1887 Ransom E. Olds’ first auto steamer appears. Iron ore shipments from the Menominee Range begin; at the end of the year, total shipments amount to 6,000,000 tons. The Grand Hotel is completed on Mackinac Island.

1888 Michigan’s lumber boom peaks with the production of 4,292,000,000 board feet. Shipments of iron ore from Escanaba alone reach 1,107,129 tons.

1890 Michigan’s population is 2,093,889.

1891 Port Huron, Michigan, and Sarnia, Ontario, are joined by the Grand Trunk R.R. tunnel under the St. Clair River; first subaqueous railroad tunnel linking foreign countries.

1892 First railroad car ferry begins operating on the Great Lakes between Frankfort, Michigan, and Kewaunee, Wisconsin. William W. Ferguson becomes first African-American elected to the Legislature (House).

1893 Michigan Home for the Feeble Minded and Epileptic established at Lapeer. Michigan Naval Militia is first organized.

1894 Hazen S. Pingree, mayor of Detroit, attracts national attention with his city-lot potato patches for feeding 1893 depression sufferers. Fort on Mackinac Island is given to the state for a public park.

1895 Central Michigan University, founded as a private school, becomes a state normal school. Mackinac Island becomes the first state park in Michigan.

1896 Ransom E. Olds brings out a practical four-wheeled, gasoline-powered auto in Lansing. Henry Ford’s “quadricycle” is tested in Detroit. Rural Free Delivery mail service begins in Michigan at the town of Climax. Suomi College opens in Hancock to serve the Finnish Community.

1897 Michigan adopts the apple blossom as the official state flower. Olds Motor Vehicle Company is organized by Ransom E. Olds in Lansing.

1898 Michigan activates 5 regiments plus its naval reserves for the Spanish-American War.

1899 Olds Motor Works in Detroit erects the first factory built in America for the manufacture of automobiles. Northern Michigan University is founded.

1900 Michigan’s population is 2,420,982.

1901 Detroit celebrates its 300th birthday.

1902 Packard Motor Car Company and Cadillac Motor Car Company are organized.

1903 The House of David (a sect founded in 1792) is established in Benton Harbor by “King” Benjamin and “Queen” Mary Purnell. The Ford Motor Company is incorporated in Detroit.

1904 The organization of Buick Motor Company marks the beginning of auto manufacturing in Flint on a large scale. Western State Normal School (Western Michigan University) opens in Kalamazoo.

1906 Timbering of second-growth forests begins in the Upper Peninsula. W.K. Kellogg Cereal Company is organized in Battle Creek.

1907 Michigan’s third constitution is drafted (approved by electorate in 1908). The Detroit Tigers, led by Ty Cobb, win the first of three consecutive pennants. President Theodore Roosevelt addresses joint session of legislature and visits State Agricultural College (now Michigan State University).

1908 William C. Durant organizes General Motors Company as Ford introduces the most famous of the early cars, the Model T. Fisher Body Corporation is founded.

1909 Department of Labor created. World’s first mile of poured concrete road built in Detroit on Woodward Avenue. Railroad mileage in Michigan reaches its highest point with 9,059 road miles in operation.

1910 Michigan’s population is 2,810,173.

1911 Durant organizes the Chevrolet Motor Car Company, when the Chevrolet brothers complete experiments on a new auto. The present state flag is adopted by the legislature. Wayne County Road Commission invents the white center line for dividing two-way traffic. Chase S. Osborn becomes first and only Governor from the Upper Peninsula. Harriet Quimby, born near Arcadia in 1875, becomes America’s first licensed female pilot.

1912 Grand Rapids Board of Education establishes the state’s first junior high school.

1913 The Western Federation of Miners calls a strike among 13,514 Upper Peninsula copper miners. Violence and bloodshed result from demands for an 8-hour day, a minimum daily wage of $3.50, and abolition of the “widow-maker,” a one-man drill. The legislature passes a bill providing for ten trunkline highways. There are 60,000 autos registered in Michigan. Michigan Historical Commission is organized.

1914 Henry Ford announces the adoption of a $5 minimum wage for an 8-hour day. A congressional committee arrives to investigate the copper miners strike, which terminates shortly afterward, each side claiming victory. The union fails to gain recognition. The first Dodge auto is produced. Following the 1913 strike, Finns initiate cooperative stores in the copper country.

1915 Michigan Manual of Freedmen’s Progress, showing the professional, political, religious, and educational achievements of African-American citizens of the state, is published by Freedmen’s Progress Commission. Michigan issues its first stamped metal license plate.

1916 Many Michigan men join Canadian units leaving for France to fight in World War I. Annual copper production reaches a peak of 270,000,000 pounds of refined copper, while iron ore production from the Marquette Range is 5,500,000 tons.
1917  The country's first War Preparedness Board is organized in Michigan. In the first year of war, Detroit builds 120 ships, spends $10,000,000 improving plants for the making of munitions. Auto manufacturers contract to deliver 19,000 engines. Camp Custer is built near Battle Creek. Selfridge Field is constructed near Mount Clemens.

1918  Michigan men in World War service reaches a total of 135,485. Snow removal inaugurated on Michigan roads. War contracts let in Detroit now total $705,000,000.

1919  Commercial airplanes are placed on sale for the first time. The influenza epidemic strikes the country and much of the world, killing 3,814 in Detroit. Michigan issues its first driver's license on July 1.

1920  Michigan's population is 3,668,412. Radio station WWJ in Detroit opens as a pioneer station in the broadcasting of regular daily programs. World's first four-way traffic signal with red, yellow and green lights appears in Detroit. Eva Hamilton becomes first woman elected to the Michigan Senate.

1921  Edwin Denby, who had enlisted at Detroit as a private in the Marine Corps in 1917, becomes secretary of the navy. Important administrative reforms in state government are legislated. The superintendent of public instruction is given supervision of all schools, private, denominational, and public, and the departments of conservation, labor, public safety, welfare, and agriculture are created.

1922  Airline service is instituted between Detroit and Cleveland. First practical highway snow plow developed in Munising.

1924  Cora Anderson becomes first woman elected to the Michigan House. Michigan High School Athletic Association is organized.

1925  Chrysler Motor Corporation organized. The Michigan gasoline tax is adopted.

1926  The worst disaster in Michigan iron mining occurs at the Barnes-Hecker Mine, when quicksand breaks through the walls, entombing 52 men 1,000 feet below the surface. The mine is sealed and abandoned.

1927  The Cranbrook Foundation (Bloomfield Hills) is created and turned over to trustees.

1928  The first all-metal dirigible, constructed for the Navy by Detroit manufacturers, is successfully flown at Grosse Ile Airport. Michigan develops the yellow line to indicate no-passing zones on highways. Upper Peninsula State Fair begins. Interlochen National Music Camp is opened near Traverse City.

1929  Some large copper mines of the Keweenaw Peninsula close; 85 percent of the Keweenaw County population goes on relief. First Tulip Festival is held in Holland, Michigan. Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village are dedicated. Ambassador Bridge is opened between Detroit and Windsor. Stock market crash begins the Great Depression. Thousands of unemployed stand in soup lines in Detroit.
1930  Michigan’s population is 4,842,325, an increase of more than 1,170,000 since 1920. Urban centers account for 68.2 percent of the population, almost an exact reversal of the situation in 1880. The vehicle tunnel between Detroit and Windsor, Ontario, is opened.

1931  The Robin becomes the official state bird of Michigan.➤

1932  The “Ford Hunger March” riot occurs at the Ford plant in Dearborn.

1933  Governor William A. Comstock calls a statewide “banking holiday” to avoid bank runs, after disclosure of the condition of the Union Guardian Trust Company, Detroit. Michigan votes to end national prohibition. First Michigan sales tax inaugurated.

1934  Wayne University is organized in Detroit.

1935  Michigan celebrates its centennial of statehood. One-fifth of Michigan’s employables are without work; the state population has dropped 28 percent since the 1930 census. The United Automobile Workers (UAW) is organized. Nation’s first travel information lodge opened on US-12 at New Buffalo. The Detroit Tigers win the World Series. With championships in this era from the Lions in professional football, the Red Wings in hockey, and Joe Louis in boxing, Detroit is known as the “City of Champions.”

1936  Mass organization of labor under the CIO is strengthened by the affiliation of International Union, United Automobile Workers of America, with the CIO. With the Flint sit-down strike leading the way, General Motors shuts down, affecting 150,000 workers and closing more than 60 plants in 14 states.

1937  Joe Louis becomes world’s heaviest champion in boxing.➤

The UAW strike reaches a peaceful conclusion as collective bargaining agreements are signed by General Motors and most other automotive and parts manufacturers, except the Ford Motor Company, which fought unionization until 1941. Keweenaw Peninsula copper mining again turns upward, with production reaching 75,000 pounds. Civil Service merit system introduced to Michigan government. A wave of sit-down strikes in various industries eventually leads to a breakdown of the open-shop tradition in the state.

1938  International “Blue Water Bridge,” connecting Port Huron and Sarnia, Ontario, is dedicated.

1939  Frank Murphy, former governor, takes office as Attorney General of the United States. Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald dies.

1940  Luren D. Dickinson, acting governor of Michigan, appoints Matilda R. Wilson as lieutenant governor, the first woman to serve in that capacity. Attorney General Frank Murphy is appointed to the United States Supreme Court to succeed the late Associate Justice Pierce Butler.➤

Michigan’s population is 5,256,106.

1941  Auto plants are converted to the production of war materials and Michigan becomes known as the “Arsenal of Democracy.” The United States enters World War II. By the time the war ended in 1945, 673,000 Michigan men and women had served in the armed forces.
1942 Sidewheeler Seeandbee converted to the aircraft carrier U.S. Wolverine for training naval air pilots on Lake Michigan.

1943 Interracial riots strike Detroit, leaving 34 dead and hundreds injured.

1944 Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, a native of Michigan, nominated by the Republicans for President.

1946 Lake Superior State College is opened at Sault Ste. Marie.

1947 Walter Reuther assumes the presidency of the U.A.W. WWJ-TV, Detroit, begins commercial television broadcasting in Michigan.

1948 G. Mennen Williams elected Governor, serves six terms.

1950 Michigan’s population is 6,371,766. Ferris Institute, founded in 1884, becomes a state institution. The Detroit Red Wings win the Stanley Cup.

1951 Fire destroys much of the State Office Building in Lansing.

1952 The Detroit Lions win the first of three world championships in professional football in the decade (also 1953 and 1957).

1953 About 250,000 Michigan men and women see military service during the Korean War (1950-1953).

1955 During its centennial year, Michigan State College becomes a university. The White Pine is adopted as the official State Tree.

1956 Wayne University in Detroit becomes a state university. The Interstate Highway Act is passed. It provided for federal-state cooperation in highway construction.

1957 Oakland University founded. After ages of dreams and efforts in the 1930s halted by the war, the five-mile-long Mackinac Bridge is completed, finally uniting Michigan’s two peninsulas.

Professional basketball comes to Michigan when the Fort Wayne Pistons move to Detroit.

1958 G. Mennen Williams, a native of Detroit, is elected to an unprecedented sixth term as governor. Computers are first used by state government.
1959 Detroit and the entire Great Lakes region gain access to world markets with the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway. First annual Labor Day Mackinac Bridge walk is held.

1960 Cobo Hall is built as the Detroit Civic Center. Michigan becomes the first state to complete a border-to-border interstate highway (I-94). Michigan’s population is 7,823,194.

1962 The International Bridge at the Soo is opened, connecting the U.S. and Canada.

1963 Grand Valley State College is opened. Michigan’s fourth state constitution, drafted in 1961-1962, is approved by the voters.

1964 James McDivitt of Jackson commands the Gemini IV mission and becomes Michigan’s first astronaut.

1966 Last operating mine on the Gogebic Iron Range closes.

1967 The urban unrest that has been evident in several U.S. cities strikes Detroit with a riot that leaves 43 dead. The state income tax act is enacted.

1968 The Detroit Tigers win the World Series. Slogan on Michigan license plates changed to Great Lake State.

1969 Governor George Romney resigns to become the U.S. Secretary of Housing and Urban Development in the Nixon administration.

1970 Michigan’s population is 8,881,826.

1971 Privately operated, nonrecreational railroad passenger service ends in Michigan as Amtrak is formed. 1,000-foot-long vessels appear on the Great Lakes.

1972 The Michigan Lottery Bureau is created. Michigan adopts the Chlorastrolite (Isle Royale Green Stone) as the State Gem.

1973 Mary Stallings Coleman becomes the first woman to serve on the Michigan Supreme Court. American military involvement in Vietnam ends; over 400,000 Michigan men and women serve. An accident in which a fire retardant containing polybrominated biphenyl (PBB) is mixed with livestock feed sets off a crisis that threatens Michigan’s agriculture and public health.
1974 Gerald R. Ford, former congressman from Grand Rapids, becomes the 38th President of the United States and first Michiganian to serve in that capacity. ➤

1975 The Pontiac Silverdome is opened.

1976 Throwaway bottles are banned as the result of an initiative requiring deposits on beer and soft drink containers.

1977 The Detroit Renaissance Center is completed.

1979 The Michigan State University Basketball Team wins the NCAA championship.

1980 Michigan's population is 9,262,078
A presidential convention (Republican) is held in Detroit for the first time.

1981 William G. Milliken becomes the state's longest-serving governor. He serves a total of 14 years. ➤

1982 The movement to renovate Michigan's 103-year-old capitol begins with the organization of Friends of the Capitol.

1983 Martha Griffiths becomes first elected woman Lieutenant Governor.

1984 The Detroit Tigers win the World Series.
“Big Three” American automakers — General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler — report total profits for year of $9.8 billion, a new high.
Detroit holds its first Grand Prix automobile race.

1985 Michigan begins celebrating its sesquicentennial.
Michigan's mandatory seat belt law goes into effect (third state in nation to enact such a law).

1986 Republican William Lucas is the first black candidate to represent a major party in a gubernatorial election in Michigan.

1987 Michigan celebrates its sesquicentennial of statehood.
The 84th legislature convenes with the highest number of women lawmakers in state history (2 senators and 20 representatives).

1988 The Brook Trout becomes the official State Fish of Michigan.

1989 The Michigan Library and Historical Center is dedicated in Lansing. ➤
The University of Michigan Men's Basketball Team wins the NCAA championship and the Detroit Pistons win the first of two consecutive National Basketball Association crowns.

1990 The restored chambers of the Senate and of the House are reopened and the lawmakers return to their traditional home after holding sessions elsewhere. The Senate becomes the first state legislative body in the nation to include microcomputers on the chamber floor.
Michigan begins the Adopt-a-Highway program.
Michigan’s population is 9,295,297.
1992
The U.S. Congress passes the Michigan Scenic Rivers Act protecting over 500 miles on 14 rivers from development. The Twenty-Seventh Amendment to the U.S. Constitution is ratified by the vote of Michigan. The text of the amendment, which provides that no law varying the compensation of Senators and Representatives shall take effect until an election of Representatives has intervened, was originally submitted to the states as part of the Bill of Rights in 1789.
Michigan completes its portion of the interstate highway system.
The restored Michigan State Capitol is rededicated.

1993
Chemists at the University of Michigan synthesize a gigantic ball-shaped molecule that may suggest how proteins function in living organisms. It is the largest molecule ever created in a laboratory from carbon and hydrogen atoms alone.

1994
The unemployment rate in Michigan drops to 4.2%, the lowest level in nearly two decades.
Governor John M. Engler is reelected to a second term; coupled with state legislative victories, Republicans control both houses of the legislature and the governor's office for the first time in 26 years.
Michigan State Parks celebrate 75th anniversary.
Michigan accounts for 32.6% of all U.S. car production, building 2.1 million passenger cars; Lansing reclaims title as “Car Capital of North America.”

1995
General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler report record earnings and auto sales.
Organized labor announces merger of U.A.W. with Steelworkers Union and International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers.

1996
Michigan voters approve Proposal E, an initiative to permit casino gaming in qualified cities.

1997
President Bill Clinton addresses joint session of Michigan Legislature, the first U.S. President to do so since President Theodore Roosevelt visited the state capital in 1907.
The Detroit Red Wings win the Stanley Cup, its first Cup victory since 1955.
Lansing celebrates its sesquicentennial as Michigan’s state capital.

1998
Voters approve the Clean Michigan Initiative, authorizing $675 million in bonds for environmental and natural resources programs.
Frank J. Kelley retires as the longest-serving (1962-1998) state attorney general in the nation.

1999
Casinos open in Detroit.
Michigan’s unemployment rate drops to 3.2%, a new record low for the state.