

REVISED JUDICATURE ACT OF 1961 (EXCERPT)
Act 236 of 1961

600.8396 Municipal ordinance violations bureau.

Sec. 8396. A county, city, village, or township may by ordinance establish a municipal ordinance violations bureau to accept admissions of responsibility for municipal civil infractions and to collect and retain civil fines and costs pursuant to a schedule as prescribed by ordinance. The expense of operating a municipal ordinance violations bureau shall be borne by the county, city, village, or township, and the personnel of the bureau shall be county, city, village, or township employees.

History: Add. 1994, Act 12, Eff. May 1, 1994.