Pastor Greer Cherney of Amazing Grace Lutheran Church of Warren offered the following invocation:

Almighty God, we lift before You all who govern this state. May those who hold power use it wisely in service to all people. Guide all here to do their work in a spirit of wisdom, charity, and justice.

Bless these public servants in their dedication to their work for the good of all. Help them to use their authority to serve faithfully and to promote our common life. Make us to always remember Your generosity, gracious God, and constantly do Your will.

Bless these leaders in government to guide us all to honesty in our work, truth in education, and honor in daily life. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; lead us to clarity, kindness, and justice for all. When times are prosperous, let our hearts be thankful; and in troubled times, do not let our trust in You fail.

Bless these leaders, that they may be at peace and be a blessing to all others, to the state of Michigan, and to all nations of this earth.

We pray all these things to You, God, trusting in Your promise to hear us, to love us, and to guide us. In Your name we pray. Amen.

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Ananich, Bieda, Booher, Casperson, Gregory, Hertel, Hildenbrand, Hopgood, Hune, Knezek, Kowall, MacGregor, Marleau, Meekhof, Nofs, Pavlov, Proos, Shirkey and Stamas were named co-sponsors of the bill.

Senators Knezek, Ananich, Hertel and Bieda asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Knezek’s statement is as follows:

From the very first days that I came to the Senate, I made it very clear to my colleagues, and very clear to my constituents back home, that one of the changes that I want to see within our tax code, here in the state of Michigan, is the repeal of the pension tax that is negatively impacting the retirees who we have here in the state of Michigan. I want to applaud my colleagues, first and foremost, for their willingness to take up this legislation today, because we need this legislation to fix the terrible tax policy changes that have come out of Washington, D.C. I think we should also take this opportunity to provide some much needed relief to our seniors and our retirees here in the state of Michigan, and we can do that here today by repealing the pension tax.

The amendment that I am putting forward today on Senate Bill No. 748, would do just that. So I am asking my colleagues, Democrat and Republican, to stand with the working men and women of this state, to stand with the retirees of this state, and to once and for all, repeal the senior pension tax.

Senator Ananich’s statement is as follows:

I rise today to offer my support for Senate Bill No. 748.

Last week, I spoke with the sponsor of this bill and told him I would support it—and I even wanted to increase it, which he did. As you all know, Democrats are always happy to fix messes handed to us by Washington, D.C. Republicans. This shows clear and simple that the Trump tax plan was a huge tax increase for many Michiganders. To be clear—I think the public has a right to know—the additional exemption we’re talking about today means about $21.25 extra per person at the end of the year. That amounts to almost six cents a day, but it’s your money and at the end of the day, it should be in your pocket. I will mention that I offered an amendment in December that would have gone even further—it would have increased exemptions by 50 percent, but that’s neither here nor there. That being said, I’m glad to see us moving in the direction of relief for Michigan families. It’s about time.

Now, together, we must demand that the Governor sign a repeal of the driver responsibility fees which have denied hundreds of thousands of Michiganders access to getting a job and being productive members of society.

Senator Hertel’s statement is as follows:

I rise today in support of this legislation, but frankly, it’s sad that we have to be here today.

President Trump promised a middle-class tax cut for all Americans. Instead, the Republicans in Congress and the President broke that promise and gave hard-working Michiganders a tax increase. Just plain sad.
I support this solution because it makes our tax system more progressive. I support this bill because people are tired of paying more and getting less from our government. Every Michigander here in Michigan knows all too well the broken promises we’ve made to them in this state. For the last six years, we’ve seen tax cuts for our largest corporations that have not led to more jobs or higher wages; tax cuts that do nothing more than pad the bottom line of corporations that are already enjoying record profits, and raising taxes on the actual working people of this state over and over again. We have raised their income taxes, we have raised fees, and we have repeatedly raised taxes on the people of this state. What are they getting for it? Are their roads fixed? No, they’re still crumbling. Their schools are still under-funded. The average kid graduates our Michigan universities with $35,000 in debt.

So let’s be clear—this is not some grand tax relief in this bill. It is simply a fix to what the federal government created so that our people’s taxes will not be raised once again.

This bill does not fix any of the problems I’ve laid out here, but it at least makes our taxes a little more fair for working families, and in a small way corrects a great lie told to us by the people in Washington, D.C.

Senator Bieda’s statement is as follows:

Colleagues, I rise today to explain my support for the legislation before us. Yesterday, when this bill was presented in committee, I had plenty of reservations. I kept asking myself, “How many more times must we pass legislation to fix legislation that was broken from the start?”

The reason we are in this mess to begin with is because Republicans in Washington, D.C. were so anxious to hand the President something to sign that they forgot to double check their math. And in their haste to finally pass a piece of legislation after nearly a year in power, they passed a tax increase instead of a tax cut. They sent our state a tax bill for a $1.6 billion tax increase, which would have cost Michiganders—or Michiganians, if you prefer—$680.00 more in their taxes according to Governor Snyder’s Treasurer. Michigan families are already paying more. They are paying more for groceries, gas, utilities, and cable. Everything is going up. The last thing that we needed was to repeat Washington, D.C.’s mistake. Too many times we are thrown a bone and later find out that the devil is in the details.

The adoption of an amendment on here to hold the schools harmless, I think, is also an important consideration, because too often, public education has been given the short stick. Now that the amendment has been adopted, I am announcing my support for this legislation and encourage your support as well. We were able to negotiate a fix that will help all Michigan taxpayers.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of Senator Kowall moved that the Committee on Government Operations be discharged from further consideration of the following bills:

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Hildenbrand and Ananich asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Hildenbrand’s statement is as follows:

As the sponsor of Senate Bill No. 94, I worked closely with the Governor’s office through the legislative process on this policy change, but ultimately we could not come to an agreement. The Legislature overwhelmingly passed this bill and Senate Bill No. 95 earlier last year, which were unfortunately vetoed. Since that time, we have worked and have been considering how best to address the impasse that exists on this issue.

Overriding the vetoes of Senate Bill Nos. 94 and 95 is not only a historic action by this body, but it also represents our democracy and Constitution in full action. The veto-override provision prescribed in Article IV, Section 33 of Michigan’s Constitution was granted to the Legislature in an effort to provide an additional check in our system of checks and balances. It is not something we do very often or without serious thought and consideration.

Acceleration of sales-tax relief when purchasing a new vehicle will continue to drive Michigan vehicle sales and provides needed tax relief to Michigan taxpayers. As chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, I am confident this additional tax relief can be accommodated in the growing state budget.

As the North American International Auto Show shines a spotlight on Michigan’s automotive heritage, moving forward with this policy change shows our support of an industry that not only drives our economy but positions us as a global leader in automotive manufacturing.

I ask for your support of the override of Senate Bill Nos. 94 and 95.
Senator Ananich’s statement is as follows:

I rise today to support the veto override of Senate Bill Nos. 94 and 95. This is something that is long overdue. I can’t speak for all of you, but I know that myself and my community—and my two colleagues that represent a portion of Genesee County—we have residents all across this county, and all across the state, who wake up on Monday morning, they put their work clothes on, and they go out and work a hard days’ work every single day of the week. They may be working in a restaurant, they may be working in one of the 10,000 automotive jobs that we have in our community, or they may be a teacher. At the end of the week, for whatever reason, they feel like maybe they’re not as well off as they were when they started the week. But they have a family, they have to get their family to school, they have to get their family on whatever vacation they can take, they have to get to work, and maybe the best they can afford is a used car.

We are the home of the auto industry. At the very least, we should join dozens of other states in making this critical fix. Here is something that puts money in the pockets of Michiganders, and as my colleagues said, supports the auto industry. It is just common sense, and I can’t quite understand why the Governor was so intent on killing a bill that gives real help to working families.

Now overriding this veto, it sends a strong message that we can’t just continue to balance the state’s budget on the backs of regular folks. Again, I rise to support the override of Senate Bill Nos. 94 and 95, and I encourage all my colleagues to support it.

The following bill was announced:

Enrolled Senate Bill No. 95, being

An act to amend 1937 PA 94, entitled “An act to provide for the levy, assessment, and collection of a specific excise tax on the storage, use, or consumption in this state of tangible personal property and certain services; to appropriate the proceeds of that tax; to prescribe penalties; and to make appropriations,” by amending section 2 (MCL 205.92), as amended by 2016 PA 516.
