

Reports of Standing Committees

The Speaker laid before the House
House Concurrent Resolution No. 19.

A concurrent resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to repeal section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

(For text of resolution, see House Journal No. 106 of 2013, p. 2056.)

(The resolution was reported by the Committee on Financial Services on January 29.)

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

The question being on agreeing to the title of the bill,

Rep. Stamas moved to amend the title to read as follows:

A bill to amend 1949 PA 300, entitled "Michigan vehicle code," by amending section 625 (MCL 257.625), as amended by 2013 PA 23.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Howrylak, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

The question for society is 'What is the right punishment for the crime committed'. In my short time here in the Michigan House of Representatives, I have seen dozens of bills designed to increase penalties without any empirical evidence to support the duration of the sentence. The Michigan Legislature is not an expert in criminal justice policy and this state is in dire need of restoring a sentencing commission. Indeed, HB 5078 would establish such a multidisciplinary sentencing commission. Until the establishment of such a commission, it is bad policy for a governing body such as the Michigan House of Representatives to pass legislation modifying sentencing guidelines. We are acting without thorough analysis, deliberation and with an absence of empirical data. At this time, bills like HB 4567 are premature."

House Bill No. 4568, entitled

A bill to amend 1927 PA 175, entitled "The code of criminal procedure," by amending section 12f of chapter XVII (MCL 777.12f), as amended by 2003 PA 134.

Was read a third time and passed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor, by yeas and nays, as follows:
