Rep. Thomas F. Stallworth III, from the 8th District, offered the following invocation:

“Dear God,

As we begin our work today, please lift our minds to the realm of Truth.

May we remember and not forget throughout the day that our only work is to love, for Your Sake, that the world might be renewed.

May we think of our great state - it’s people, the circumstances, the situations - and act in accordance with Your voice.

Teach us to Lead and to serve with dignity, sensitivity, and selflessness.

Guide us to withdraw our judgments, interpretations and agendas and to act only to be a healing force.

Focus our actions such that they uplift the communities we serve and are a source of inspiration to others.

If we are tempted to judge or criticize anyone, please heal us of our limited vision so that we may only see the truth.

May we work with integrity and excellence and the full force of Your power within us, that we may know our true strength and contribute it to this world.

May our presence here be a blessing on others and on ourselves.

We ask that You continue to wrap Your arms around us, protect us and show us the way now and forever.

Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. MacGregor, Barnett, Bauer, Constan, Crawford, Denby, Durhal, Heise, Jacobsen, Knollenberg, Kowall, Liss, O’Brien, Poleski, Pscholka, Segal, Slavens, Switalski and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 290.

A resolution to declare July 2012 as Craft Beer Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers are a vibrant affirmation and expression of Michigan’s entrepreneurial traditions, operating as community-based small businesses and providing employment for more than 1,000 workers; and

Whereas, Michigan has craft brewers in every region of the state and more than 100 craft brewers statewide; and

Whereas, The Michigan Brewers Guild celebrates Michigan Craft Beer Month each year by hosting a Summer Festival in July; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers support Michigan agriculture by purchasing hops, wheat, beet sugar, cherries, apples, and numerous other fruits, herbs, and vegetables grown in Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers promote Michigan’s spirit of independence through a renaissance in hand-crafted beers like those first brought to Michigan by European settlers and produced here by our forefathers, including Bernhard Stroh, for the enjoyment of the citizenry; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers strive to educate legal drinking-age residents about the differences in beer flavor, aroma, color, alcohol content, body, and other complex variables, as well as historic brewing traditions, beer history, and gastronomic qualities of beer; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers champion the message of responsible enjoyment to their customers and work within their communities to prevent alcohol abuse and underage drinking; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers produce more than 100 distinct styles of flavorful beers, the quality and diversity of which have made Michigan the envy of many states, contributing to balanced trade with increased Michigan exports, and promoting Michigan tourism; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers have been a successful business model during our state’s economic struggles, thriving and expanding - furthering their economic importance to our state; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers are vested in the future, health, and welfare of their communities as employers providing a diverse array of quality local jobs, as contributors to the local tax base, and as committed sponsors of a broad range of vital community institutions and philanthropic causes, including not-for-profit housing development associations, chambers of commerce, humane societies, athletic teams, and medical research; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare July 2012 as Craft Beer Month in the state of Michigan. We recognize the contributions that Michigan craft brewers have made to the state’s communities, economy, and history; and be it further

Resolved, That we commend Michigan craft brewers for providing jobs, improving the balance of trade, supporting Michigan agriculture, and educating residents about the history and culture of beer while promoting the responsible consumption of beer as a beverage of moderation.

House Resolution No. 291.

A resolution to declare June 12, 2012, as Dairy Foods Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The mission of the Michigan Dairy Foods Association is to support and promote activities designed to improve and maintain the general well-being of the dairy processing industry; and

Whereas, The Michigan Dairy Foods Association is a trade and membership service organization representing all aspects of the dairy processing industry in Michigan. The association's primary purposes are to assure that a strong environment exists for the creation and maintenance of sound public policy as it relates to all aspects of the dairy processing industry in Michigan; to enhance the position, prestige, and competitive ability of the association's members; and to provide educational programs to enhance members' abilities to process and market fine dairy products, packaged waters, and juices in Michigan and throughout the world; and

Whereas, Dairy Foods Awareness Day was established by the Michigan Dairy Foods Association to demonstrate the importance of the dairy processing industry in Michigan and to promote the 3-A-Day concept of three servings of calcium-rich dairy products per day, which helps ensure a healthy diet. We salute the people of the Michigan Dairy Foods Association for their efforts to expand our awareness and knowledge of the dairy processing industry; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 12, 2012, as Dairy Foods Awareness Day in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Reports of Standing Committees

The Speaker laid before the House

House Concurrent Resolution No. 11.

A concurrent resolution to memorialize Congress to adopt and present to the states for ratification an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to establish fundamental parental rights.

(For text of concurrent resolution, see House Journal No. 39 of 2011, p. 576.)

(The concurrent resolution was reported by the Committee on Families, Children, and Seniors on February 14.)

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

Rep. Slavens moved to substitute (H-1) the concurrent resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Concurrent Resolution No. 11.

A concurrent resolution to memorialize Congress to adopt and present to the states for ratification an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to establish fundamental parental rights, while protecting the best interests of the child.

Whereas, The rights of parents to direct the upbringing and education of their children is a fundamental right that must be protected by the Constitution of the United States and the Michigan Constitution; and

Whereas, Our nation has historically relied first and foremost on parents to meet the real and constant needs of children; and

Whereas, The interests of children are best served when parents are free to make childrearing decisions about education, religion, and other areas of a child's life without state interference; and

Whereas, The United States Supreme Court in Wisconsin v. Yoder (1972) has held that “This primary role of the parents in the upbringing of their children is now established beyond debate as an enduring American tradition”; and

Whereas, However, the United States Supreme Court in Troxel v. Granville (2000) produced 6 different opinions on the nature and enforceability of parental rights under the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, This decision has created confusion and ambiguity about the fundamental nature of parental rights in the laws and society of several states; and

Whereas, A proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States (House Joint Resolution 3) has been introduced in the 112th Congress that would prevent erosion of the enduring American tradition of treating parental rights as fundamental rights:

Section One: The liberty of parents to direct the upbringing and education of their children is a fundamental right.

Section Two: Neither the United States nor any state shall infringe upon this right without demonstrating that its governmental interest as applied to the person is of the highest order and not otherwise served.

Section Three: No treaty may be adopted nor shall any source of international law be employed to supercede, modify, interpret, or apply to the rights guaranteed by this article.

Whereas, This amendment would add explicit text to the Constitution of the United States to protect in perpetuity the rights of parents as they are now enjoyed, without substantive change to current state or federal laws respecting these rights; and

Whereas, In any amendment to enumerate the rights of parents, it is imperative that the best interests of the child be safeguarded. Michigan has delineated clearly many factors that influence every child’s chances to pursue the life we hope all children can attain. In MCL 722.23, within the Michigan’s Child Custody Act of 1970, the numerous factors that constitute the best interests of the child include not only the self-evident material elements that promote safety and health, but also the emotional considerations, stability, absence of violence, sense of support, and consistency all children need and deserve. Any provision to recognize parental rights must enhance, rather than diminish, our country’s advancement of the best interests of the child; and

Whereas, Such enumeration of the rights of parents and children in the text of our nation’s constitution would preserve them from being infringed upon by the shifting ideologies and interpretations of the United States Supreme Court; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we memorialize Congress to adopt and present to the states for ratification an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to establish fundamental parental rights, while protecting the best interests of the child; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The motion did not prevail and the substitute (H-1) was not adopted, a majority of the members serving not voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

Rep. Segal demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand was supported.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

The concurrent resolution was adopted, a majority of the members present voting therefor, by yeas and nays, as follows:

Rep. Zorn, having reserved the right to explain his nay vote, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

No Vote Explanation

I voted against House Resolution 112, which requires Michigan’s public universities to adopt policies based on counselors’ religious beliefs, because it takes the easy way out of a very important and complicated situation.

The students and faculty at these universities who seek out psychological help have real needs that should be met, not avoided. A counselor who cannot work with someone slightly different than themselves obviously requires more training, not an exemption from doing their job.

This resolution allows counselors to avoid problems that arise in the course of their duties, rather than provide a solution. Because of that, I cannot vote in favor of this resolution as it is currently written.”

The Speaker laid before the House

House Concurrent Resolution No. 56.

A concurrent resolution to declare June 9-17, 2012, as Aquatic Invasive Species Awareness Week in the state of Michigan. (For text of concurrent resolution, see House Journal No. 55, p. 1239.)

by 2003 PA 302, section 509aa as amended by 2004 PA 92, section 659 as amended by 2004 PA 296, and section 661 as amended by 1982 PA 2, and by adding section 764c.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Reps. Barnett, Geiss, Stallworth, Lindberg, Lipton, Darany, Byrum, Liss, Rutledge, Tlaib, Segal, Nathan, Cavanagh, Stapleton and Brown, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on SB751, SB754 and SB803 because these bills will make it more difficult for Michigan citizens to register to vote and to vote, in general. Specifically, the purging of voters from the inactive voter file in Senate Bill 751 may result in disenfranchising eligible voters. Further, I am worried about voters who may not have received the notice or for voters in the inactive file being treated differently when they vote absentee (their ballot becomes an automatic challenged ballot). Senate Bill 754 requires unnecessary, unreasonable and burdensome requirements on organizations that are critical in assisting voters, such as voters in minority communities, in taking the first step to complete the voter registration form. Third-party voter registration organization drives ease the process for voter registration, provide voter information and assist vulnerable residents such as low-income communities and newly naturalized citizens to become engaged in our democratic system. This legislation will make it more difficult for third-party registration drives to increase voter registration and engage Michigan citizens in the elections process.

Finally, I am concerned about the citizenship requirement in SB 803. This unnecessary requirement does nothing to promote fair and safe elections. Voters are already required to declare their citizenship when they register to vote. I am concerned that a voter, who even hesitates at checking the box, could be subject to a harassment or a challenge by a poll challenger. For absent voters who neglect or fail to check the citizenship box, they will be disenfranchised because their ballots will not be counted and the bill does not provide sufficient notice, nor an adequate remedy, of the error.

Furthermore, I did not support the gaveling on of Immediate Effect to SB751, SB754, or SB803 without a roll call vote.”

Rep. Irwin, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

Reps. Oakes, Bledsoe, Switalski and Townsend, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on SB751, SB754 and SB803 because these bills will make it more difficult for Michigan citizens to register to vote and to vote, in general. Specifically, the purging of voters form the inactive voter file in Senate Bill 751 may result in disenfranchising eligible voters. Further, I am worried about voters who may not have received the notice or for voters in the inactive file being treated differently when they vote absentee (their ballot becomes an automatic challenged ballot). Senate Bill 754 requires unnecessary, unreasonable and burdensome requirements on organizations that are critical in assisting voters, such as voters in minority communities, in taking the first step to complete the voter registration form. Third-party voter registration organization drives ease the process for voter registration, provide voter information and assist vulnerable residents such as low-income communities and newly naturalized citizens to become engaged in our democratic system. This legislation will make it more difficult for third-party registration drives to increase voter registration and engage Michigan citizens in the elections process. Finally, I am concerned about the citizenship requirement in SB 803. This unnecessary requirement does nothing to promote fair and safe elections. Voters are already required to declare their citizenship when they register to vote. I am concerned that a voter, who even hesitates at checking the box, could be subject to a harassment or a challenge by a poll challenger. For absent voters who neglect or fail to check the citizenship box, they will be disenfranchised because their ballots will not be counted and the bill does not provide sufficient notice, nor an adequate remedy, of the error. Furthermore, I did not support the gaveling on of Immediate Effect to SB751, SB754, or SB803 without a roll call vote.”

Reps. Ananich and Howze, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

Point of Order

Rep. Segal requested a ruling of the Chair on why, according to Article 4 Section 18 of the Constitution, one-fifth of the members are not being recognized.

The Chair ruled that Article 4 Section 18 is not being violated.

Rep. Segal appealed the decision of the Chair.

The question being, “Shall the judgment of the Chair stand as the judgment of the House?”

The judgment of the Chair stood as the judgment of the House, a majority of the members present voting therefor, by yeas and nays, as follows:

The question being on agreeing to the title of the bill,

Rep. Stamas moved to amend the title to read as follows:

A bill to amend 1954 PA 116, entitled "An act to reorganize, consolidate, and add to the election laws; to provide for election officials and prescribe their powers and duties; to prescribe the powers and duties of certain state departments, state agencies, and state and local officials and employees; to provide for the nomination and election of candidates for public office; to provide for the resignation, removal, and recall of certain public officers; to provide for the filling of vacancies in public office; to provide for and regulate primaries and elections; to provide for the purity of elections; to guard against the abuse of the elective franchise; to define violations of this act; to provide appropriations; to prescribe penalties and provide remedies; and to repeal certain acts and all other acts inconsistent with this act," by amending sections 523 and 759 (MCL 168.523 and 168.759), section 523 as amended by 2005 PA 71 and section 759 as amended by 1995 PA 261, and by adding section 766a.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Reps. Barnett, Stallworth, Geiss, Lindberg, Lipton, Darany, Byrum, Liss, Rutledge, Tlaib, Segal, Nathan, Cavanagh, Stapleton, Meadows and Brown, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

It is an insult to the voters that the House Journal inaccurately reflects the level of support for immediate effect. Votes were not counted and a 2/3rds majority for immediate effect was not established through any accepted means of counting votes. Votes were not counted by a voice vote, a rising vote or a roll call. Rather, the supermajority is asserted erroneously and all efforts to count votes are rebuffed.”

Rep. Greimel, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on Senate Bill 824 because, despite the inclusion of some good government reform provisions, the bill reduces transparency and accountability. Specifically, the bill allows for waiving and reimbursing fines for violating laws requiring the disclosure of late campaign contributions. This sets a bad precedent for compliance with campaign finance laws and is likely to lead to inequity in determining whose fees are waived. Moreover, the bill’s provision allowing PAC to PAC contributions opens the door to special interest money being passed around without adequate disclosure because it will make it very difficult to trace the money. For these reasons, I voted no on Senate Bill 824.”

Rep. Stamas moved that Senate Bill No. 825 be placed on its immediate passage.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senate Bill No. 825, entitled

Rep. Irwin, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I oppose a bill that affirms and celebrates discrimination under the cover of religious freedom. It is a sad day when, in their zeal to discriminate against homosexual residents, my colleagues have voted to enshrine this license to discriminate in law. I hope that our citizens don’t utilize this unfortunate license to discriminate against lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, christian, muslim, jewish, hindu, alcoholic, vegan, farmer, veteran or any other group that an arguable religious objection could be raised against.”

Rep. Zorn, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted against House Bill 5040, which requires Michigan’s public universities to adopt policies based on counselors’ religious beliefs, because it takes the easy way out of a very important and complicated situation.

The students and faculty at these universities who seek out psychological help have real needs that should be met, not avoided. A counselor who cannot work with someone slightly different than themselves obviously requires more training, not an exemption from doing their job.

This resolution allows counselors to avoid problems that arise in the course of their duties, rather than provide a solution. Because of that, I cannot vote in favor of this resolution as it is currently written.”

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of
