Resolutions

Senate Resolution No. 66

Senate Resolution No. 67

The resolution consent calendar was adopted.

Senator Schuitmaker offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 66.

A resolution to declare June 8, 2013, as Michigan Flower Planting Day.

Whereas, Agriculture is the second-largest industry in the state of Michigan, and floriculture is the fourth-largest commodity and the largest specialty crop; and

Whereas, Michigan is a national leader in the production of floriculture products, only behind California and Florida; and

Whereas, There are over 584 commercial growers in Michigan who distribute a wholesale value of over $376 million; and

Whereas, Michigan's floriculture industry employs over 9,000 workers; and

Whereas, Michigan's floriculture industry has continued to increase an annual farm-gate value of $397.4 million; and

Whereas, The floriculture industry in Michigan ranks No. 1 nationally in sales of impatiens, begonias, geraniums, petunias, marigolds, and Easter lilies and second nationally in sales of pansies, chrysanthemums, potted vegetable plants, potted hostas, and flowering bulbs; and

Whereas, The Michigan Floriculture Growers Council represents the collective business interests of the floriculture sector of Michigan's economy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That June 8, 2013, be declared Michigan Flower Planting Day. We recognize this date as a day when residents who have yet to beautify their yards and patios with flowers are encouraged to do so, not only improving the great appearance of our state and the quality of life for gardeners and their neighbors, but also supporting Michigan's vibrant floriculture industry; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan Floriculture Growers Council.

Senators Anderson, Booher, Brandenburg, Hopgood, Kowall, Marleau and Proos were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senator Kahn offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 67.

A resolution to express support for the state of Michigan officially recognizing September 19, 2013, as International Talk Like a Pirate Day.

Whereas, International Talk Like a Pirate Day (ITLPD) began humbly in 1995 between two pirate enthusiasts named John Baur and Mark Summers as a way to express their individual passion for nautical plundering. In 2002, the two friends contacted renowned comedian and author Dave Barry about their holiday creation. Immediately drawn to the idea, Barry used his popularity to promote ITLPD. With his backing, as well as through social media sites like Facebook (where ITLPD has over 76,000 likes), the holiday has grown into a globally-recognized celebration of pirate jargon; and

Whereas, As ITLPD has blossomed into a worldwide phenomenon, it is appropriate for the state of Michigan to formally acknowledge this holiday and grant it the recognition it truly deserves. As a Great Lakes state, one of Michigan's main duties must be promoting worthy maritime initiatives. ITLPD would give Michiganders who feel a strong connection to our Great Lakes an opportunity to properly celebrate beloved maritime activities, past and present; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we hereby express support for the state of Michigan officially recognizing September 19, 2013, as International Talk Like a Pirate Day; and be it further;

Resolved, That copies of this resolution will be transmitted to the Office of Michigan Attorney General, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

Senators Brandenburg, Hopgood and Marleau were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senator Meekhof moved that consideration of the following resolution be postponed for today:

Senate Resolution No. 34

The motion prevailed.

Senators Johnson, Warren, Whitmer, Smith, Anderson, Hopgood, Bieda and Ananich offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 64.

A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to support marriage equality and repeal the Defense of Marriage Act.

Whereas, The Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) forbids the federal government from recognizing same-sex marriages. The act specifically defines marriage as "a legal union between one man and one woman as husband and wife." All federal departments must adhere to this definition; and

Whereas, The Defense of Marriage Act is an unprecedented encroachment on state authority. Throughout our country's history, the right to marry has been an aspect of family and marital law within the control of the states. Twelve states and the District of Columbia have legalized same-sex marriages. In addition, some Native American tribes also permit or recognize such marriages. The deference traditionally accorded to state determinations of marital status should be reinstated and state laws respected, as required by the principles of federalism enshrined in the U.S. Constitution; and

Whereas, It is unfair and unconstitutional to deny certain married couples the rights, privileges, and benefits afforded other married couples. The Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution guarantees every American equal protection under the law. Yet the Defense of Marriage Act withholds more than 1,000 rights and protections from same-sex married couples, such as parenting rights, medical decision-making power, protections for binational couples, Social Security benefits, and tax exemptions upon the death of a spouse; and

Whereas, The majority of Americans favor the recognition of same-sex marriages. A recent Gallup poll indicated that 53 percent of Americans now support same-sex married couples having the same rights as other married couples. In Michigan, recent polling indicates that same-sex marriage is now supported by 57 percent of voters, cutting across party lines. Support nationally and in Michigan has doubled over a little more than a decade and is projected to grow even more; and

Whereas, The time has come to recognize marriage equality for all Americans. Married couples, whether of the same sex or opposite sex, share the same love and commitment to each other. They have the same needs for the legal rights and protections provided under federal law. In a country built on the pillars of liberty and justice for all, it is intolerable that our federal government continues to discriminate against one class of married couples; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we urge the Congress of the United States to support marriage equality and repeal the Defense of Marriage Act; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

Pursuant to rule 3.204, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Senators Schuitmaker, Proos, Nofs, Booher, Hansen and Robertson offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 65.

A resolution to commemorate June 2013 as the official start to the summer season in Michigan and reaffirm our commitment to the tourism industry in our state.

Whereas, The state of Michigan has long been a destination for tourists, whether it is to witness the majestic beauty of the Great Lakes or enjoy the comforts of our small towns, and summer in this state is surpassed by none; and

Whereas, Michigan is a place where unspoiled nature can be seen, honest-to-goodness character is revived, and where the entire family can spend time together; and

Whereas, The abundance of state parks and waterways offer visitors and residents alike endless opportunities to take in the sights. Whether it is biking, hiking, kayaking, canoeing, or fishing, the trails and waterways offer miles and miles of beautiful terrain and adventure; and

Whereas, Michigan's 3,200 miles of shoreline along the Great Lakes has sandy beaches that beckon all to take advantage of the glorious sights. The Sleeping Bear Dunes alone are considered one of the most beautiful places in America; and

Whereas, The vast woodlands of Michigan invite adventurers to embark on an exploration or a chance to sit peacefully in the serenity of nature and the state's pristine camping grounds. RV parks and resorts offer a place to stay and relax; and

Whereas, Michigan's family entertainment centers, fun parks, art fairs, festivals, and carnivals are unrivaled. The golf courses, restaurants, and hotels that the state offers are beyond comparison. The vineyards and farmers' markets excite the palate with fine wine and fresh vegetables and invite food connoisseurs and amateurs alike to sample all of Michigan's culinary delights; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we hereby commemorate the month of June 2013 as the official start to the summer season in Michigan and reaffirm our commitment to tourism in our state.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Meekhof moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Senator Meekhof moved that further consideration of the resolution be postponed for today.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Nofs offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 68.

A resolution of tribute offered to honor Orjiakor Isiogu upon the completion of his term on the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC).

Whereas, It is a privilege to extend this expression of our thanks and appreciation to Orjiakor Isiogu for his longstanding commitment to public service and the regulation of public utilities; and

Whereas, Commissioner Isiogu distinguished himself as a judicious leader serving as chairman of the MPSC from the date of his appointment in 2007 through October 2011; and

Whereas, Commissioner Isiogu is an internationally-recognized expert in telecommunications and public utility regulation; and

Whereas, He has represented our state as a member of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC), where he serves as chair of the Task Force on Federalism and Telecommunications, co-vice chair of the Committee on Telecommunications, as a member of the International Relations Committee, and served as a co-chair of the White House Smart Grid Working Group; and

Whereas, Prior to his appointment to the MPSC, Commissioner Isiogu served the citizens of Michigan for nearly two decades as an assistant attorney general and as director of the Telecommunications Division of the MPSC; and

Whereas, During his public service, he represented the state, its agencies, and consumer interests in state and federal proceedings involving public utilities. Mr. Isiogu also managed the administration of the Michigan Children's Protection Registry Act and the Uniform Video Services Local Franchise Act; and

Whereas, His commitment to serving others is evident through his leadership and voluntary service on numerous federal, state, and local initiatives; and

Whereas, Commissioner Isiogu's proactive vision, integrity, and intelligence have earned him recognition and our deepest appreciation; and

Whereas, We wish Commissioner Isiogu success and fulfillment in all future endeavors; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor Orjiakor Isiogu upon the completion of his term on the Michigan Public Service Commission; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Orjiakor Isiogu as a token of our esteem.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Meekhof moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Senator Meekhof moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

OPERATIONS AND SUPPORT ADMINISTRATION

Sec. 501. Sec. 502. (2) It is the intent of the legislature that the department maintain a number of field agents sufficient to meet supervision and workload standards.

Sec. 603. (1) All prisoners, probationers, and parolees involved with the electronic tether program shall reimburse the department for costs associated with their participation in the program. The department may require community service work reimbursement as a means of payment for those able-bodied individuals unable to pay for the costs of the equipment.

(2) Program participant contributions and local community tether program reimbursement for the electronic tether program appropriated in part 1 are related to program expenditures and may be used to offset expenditures for this purpose.

(3) Included in the appropriation in part 1 is adequate funding to implement the community tether program to be administered by the department. The community tether program is intended to provide sentencing judges and county sheriffs in coordination with local community corrections advisory boards access to the state's electronic tether program to reduce prison admissions and improve local jail utilization. (1) The department shall review and revise as necessary policy proposals that provide alternatives to prison for offenders being sentenced to prison as a result of technical probation violations and technical parole violations. To the extent the department has insufficient policies or resources to affect the continued increase in prison commitments among these offender populations, the department shall explore other policy options to allow for program alternatives, including department or OCC-funded programs, local level programs, and programs available through private agencies that may be used as prison alternatives for these offenders.

(2) To the extent policies or programs described in subsection (1) are used, developed, or contracted for, the department may request that funds appropriated in part 1 be transferred under section 393(2) of the management and budget act, 1984 PA 431, MCL 18.1393, for their operation.

(3) The department shall continue to utilize parole violator processing guidelines that require parole agents to utilize all available appropriate community-based, nonincarcerative postrelease sanctions and services when appropriate. The department shall periodically evaluate such guidelines for modification, in response to emerging information from the demonstration projects for substance abuse treatment provided under this article and applicable provisions of prior budget acts for the department.

(4) The department shall provide annual reports to the senate and house appropriations subcommittees on corrections, the legislative corrections ombudsman, the senate and house fiscal agencies, and the state budget director on the number of all parolees returned to prison and probationers sentenced to prison for either a technical violation or new sentence during the preceding calendar quarter. Sec. 615. After the parole board has reviewed the cases of all inmates sentenced to imprisonment for life with the possibility of parole who have good institutional records, the parole board shall calculate each inmate's parole guidelines score. The parole board shall provide the legislature with the specific reason or reasons why any individual inmate who scores "high probability of release" is not being paroled. The parole board shall submit a report containing a list of these reasons for each inmate to the house and senate appropriations subcommittees on corrections, the house and senate fiscal agencies, the legislative corrections ombudsman, and the state budget director by January 1.

Sec. 806. From the funds appropriated in part 1, the department shall require a hepatitis C antibody test and an HIV test for each prisoner prior to release to the community by parole or discharge on the maximum sentence. The requirement for a pre-release test does not apply if the prisoner has previously tested positive. The department shall require an HIV test and a hepatitis C risk factor screening for each prisoner at the health screening at admissions. If hepatitis C risk factors are identified, the department shall offer the prisoner a hepatitis C antibody test. An explanation of results of the tests shall be provided confidentially to the prisoner, and if appropriate based on the test results, the prisoner shall also be provided a recommendation to seek follow-up medical attention.

Sec. 807. The department shall ensure that all medications for a prisoner be transported with that prisoner when the prisoner is transferred from 1 correctional facility to another. Prisoners being released shall have access to at least a 30-day supply of medication and a prescription for refills to allow for continuity of care in the community.

Sec. 809. The department, in conjunction with efforts to implement prisoner re-entry, shall cooperate with the MDCH to share data and information as they relate to prisoners being released who are HIV positive or positive for the hepatitis C antibody. This calculation shall include all actual direct and indirect costs for the previous fiscal year, including, but not limited to, the value of services provided to the department by other state agencies and the allocation of statewide legacy costs. To calculate the per prisoner/per day costs, the department shall divide these direct and indirect costs by the average daily population for each custody level. For multilevel facilities, the indirect costs that cannot be accurately allocated to each custody level can be included in the calculation on a per-prisoner basis for each facility. A report summarizing these calculations and the direct and indirect costs included in them shall be submitted to the senate and house appropriations subcommittees on corrections, the legislative corrections ombudsman, the senate and house fiscal agencies, and the state budget director not later than December 15.

Nothing in this section should be deemed to make parole denial appealable in court.

(2) The department shall submit a quarterly report to the members of the senate and house appropriations subcommittees on corrections, the senate and house fiscal agencies, the state budget director, and the legislative corrections ombudsman detailing enrollment in sex offender programming, assaultive offender programming, violent offender programming, and thinking for change. A prisoner less than 18 years of age with serious mental illness, serious emotional disturbance, or a developmental disorder who is confined in administrative segregation under these specialized housing programs shall be evaluated by a medical professional at a frequency of not less than every 12 hours.

(c) Implement a specialized re-entry program that recognizes the needs of prisoners less than 18 years old for supervised re-entry.

Sec. 937. No state department or agency shall issue a request for proposal (RFP) for a contract in excess of $5,000,000.00, unless the department or agency has first considered issuing a request for information (RFI) or a request for qualification (RFQ) relative to that contract to better enable the department or agency to learn more about the market for the products or services that are the subject of the future RFP. The department or agency shall notify the department of technology, management, and budget of the evaluation process used to determine if an RFI or RFQ was not necessary prior to issuing the RFP.

(2) By January 1, the department shall release requests for information for competitive bids for the electronic monitoring center and for a secure detention facility that would house MDOC inmates serving terms of 2 years or less and provide job training and related programming.

(3) The department, working with the department of technology, management, and budget, shall issue a quarterly report detailing the current status of any requests for proposal or requests for information required under this section. If the status of any item listed in the report remains unchanged for more than 2 consecutive reporting periods, the report shall provide an explanation of the delay.

Sec. 940. (1) Any lease, rental, contract, or other legal agreement that includes a provision allowing a private person or entity to use state-owned facilities or other property to conduct a for-profit business enterprise shall require the lessee to pay fair market value for the use of the state-owned property.

The pilot program shall be funded from 15% of the current funds allocated to Michigan services industry for the manufacture of prison clothing. The nonprofit agency must have existing statewide capacity to serve paroled prisoners. The agency selected will provide semi-annual reports to the department, the senate and house appropriations subcommittees on corrections, and the senate and house fiscal agencies, detailing cost savings incurred and outcomes of parolee employment programs.

This network shall be a cable television network that presently reaches the majority of households in the United States. A bilingual channel affiliated with this network may also be added to department programming to assist the religious needs of Spanish-speaking inmates. The addition of these channels shall be of no additional cost to this state.

For an authority, school district, intermediate school district, public community college, or public university to qualify for grant funding under this section, the authority, school district, intermediate school district, public community college, or public university must combine operations with a city, village, township, or county. The department of treasury shall develop an application process and method of grant distribution.

In The Chair: President

Senator Meekhof moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
 The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Protests

Senators Anderson, Whitmer, Young, Hopgood, Smith, Johnson, Gregory, Bieda and Hood, under their constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against the adoption of the conference report for House Bill No. 4328.

Senators Anderson, Whitmer, Gregory, Bieda and Hood moved that the statements they made during the discussion of the conference report be printed as their reasons for voting “no.”

The motion prevailed.

Senator Anderson’s statement is as follows:

I rise to speak against the General Omnibus budget before us today. As I mentioned during the budget debate last year, during the Appropriations Committee this year, and during the debate a few weeks ago on the individual Senate budget bills, now rolled up into the omnibus bill that’s before us, the biggest flaw with this overall budget plan is that it’s predicated on continuing to raid the School Aid Fund. Regardless of your justifications, this budget year represents yet another year where the School Aid Fund has been plundered to pay for other budget priorities.

If we’re really being truly honest, by other budget priorities, I mean, step back and think a couple years back. This $1.8 billion corporate tax giveaway that rocked our state’s General Fund has left our schools and our families and our seniors still reeling. Every day, we hear of additional school districts that are on the edge or over the precipice. While the state budget may seem like it’s about numbers, it’s not just about numbers. It’s about real people; it’s about children; it’s about seniors; it’s about those who need help. Those are priorities that we have and we should all have; and what this budget says about the people of Michigan, what it says about the people in this room who support it. I don’t know about you, but continuing to divest in education and defund vital state services is not the statement I want to make about my values.

I will say that there was a small increase in most of the school districts, but it’s miniscule for many of those districts. Those districts are going to continue to struggle. But Republican legislators have had no problem appropriating rainy day fund money within this budget, and you could have done the same in the omnibus budget bill for education that we passed last week to fund our K-12 schools, our public community colleges, and universities equally. But instead, you continue to raid the School Aid Fund that our K-12 schools depend on and shifted that money elsewhere.

Now don't get me wrong, and I want everyone to know that I would concede there are some good things in this budget. It's not all bad. There are some positives that we can all support. In the Department of Natural Resources, your funding the Summer Youth Initiative and Belle Isle, those are good. In the Department of Community Health, funding GME or Graduate Medical Education and mental health for special populations is, of course, good also. In Judiciary, funding the expansion of drug, DWI, mental health and veterans' courts is a positive thing. These are good things, but unfortunately, they have been tucked into a bad budget.

The decision by the Republican majorities in the Legislature to combine all of these budgets into one bad, bloated, omnibus budget blocks out any good that it might do. As I have done previously, I will continue to oppose every budget that furthers this misguided strategy that there's not enough money to go around for education and continues to raid that fund. That includes this budget before us. I urge you all to do the same, in supporting my opposition of this budget, so that my message gets through to the people outside these walls, the people we were sent here to represent, and the people you are betraying with this budget.

Senator Whitmer's statement, in which Senators Young, Hopgood, Smith and Johnson concurred, is as follows:

I rise in opposition to this budget because at its best, it's incomplete, and at its worst, it's incompetent. Many of us here in this chamber right now attended the Mackinac Policy Conference last week, and I heard the same things that you heard about what we need to do to get our state back on track.

Governor Jeb Bush and Michelle Rhee told you that we need to support and embrace the Common Core, yet the Common Core is specifically banned in this bill. I know, I heard all the baloney about this being just a pause. It is banned in this bill. Business leaders told you to support a Medicaid expansion, yet there is no Medicaid expansion in this bill. Regional leaders told you to restore revenue sharing, yet that, too, is nowhere to be found in this bill.

The lack of what's necessary and what's right in this bill raises a very serious question: Who's running the show here? Is it the pro-business, pro-family Republicans you want us to believe you are, or the obstructionist tea partiers this budget shows you to be? You cannot continue to claim to be one while doing the other, and this bill makes it quite clear where your priorities lie. They aren't with the students who would benefit from a Common Core curriculum standard. They aren't with the countless families who would benefit from Medicaid expansion, nor are they with the business community that is urging for its passage. Most certainly, your priorities are not with our communities, our public safety officials, or our local schools that are desperate for a renewed investment.

I'm tired of hearing you applaud yourselves for meeting an arbitrary deadline with this budget when you ignore the serious problems that are contained within it. I am proud to vote "no" on this budget, and I encourage you to do the same.

Senator Gregory's statement is as follows:

I rise in opposition to the General Omnibus budget before us. As was said earlier, there are some good things in this budget. There are some parts that will help large portions of the residents of this state. However, there are many portions of this budget that could have been better, and things could have been done to make it a lot better; especially points during the debate on certain individual budget bills; especially the budgets that I was assigned to, but the majority of the sticking points are still unresolved.

Perhaps the most egregious oversight in this omnibus is the stubborn failure to expand Medicaid in Michigan in the Department of Community Health. By expanding Medicaid for state residents who are under 133 percent of the federal poverty level, we had the opportunity to offer health care coverage for more residents while securing federal funding to help pay for it. In total, 320,000 Michiganders would be covered in the first year of the expansion, and 470,000 would be covered by 2021. Michigan's uninsured population would drop by 46 percent. Failing to expand Medicaid means that hundreds of thousands of uninsured low-income Michigan residents will continue to go without health care coverage. It means that Michigan will lose out on $2 billion more in federal Medicaid funding here, and we will continue to spend more than $200 million annually on health care costs for those whom we failed to cover. The decision to move forward on this budget without expanding Medicaid hurts our state and our people. As a veteran, I am particularly disappointed that thousands of uninsured veterans and their families in Michigan will be missing out on access to health care due to the Legislature's failure to expand the state's Medicaid program.

But it's also going to hurt our businesses. States that do not expand Medicaid leave employers exposed to higher shared responsibility for the payments under the Affordable Care Act. The associated costs to employers could total $876 million to $1.3 billion each year in the 22 states that have opposed, are leaning against, or remain undecided about Medicaid. And after today, that includes us.

Finally, the majority of the people in Michigan support Medicaid expansion. A new poll says 60 percent of Michigan voters favor expanding Medicaid through the Affordable Care Act. A memorandum by the nonpartisan Senate Fiscal Agency concluded that the decision whether to expand Medicaid is not a fiscal one, as it is unlikely the expansion would lead to any costs for the state in the first few years. That is the most insulting and appalling part of this—that the decision is not policy or logic-based, but rather politically-driven.

Since this budget is not based on fiscally-sound reasoning and policy-based decisions, then you are not doing your jobs, and that is why I am opposing this budget.

Senator Bieda's statement is as follows:

Mr. President, I rise today to state my objection to this omnibus budget bill. This budget represents a sad indictment of where our state stands, and it neglects to meet the needs of Michigan's citizens, particularly those with the greatest need. I think the most glaring omission is the failure to expand Medicaid to nearly half a million low-income Michigan citizens who don't have health care. That leaves our citizens out in the cold because of our failure to act. Thousands of those citizens, as my good colleague has mentioned, are veterans.

This budget also includes a full-time employee to help expand charter schools and nearly $400,000 for a pork project in Holland, while laying off 80 child welfare workers. This budget also fails to expand Healthy Kids dental to our state's most populous counties, such as Macomb County, and clearly leaves those with the greatest need out in the cold.

I ask that you vote "no" on this omnibus bill.

Senator Hood's statement is as follows:

I rise today also in opposition to House Bill No. 4328. We heard a lot of reasons why we should not vote for this legislation. I will take it a piece further. Simply, when we look at who we represent—the people—and putting all these budgets into one budget, what it does is it rolls up the legislation. It does not roll out the legislation so that the general public can understand and see what this budget actually does. It makes it more difficult for that. That's why over the years, we have done budgets separately, and that goes a long way back, for years and years, until somebody came up with this grand idea so that they can hide different things in there so that the public cannot see. So if we talk about transparency, this does not do anything for transparency for the citizens of the state of Michigan to understand what is in the budget bill.

So that's what it does, and that's what it doesn't do—make it invisible to the citizens of the state of Michigan; what is actually in this. It makes it more difficult for them to see this, and I oppose this legislation not only for the reasons that have been said by my colleagues to vote "no," but also for the reason that it does not show the public. It is not transparent. With those words, Mr. President, I ask for a "no" vote from all of my colleagues on this House Bill No. 4328.

Senators Kahn, Pappageorge and Richardville asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Kahn's statement is as follows:

Mr. President, and through you to our colleagues and visitors, House Bill No. 4328 is a General Omnibus budget bill. It contains within it the funding for seventeen departments, the executive office, judiciary, and legislative branches. It is $33.6 billion in total, $7.9 billion in General Fund. It also contains within it our hopes for an accountable, responsible state government. It contains within it our hopes to teach our people to fish, as well as give them fish. It, in conjunction with the Education Omnibus, for example, looks to help 4-year-olds, children who are preschool, children just born. It also prepares us for a future for our children and for our people.

For example, it puts $75 million in the budget stabilization fund that we can draw on in the future, should there be an emergency. By the way, putting that money within the budget stabilization fund improves the credit worthiness of the state of Michigan. It makes the interest rates that we have to pay on borrowed dollars lower, less, and stretches those dollars further and allows for us to do more for the people of Michigan. It contains $121 million for our federal road match, and that is a 4:1 match. So it's over $500 million for roads. In addition to that, we have two other road funding components—$150 million to go to the roads of risk fund, directly to roads, and another $115 million to identify risks. If not needed for those risks, it will also go to roads.

Risks? Yes, the state of Michigan has litigation that may require us to use that money. We may have disallowances, and prudence dictates that you prepare for risks and prepare a way to address them, and this budget does that. For other levels of government, there's a 2.9 percent increase in constitutional revenue sharing to our cities, villages, and townships, and even more—4.8 percent increase in county revenue sharing and economic vitality incentives. That is astounding that we are able to do that.

There's a new trooper school, 107 new state troopers, contained within this budget. There's disaster and emergency contingency fund money—$2 million. The Veterans Affairs Agency is enhanced—$4 million. Drug treatment, creation of veterans' treatment courts—$3 million. And it goes on, department after department. Primary care providers will receive another $103 million this and next year, and in so doing, it will improve access to care for the people of Michigan. Healthy Kids dental will be expanded through the administration's dedication to spreading that program across the entire state by the addition of three more counties this year. There's new and expanded health and wellness and infant mortality, mental health, jail diversion, and abatement programs in the Department of Community Health. All these help our littlest citizens—our future leaders. The food and agriculture industry growth grant program has $1 million. Agriculture product assurance and export assistance, another $1 million. There's $6 million in savings in the Department of Corrections, and our Corrections Subcommittee chairman worked very hard in creating a template that would allow us to have a methodology for competitive bidding across the state.

I ask our people, I ask our Senators to support this budget. It is certainly worthy of support.

Senator Pappageorge's statement is as follows:

With regard to hiding things in this budget, let's understand the process. Each individual budget—transportation, health, you name it—was handled individually. It went through the process that wound up in conference committee reports. All we have in front of us now is all of those individual budgets—discussed and voted on individually—have been stapled together in one document. That's all that's happened here. So the idea that something is hidden, you could argue that it's now convenient to get them all in one package.

Secondly, there was a comment about revenue sharing being down. I forgot which member on the other side made that point. I would like to meet with them later. The fact is that constitutional revenue sharing went up $20.6 million, and statutory revenue sharing went up 4.8 percent. So I'm not sure where the notion came from that we have cut revenue sharing, unless you go all the way back to ARRA money, which was one-time money, and I don't expect to match that any time soon.

Senator Richardville's statement is as follows:

Mr. President, I'm going to make a couple comments about the budget that is before us. First of all, I want to say that Michigan's budget is balanced and completed four months before the next fiscal year. This is the third year in a row that that's occurred. This budget invests $350 million in new transportation dollars to fix Michigan's crumbling roads and bridges. It reserves an additional $75 million to the rainy day fund, kind of a Michigan savings account, which brings that balance up to nearly $600 million. Three years ago, it was around $10 million. Stabilization, our financial position, and our debt costs have all improved during the last three years.

This budget supports local police and fire services with $46 million more in revenue sharing to local governments. This budget builds upon past reforms so that graduating high school students and also college students will not be forced to leave Michigan to find work, as it has in the past. In addition to this, the budget completed last week gives more money to every public-education student in Michigan and emphasizes our commitment to a lifelong learning model—from pre-kindergarten all the way to the workforce.

In regards to a couple of the programs from the federal government, the Michigan Senate has never been here to rubber-stamp those programs. Most of us in this chamber can agree that the federal government has not been getting it right. Our job is to serve our constituents and to make sure things like Medicaid and Common Core are in the best interests of Michigan citizens and not run them through a budget. It's my belief that the people of Michigan will benefit from this budget, and I would ask for the support of this chamber.

Statements

Senators Kahn, Young and Colbeck asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Kahn's statement is as follows:

Today, we have passed Talk Like a Pirate Day in our consent resolutions. I'd like to make note that this is an international holiday, and it's grown locally since 2002. It's time we now recognize that the state of Michigan acknowledges this holiday and grants it the recognition it truly deserves.

As a Great Lakes state, one of Michigan's main duties should be promoting worthy maritime initiatives and this, of course, is one. ITLPD, abbreviation for International Talk Like a Pirate Day, gives Michiganders who feel a strong connection to our Great Lakes an opportunity to properly celebrate beloved maritime activities, past and present.

Senator Young's statement is as follows:

Mr. President, I would like to start with a quote: "Democracy is not so much a form of government as a set of principles." Mr. President, at the height, at the apex, at the core, the cornerstone of our principles as a state and as a nation, you have liberty; you have freedom; you have opportunity; you have prosperity. But the fundamental building block, the pillars on which all those core values and virtues stand is democracy. As we see, Mr. President, in the city of Detroit and other cities around the state with an EM, that building block, that value, that virtue, that principle is being taken away, is being usurped; it's being diluted.

As we're seeing with what's going on with the DIA debacle, we need to have leadership that's in tune with the spirit and the desires and the values and principles of its people. Otherwise, the culture, otherwise, the community is at risk. When the Romans talked about cities, they said that to them the definition of a city is a community. We are tearing away the fabric of that community. We are pulling away the principles. We are destroying the structure on which these communities are built and held together. The glue of that is democracy.

So, Mr. President, I ask you, I implore you, I am telling you, we must repeal this unconstitutional and illegal EM law. It is a clear and direct violation of the virtue, of the principle that is America. What has kept this country being that shining city on a hill, what has made this country emerge from just an experiment to exceptionalism and prominence is the fact that the people have the right to exercise their franchise; that the people are in charge. That is what democracy means; not the corporate fat cats, not the special interest people.

When you have these emergency managers, whether they are good-intended or not, you can have the argument, there are some arguments, about whether or not they are successful or whether or not they're successful in practice. Bottom line is, what you can't have an argument about, is the fact that this is a constitutional crisis that we have been put under because this EM and the EMs being appointed are illegally put there. They have no right or no authority to operate under the laws that have been given.

As a great person said, "If the government becomes the lawbreaker, it breeds contempt for the law." Mr. President, I'm going to say this boldly: I don't think we need any more contempt from our constituents in Lansing. For the sake of democracy; for the sake of the American principles of truth, justice, and the American way; for the sake of making sure that we actually have a civil society, let us dethrone royalty; let us destroy tyranny; and let us uphold democracy by repealing this unconstitutional and illegal EM law. It's wrong, it's unconstitutional, and it's a violation of our principles in this state. We will never be that shining city on the hill unless we adhere to the Constitution and the will of the people.

Senator Colbeck's statement is as follows:

First of all, a quick reminder for my colleagues: Article IV, Section 4 of the United States Constitution defines that we guarantee a republican form of government, not a democracy; that is the form of our system of government. But I would like to take a related subject here, which is education, and take a closer look at Common Core education. Michigan has received a lot its federal attention lately, including a visit by Secretary of Education Arne Duncan and former Governor Jeb Bush, regarding the Legislature's attempt to take a more introspective look at what is known as the Common Core Standards initiative.

The Common Core Standards initiative is attempting to establish a common set of education standards for all states. The Michigan State Board of Education adopted the Common Core Standards on June 15, 2010. At the present time, only the English and math standards have been released; however, there are plans to release science, social studies, world language, and arts standards in the future.

In all candor, my initial reaction to Common Core Standards was favorable. I like the idea of establishing a common standard by which Michigan can measure its education prowess over that of other states. It fosters competition and competition breeds excellence.

Upon further review, however, it is evident that the Common Core Standards initiative goes well beyond establishing a common education benchmark for all states. One of the most concerning features of the Common Core Standards is the increase and emphasis on methods at the expense of results. The following is an example of the math standards for first-graders. This is taken directly out of the Common Core Standards and it says, "The standard is that the student should demonstrate that they can add and subtract within twenty. Demonstrate fluency for addition and subtraction within ten. Use strategies, such as counting on making ten." Example:  $8 + 6 = 8 + 2 + 4 = 10 + 4 = 14$ , decomposing a number leading to a ten. Example:  $13 - 4 = 13 - 3 - 1 = 10 - 1 = 9$ , using the relationship between addition and subtraction knowing that  $8 + 4 = 12$ . All these different methods demonstrate a go around that the basic idea of adding  $4 + 4 = 8$ .

At the University of Michigan, I was trained as an aerospace engineer. It might just be me, but I would like to think that most people who fly on an airplane would like to know that I correctly calculated the required airframe strength and would take less solace in knowing that I knew several methods to get to the right answer.

Teachers and students have a finite amount of time for instruction. We need to focus on the end objection, not a series of means-to-an-end objective. We don't need to have standards that tell teachers how to teach. Teachers go to universities to learn how to teach. Standards should focus on what to teach. When one micromanages the methods of teaching, one is saying, in effect, that a teacher does not know how to teach. Now every student learns differently. We should give teachers the flexibility to teach students in the method best suited to the needs of each student.

Additional concerns with Common Core include the increasing role of the federal government in state education; the increasing role of international bodies in the American education system; after all, international benchmarking is at the heart of each Common Core Standard. That might be fine and dandy for math, but what about social studies? The cost of implementation, the ability of the state's influence and governance of the standards, the manipulation of assessments, the influence of college acceptance criteria, the acceptance of standards before they have been written in the case of social studies and science, and the collection of data on parents, as well as students?

Modifying education standards is not simply a flip of the switch. A change in the education standards requires a change in assessments. A change in assessments leads to a change in curriculum. A change in curriculum requires a change in education materials. A change in education materials leads to changes in lesson plans. As a former school board member and a current member of the Senate education policy committee, I appreciate that my colleagues in the Legislature have voted to take a more sanative evaluation of Common Core before it leads us on a path that may adversely impact future generations.
