Senate Resolution No. 119.

A resolution to declare February 20, 2014, as Conductive Education Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Conductive education (CE) was developed over sixty years ago in Hungary by Dr. András Petö; and

Whereas, CE is a unique teaching system that maximizes the independence and mobility of children and adults with neuromotor disabilities, such as stroke survivors and those with cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, acquired brain injuries, Parkinson’s disease, and spina bifida; and

Whereas, CE operates from a core belief in neuroplasticity, the lifelong ability of the brain to reorganize neural pathways based on new experiences, and on the premise that no matter how severe the disability, people can learn and improve when they are motivated; and

Whereas, CE has the potential to make a significant, life-changing impact on the mobility and independence of close to 9 million people in the United States and Canada; and

Whereas, CE helps individuals learn their way to independence; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body recognize February 20, 2014, as Conductive Education Day in the state of Michigan. We encourage support for this important program that increases the independence of people with disabilities in our community; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Association for Conductive Education in North America with our highest esteem.

Senator Hildenbrand's statement is as follows:

I rise today to speak about Senate Resolution No. 119. This resolution declares today, February 20, as Conductive Education Day in the state of Michigan. Many of you may recall that I bring this resolution before the Senate each year.

Conductive Education was developed over 60 years ago and is a unique intense training and teaching model that brings independence and mobility to children and adults with neuromotor disabilities like stroke survivors, those with cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, brain injury, Parkinson's, and spinal bifida.

We are fortunate to have one of the leading conductive education centers in the nation located right in Grand Rapids. The work done at this facility is truly amazing. I have had the chance to visit and see firsthand the groundbreaking work being done there. This center is yet another example of the high caliber of specialized services offered throughout our state.

I would like to recognize three individuals who are visiting today and are in the east Gallery who are critical to the success of the conductive education center in Grand Rapids. Teri Stelter, Chuck Saur, and Erin Quackenbush all worked with me, and Chuck is on the board.

The resolution is just a small token of gratitude and recognition for the outstanding achievements and life-changing skills that conductive education provides to each and every individual it serves. I ask my colleagues to support the resolution.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of

Motions and Communications

Senator Richardville asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Richardville's statement is as follows:

It is a bittersweet morning. Nancy Gehle has served the Senate Majority Policy Office for more than 20 years. She will be retiring next week on Thursday, and she definitely will be missed.

She began in the Senate in 1993. She is here today with her husband of 46 years, David, as well as her two sons, Sean and Jared, and her daughter-in-law Dawn. Sean, as most of you know, is with the lobbying community, and he is in the east Gallery.

There is a saying that mothers are the glue that keeps the family together. No one has exemplified this more than Nancy. She has also been the glue that has kept the Majority Policy Office together. She is the smiling face in the morning and the kind word of encouragement throughout the day.

It's my understanding that she has also been a bit of a scourge for those unfortunate policy advisors who happened to be late getting their reports in—maybe more of a velvet hammer, I am told. Without a doubt, the Senate is a better place for having Nancy here.

It is with great pleasure that I present her this Special Tribute and wish her the best as she and Dave begin the next phase of their lives in retirement.

Senator Young entered the Senate Chamber.

Recess

Senator Meekhof moved that the Senate recess subject to the call of the Chair. The motion prevailed, the time being 10:16 a.m.

General Orders

After some time spent therein, the Committee arose; and the President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, having resumed the Chair, the Committee reported back to the Senate, favorably and with a substitute therefor, the following bill:

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Gregory and Hood asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Gregory’s statement is as follows:

I rise to offer an amendment to provide $2 million in funds to expand veterans services. Governor Snyder is seeking additional funds to expand these services this year. I agree that these funds should be allocated today; however, that is not reflected in the bill in front of you. My amendment would correct that. We should take this opportunity now to expand these services and avoid any further delay.

The men and women who serve this country should have access to the highest level of services possible the day they return home. I appreciate the show of support from my colleagues for our veterans to provide them with better services. I would also appreciate your “yes” vote.

Senator Hood’s statement is as follows:

A couple of comments very quickly. One point that was made, yes, transportation is very important, and yes, I do think that we should be throwing the kitchen sink at K-12, higher education, and education as a whole. If we want to make the best investment we can make, in my eyes, it is investing in education. This will take care of a lot of issues that we have.

Another point I would make is that I appreciate the Senator from the 37th District and his testimony. The words he has just given us indicates those boats are publicly-owned boats, and this money will be used to repair that. With these things being said, I would respectfully withdraw this amendment.
