

1998 PUBLIC AND LOCAL ACTS

[No. 221]

(HB 5580)

AN ACT to amend 1941 PA 122, entitled "An act to establish a revenue division of the department of treasury; to prescribe its powers and duties as the revenue collection agency of the state; to prescribe certain powers and duties of the state treasurer; to create the position and to define the powers and duties of the state commissioner of revenue; to provide for the transfer of powers and duties now vested in certain other state boards, commissions, departments and offices; to prescribe certain duties of and require certain reports from the department of treasury; to provide procedures for the payment, administration, audit, assessment, levy of interests or penalties on, and appeals of taxes and tax liability; to prescribe its powers and duties if an agreement to act as agent for a city to administer, collect, and enforce the city income tax act on behalf of a city is entered into with any city; to provide an appropriation; to abolish the state board of tax administration; and to declare the effect of this act," by amending section 28 (MCL 205.28), as amended by 1993 PA 13, and by adding section 30c.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

205.28 Conditions applicable to administration of taxes; violation; penalties; records required. [M.S.A. 7.657(28)]

Sec. 28. (1) The following conditions apply to all taxes administered under this act unless otherwise provided for in the specific tax statute:

(a) Notice, if required, shall be given either by personal service or by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the taxpayer. Service upon the commissioner may be made in the same manner.

(b) An injunction shall not issue to stay proceedings for the assessment and collection of a tax.

(c) In addition to the mode of collection provided in this act, the department may institute an action at law in any county in which the taxpayer resides or transacts business.

(d) The commissioner may request in writing information or records in the possession of any other department, institution, or agency of state government for the performance of duties under this act. Departments, institutions, or agencies of state government shall furnish the information and records upon receipt of the commissioner's request. Upon request of the commissioner, any department, institution, or agency of state government shall hold a hearing under the administrative procedures act of 1969, 1969 PA 306, MCL 24.201 to 24.328, to consider withholding a license or permit of a person for nonpayment of taxes or accounts collected under this act.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in section 30c, the commissioner or an employee of the department shall not compromise or reduce in any manner the taxes due to or claimed by the state or unpaid accounts or amounts due to any department, institution, or agency of state government. This subdivision does not prevent a compromise of interest or penalties, or both.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, an employee, authorized representative, or former employee or authorized representative of the department or anyone connected with the department shall not divulge any facts or information obtained in connection with the administration of a tax or information or parameters that would enable a person to ascertain the audit selection or processing criteria of the department for a tax administered by the department. A person may disclose information described in this subdivision if the disclosure is required for the proper administration of a tax law administered under this act, pursuant to a judicial order sought by an agency charged with the duty of enforcing or investigating support obligations pursuant to an order of a court in a domestic relations matter as that term is defined in section 31 of the friend of the court act, 1982 PA 294, MCL 552.531, or pursuant to a judicial order sought by an agency of the federal, state, or local government charged with the responsibility for the administration or enforcement of criminal law for purposes of investigating or prosecuting criminal matters or for federal or state grand jury proceedings or a judicial order if the taxpayer's liability for a tax administered under this act is to be adjudicated by the court that issued the judicial order. However, the commissioner or a person designated by the commissioner may divulge information set forth or disclosed in a return or report or by an investigation or audit to any department, institution, or agency of state government upon receipt of a written request from a head of the department, institution, or agency of state government if it is required for the effective administration or enforcement of the laws of this state, to a proper officer of the United States department of treasury, and to a proper officer of another state reciprocating in this privilege. The commissioner may enter into reciprocal agreements with other departments of state government, the United States department of treasury, local governmental units within this state, or taxing officials of other states for the enforcement, collection, and exchange of data after ascertaining that any information provided will be subject to confidentiality restrictions substantially the same as the provisions of this act.

(2) A person who violates subsection (1)(e) or (1)(f) is guilty of a felony, punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000.00, or imprisonment for not more than 5 years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. In addition, if the offense is committed by an employee of this state, the person shall be dismissed from office or discharged from employment upon conviction.

(3) A person liable for any tax administered under this act shall keep accurate and complete records necessary for the proper determination of tax liability as required by law or rule of the department.

205.30c Voluntary disclosure agreement. [M.S.A. 7.657(30c)]

Sec. 30c. (1) Through December 31, 2003, the commissioner, or an authorized representative of the commissioner, on behalf of the department, may enter into a voluntary disclosure agreement with a person who is a nonfiler and who meets 1 or more of the following criteria:

(a) Has a filing responsibility under nexus standards issued by the department after December 31, 1997.

(b) Contests liability for a tax or fee administered under this act as determined by the commissioner.

(2) All taxes and fees administered under this act are eligible for inclusion in a voluntary disclosure agreement.

(3) To be eligible for a voluntary disclosure agreement, subject to subsection (1), a person must meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, has had no previous contact by the department or its agents regarding a tax covered by the agreement. A letter of inquiry, whether a final letter or otherwise, requesting information under section 21(2)(a) that was sent to a nonfiler shall not be considered a previous contact under this subdivision if the nonfiler sends a written request to the department to enter into a voluntary disclosure agreement within 180 days after the enactment of the amendatory act that added this section.

(b) Has had no notification of an impending audit by the department or its agents.

1998 PUBLIC AND LOCAL ACTS

(c) Is not currently under audit by the department of treasury or under investigation by the department of state police, department of attorney general, or any local law enforcement agency regarding a tax covered by the agreement.

(d) Is not currently the subject of a civil action or a criminal prosecution involving any tax covered by the agreement.

(e) Has agreed to register, file returns, and pay all taxes due in accordance with all applicable laws of this state for all taxes administered under this act for all periods after the lookback period.

(f) Has agreed to pay all taxes due for each tax covered under the agreement for the lookback period, plus statutory interest as stated in section 23, within the period of time and in the manner specified in the agreement.

(g) Has agreed to file returns and worksheets for the lookback period as specified in the agreement.

(4) If a person satisfies all requirements stated in subsection (3), the department may enter into a voluntary disclosure agreement with that person providing the following relief:

(a) Notwithstanding section 28(1)(e) of this act, the department shall not assess any tax, delinquency for a tax, penalty, or interest covered under the agreement for any period before the lookback period identified in the agreement.

(b) The department shall not assess any applicable discretionary or nondiscretionary penalties for the lookback period.

(c) The department shall provide complete confidentiality of the agreement and shall also enter into an agreement not to disclose, in accordance with section 28(1)(f), any of the terms or conditions of the agreement to any tax authorities of any state or governmental authority or to any person except as required by exchange of information agreements authorized under section 28(1)(f), including the international fuel tax agreement under chapter 317 of title 49 of the United States code, 49 U.S.C. 31701 to 31708. The department shall not exchange information obtained under this section with other states regarding the person unless information regarding the person is specifically requested by another state.

(5) The department shall not bring a criminal action against a person for failure to report or to remit any tax covered by the agreement before or during the lookback period if the facts established by the department are not materially different from the facts disclosed by the person to the department.

(6) A voluntary disclosure agreement is effective when signed by the person subject to the agreement, or his, her, or its lawful representative, and returned to the department within the time period specified in the agreement. The department shall only provide the relief specified in the executed agreement. Any verbal or written communication by the department before the effective date of the agreement shall not afford any penalty waiver, limited lookback period, or other benefit otherwise available under this section.

(7) A material misrepresentation of the fact by an applicant relating to the applicant's current activity in this state renders an agreement null and void and of no effect. A change in the activities or operations of a person after the effective date of the agreement is not a material misrepresentation of fact and shall not affect the agreement's validity.

(8) The department may audit any of the taxes covered by the agreement within the lookback period or in any prior period if, in the department's opinion, an audit of a prior period is necessary to determine the person's tax liability for the tax periods within the lookback period or to determine another person's tax liability.

1998 PUBLIC AND LOCAL ACTS

(9) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to allow or permit unjust enrichment as that term is defined in subsection (10). Any tax collected or withheld from another person by an applicant shall be remitted to the department without respect to whether it was collected during or before the lookback period.

(10) As used in this section:

(a) "Lookback period" means 1 or more of the following:

(i) The most recent 48-month period as determined by the department or the first date the person subject to an agreement under this section began doing business in the state if less than 48 months.

(ii) For single business taxes levied under the single business tax act, 1975 PA 228, MCL 208.1 to 208.145, the lookback period shall be the 4 most recent completed fiscal or calendar years over a 48-month period or the first date the person subject to an agreement under this section began doing business in this state if less than 48 months.

(iii) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (j), (ii), and (iv), the most recent 36-month period as determined by the department or the first date the person subject to an agreement under this section began doing business in this state if less than 36 months, if tax returns filed in another state for a tax based on net income that included sales in the numerator of the apportionment formula that now must be included in the numerator of the apportionment formula under the single business tax act, 1975 PA 228, MCL 208.1 to 208.145, and those sales increased the net tax liability payable to that state.

(iv) If there is doubt as to liability for the tax during the lookback period, another period as determined by the commissioner to be in the best interest of this state and to preserve equitable and fair administration of taxes.

(b) "Nonfiler" for a particular tax is a person that has never filed a return for the particular tax being disclosed.

(c) "Person" means an individual, firm, bank, financial institution, limited partnership, copartnership, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, receiver, estate, trust, or any other group or combination acting as a unit.

(d) "Previous contact" means any notification of an impending audit pursuant to section 21(1), review, or any type of notice or assessment. Previous contact also includes final letters of inquiry pursuant to section 21(2)(a) or a subpoena from the department.

(e) "Unjust enrichment" includes the withholding of income tax under the income tax act of 1967, 1967 PA 281, MCL 206.1 to 206.532, and the collection of any other tax administered by this act that has not been remitted to the department.

(f) "Voluntary disclosure agreement" or "agreement" means the entirety of the written agreement between a person and the department.

Conditional effective date.

Enacting section 1. This amendatory act does not take effect unless House Bill No. 4910 of the 89th Legislature is enacted into law.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.

Approved July 1, 1998.

Filed with Secretary of State July 1, 1998.
