The House was called to order by the Speaker Pro Tempore.

The roll was called by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, who announced that a quorum was present.
Pastor Andrew Kim, Teaching Pastor of Kensington Church in Troy, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father,
We thank You for a new day. We thank You that every day, with all of its joys and challenges, is a gift from You.
I thank You for each of the state representatives here, whom You have appointed to their specific offices. Thank You for their passion to serve their people and the vision You have given each of them to create a more beautiful future for their communities.
I pray You would give them a humility and a strength, that is not simply ordinary, but truly extraordinary because it flows from You. I pray that each of these leaders would be like King David, the second king of Israel, they would be men and women after Your own heart. As their positions are complex and difficult, that You would also give them a wisdom similar to that of David’s son, King Solomon, who was one of the wisest human beings in human history.
I pray Your protection over them as well as their families. Protection over marriages, over children, that their times with their families would be sweet and life-giving.
When they travel, that You would give them safety and mercy.
God, I pray that You would give them everything they need to lead and to love Your people well. You would use each of them to create the future You desire. A future that is filled with hope, joy, peace and love.
As they move through their day, I pray they would know they are more loved and cherished than they could ever understand or imagine by the God Who created them.
Thank You for these representatives and all gathered here in this chamber. I pray Your blessing upon them today.
We pray these things in Jesus name, Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Barrett, Brinks, Cochran, Crawford, Faris, Greig, Howrylak, Phelps and Sneller offered the following resolution: House Resolution No. 352.

A resolution to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Army Warrant Officer Corps.

Whereas, An Army warrant officer is an adaptive technical expert, combat leader, trainer, and advisor. Warrant officers are highly skilled, single-track specialty officers who make up the technical foundation of the U.S. Army. Through progressive levels of expertise in assignments, training, and education, Army warrant officers administer, manage, maintain, operate, and integrate Army systems and equipment across the full spectrum of Army operations; and

Whereas, Army warrant officers are commissioned by the President of the United States and take the same oath as regular commissioned officers. Although they make up less than 3% of total Army strength, warrant officers shoulder great responsibilities including training soldiers and organizing and advising on missions; and

Whereas, Throughout their careers, Army warrant officers specialize in a technical area like intelligence, aviation, or military police. Army warrant officers are innovative integrators of emerging technologies, dynamic teachers, confident warfighters, and developers of specialized teams of soldiers. Army warrant officers can and do command attachments, units, activities, vessels, aircraft, and armored vehicles, as well as lead, coach, train, and counsel subordinates; and

Whereas, An Army warrant officer’s primary task as a leader is to serve as a technical expert to provide valuable skills, guidance, and expertise in his or her field to commanders and organizations. For example, due to demand for helicopter pilots in Vietnam, the number of Army warrant officer pilots grew from about 2,960 in 1966 to more than 12,000 by 1970; and

Whereas, Army warrant officers serve not only in the military but serve important roles throughout the community; and

Whereas, Army warrant officers have sacrificed for the cause of freedom, including some who have paid the ultimate sacrifice for those freedoms; and

Whereas, The Army Warrant Officer Corps celebrates its 100th Anniversary on July 9, 2018; now, therefore, be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Army Warrant Officer Corps. We recognize the men and women of the Army Warrant Officer Corps who have served this nation, this state, and its communities so honorably and admirably over the past 100 years; and be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the United States Secretary of the Army, the Michigan Department of Veterans and Military Affairs, and the Army Warrant Officer Corps.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs.

Reps. Barrett, Brinks, Cochran, Crawford, Faris, Greig, Howrylak, Phelps and Sneller offered the following resolution: House Resolution No. 353.

A resolution to declare June 27, 2018, as Post Traumatic Stress Injury Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The brave men and women of the United States Armed Forces, who proudly serve the United States, risk their lives to protect the freedom of the United States and deserve the investment of every possible resource to ensure their lasting physical, mental, and emotional well-being; and
Whereas, More than 2,000,000 United States service members have deployed as part of overseas contingency operations since the events of September 11, 2001; and
Whereas, The military has sustained an operational tempo for a period of time unprecedented in the history of the United States, with many service members deploying multiple times to combat zones, placing them at high risk of post-traumatic stress injury (PTSI); and
Whereas, It is expected that ten thousand veterans will return to the state of Michigan every year for the next three to five years after spending a significant amount of time in combat environments, exposing thousands of soldiers to traumatic life threatening events; and
Whereas, The Department of Veterans Affairs reports that in fiscal year 2012, more than 500,000 veterans from all wars who sought care at a Department of Veterans Affairs medical center received treatment for PTSI; and
Whereas, PTSI significantly increases the risk of depression, suicide, and drug and alcohol related disorders and deaths; and
Whereas, Thousands of Michigan corrections professionals who perform a critical and dangerous job protecting the public suffer health detriments due to high stress and potentially traumatic occupational experiences. Recent studies have shown nearly 33.7% of surveyed corrections officers are estimated to be PTSI positive in this state; and
Whereas, The Department of Defense and the United States Department of Veterans Affairs have made significant advances in the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of PTSI and the symptoms of PTSI. However, many challenges remain; and
Whereas, The establishment of a Post Traumatic Stress Injury Awareness Day in Michigan will raise public awareness about issues related to PTSI; now, therefore, be it
Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 27, 2018, as Post Traumatic Stress Injury Awareness Day in the state of Michigan. We urge the Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency and the Adjutant General to continue working to educate service members, veterans, the families of service members and veterans, and the public about the causes, symptoms, and treatment of post-traumatic stress injury; and be it further
Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor of the state of Michigan.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs.

Reps. Greig, Geiss, Pagan, Hoadley, Garrett, Chang, Wittenberg, Brinks, Clemente, Cochran, Elder, Faris, Phelps, Sneller and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 354.
A resolution to declare May 28, 2018, as Menstrual Hygiene Day in the state of Michigan.
Whereas, Menstrual Hygiene Day serves to increase public awareness of the need to ensure women and girls are able to maintain healthy menstruation practices; and
Whereas, Menstrual Hygiene Day is also a new effort to destigmatize women’s menstrual cycles, and advocate for better access to feminine hygiene products for females who may otherwise be forced to resort to less sanitary options; and
Whereas, Menstrual hygiene is a worldwide issue; women and girls around the world face different challenges in managing their menstruation depending on social norms, customs, geography, and education; and
Whereas, Taboos and negative social norms surrounding menstruation are perpetuated by society as a whole. Therefore, creating an inclusive conversation with women and girls, as well as boys and men, is critical to create understanding and foster a supportive and healthy environment in menstrual health; and
Whereas, Toxic Shock Syndrome is a rare but serious clinical syndrome typically caused by bacterial infection due to Staphylococcus aureus or Streptococcus pyogenes that progresses quickly. The case fatality rate is reported as four percent nationally. It is important to raise awareness of the risks of improper menstrual hygiene so that these types of cases can be prevented; now, therefore, be it
Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 28, 2018, as Menstrual Hygiene Day in the state of Michigan; and be it further
Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor of the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Sowerby, Geiss, Pagan, Hoadley, Garrett, Chang, Wittenberg, Brinks, Clemente, Cochran, Elder, Faris, Greig, Phelps and Sabo offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 355.
A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to amend the Internal Revenue Code to allow feminine hygiene products to be an eligible purchase under health savings accounts.
Whereas, Health savings accounts (HSA) are an effective tool for people to set aside pre-tax dollars for medical expenses. Allowable health care expenses under these plans range from copays and deductibles to prescription drugs and a variety of medical supplies; and

Whereas, Feminine hygiene products are not an eligible expense under the HSA. Women spend thousands of dollars annually on feminine hygiene products. These products are integral to the overall health of women; and

Whereas, Feminine hygiene products are an essential health expense. Including feminine hygiene products under this existing mechanism would enable women to maximize savings on these necessary and recurring expense; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize Congress to amend the Internal Revenue Code to allow feminine hygiene products to be an eligible purchase under the health savings accounts; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to revise and consolidate the statutes relating to the organization and jurisdiction of the courts of this state; the powers and duties of the courts, and of the judges and other officers of the courts; the forms and attributes of civil claims and actions; the time within which civil actions and proceedings may be brought in the courts; pleading, evidence, practice, and procedure in civil and criminal actions and proceedings in the courts; to provide for the powers and duties of certain state governmental officers and entities; to provide remedies and penalties for the violation of certain provisions of this act; to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with or contravening any of the provisions of this act; and to repeal acts and parts of acts;”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Lauwers moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Miller, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:
I would like to notify the clerk for the purpose of logging in the journal my reason for voting against SB 872. I believe there are great dangers in advancing retroactivity standards in our law such as these. As such, I cannot register an affirmative vote on SB 872 as I believe it is the wrong thing to do.”

Rep. Robinson, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:
assess to justice is limited to a select group, This is fundamentally unfair, possibly, constitutionally infirm.”

Rep. Chirkun, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:
It is a sad day in the legislature when they don’t treat all people the same way in the state of Michigan, I could not vote in favor of this bill because we are not treating all the residents of Michigan (Juvenile ,and Adults) that have been sexually assaulted IE:( By priests coaches ,teachers, social workers etc.) ,equally as the same rights as the ones involved in the MSU Dr. Nassar scandal.”

Rep. Lauwers moved that House Bill No. 5793 be placed on its immediate passage.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Howrylak, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:
The sentencing guidelines in this bill should have been reviewed by the Michigan Criminal Justice Policy Commission. It is critical, for the administration of justice in this state, that criminal penalties be based on measurable and verified data, with input from individuals directly involved with criminal justice issues. Such a body is already in existence with the Criminal Justice Policy Commission. It is a shame that this body’s knowledge and expertise is not used to the full extent of its abilities in this regards. The advice of that body, when it comes to sentencing guidelines, would be extremely helpful and very beneficial to the people of our state.
Furthermore, when it comes to mandatory minimum sentences, the need for such analysis is critically more important. In general, though, it is best to allow the courts to determine the ultimate sentence, within the guidelines of statute, based on the facts of the case determined at trial.”

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:
“An act to require the reporting of child abuse and neglect by certain persons; to permit the reporting of child abuse and neglect by all persons; to provide for the protection of children who are abused or neglected; to authorize limited detention in protective custody; to authorize medical examinations; to prescribe the powers and duties of the state department of social services to prevent child abuse and neglect; to prescribe certain powers and duties of local law enforcement agencies; to safeguard and enhance the welfare of children and preserve family life; to provide for the appointment of legal counsel; to provide for the abrogation of privileged communications; to provide civil and criminal immunity for certain persons; to provide rules of evidence in certain cases; to provide for confidentiality of records; to provide for the expungement of certain records; to prescribe penalties; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts,”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Lauwers moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Howrylak, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

The sentencing guidelines in this bill should have been reviewed by the Michigan Criminal Justice Policy Commission. It is critical, for the administration of justice in this state, that criminal penalties be based on measurable and verified data, with input from individuals directly involved with criminal justice issues. Such a body is already in existence with the Criminal Justice Policy Commission. It is a shame that this body’s knowledge and expertise is not used to the full extent of its abilities in this regards. The advice of that body, when it comes to sentencing guidelines, would be extremely helpful and very beneficial to the people of our state.”
