3 by a law enforcement agency, prosecuting attorney, criminal suspect
4 or defendant, or court in a criminal action. Forensic analysis does 5 not include an expert examination or test, including, but not 6 limited to, a statistical or engineering analysis, conducted for 7 the purpose of opining on a specific aspect of the forensic 8 evidence or the type of forensic test utilized, or an expert 9 examination or test conducted principally for the purpose of 10 scientific research, medical practice, civil or administrative 11 litigation, or other purpose unrelated to determining the 12 connection of physical evidence to a criminal action.

13 (d) "Forensic analyst" means an individual who technically 14 reviews or performs a forensic analysis or draws conclusions from 15 or interprets a forensic analysis.

16 (e) "Forensic laboratory" includes a public or private 17 laboratory or other entity that conducts a forensic analysis.

18 (f) "Forensic medical service provider" means a forensic 19 medicine agency or forensic medicine practitioner providing 20 forensic medicine services.

21 (g) "Forensic medicine" means the application of medical 22 knowledge and practices to the investigation of the medicolegal
23 aspects of death, injury, neglect, or behavior in a criminal 24 prosecution.

25 (h) "Forensic medicine agency" means an entity, or an agency 26 of this state, that employs forensic medicine practitioners and 27 issues reports prepared by forensic medicine practitioners.

28 (i) "Forensic science" means the field of study of medical,
29 chemical, toxicological, ballistic, or other expert examinations or

1 tests performed on physical evidence, including DNA evidence, for 2 the purpose of determining the connection of the evidence to a 3 criminal action, except that forensic science does not include the 4 study of the portion of an autopsy conducted by a medical examiner
5 or other forensic pathologist who is a licensed physician.

6 (j) "Forensic science agency" means an entity, or an agency of 7 this state, that employs forensic science practitioners and issues
8 reports prepared by forensic science practitioners.

9 (k) "Forensic science service provider" means a forensic 10 science agency or forensic science practitioner providing forensic 11 science services.

12 (l) "Nonconformance" means a mistake in the course of the 13 forensic science process that has affected the accuracy and 14 reliability of the work of forensic science service providers.

15 Enacting section 1. This act takes effect 90 days after the 16 date it is enacted into law.

17 Enacting section 2. This act does not take effect unless 18 Senate Bill No. 276 of the 100th Legislature is enacted into law.
