Rev. LaVerne M. Gill, M.Div., Th.M., Pastor of Webster United Church of Christ in Dexter, offered the following invocation:

“O God, Creator, called by many names—Allah, El Shaddai, Elohim, Yahweh, Jehovah, Triune God—we thank You for Your grace and the abundance of Your many blessings. Yet we also come to You with a petition. We ask for the bestowal of wisdom upon this legislative body. Take them beyond their individual limitations, predilections and prejudices and give them deeper insights and a renewed understanding.

Turn the human inclination toward expedient decision making into an incessant yearning for Solomonic discernment. Create seekers out of each member of this body so much so that they will each in their own way go beyond the secular knowledge and seek out divine guidance as they attempt to legislate for the welfare and well-being of this small part of Your creation.

Imbue them with compassion so that they might pursue avenues for the uplift of the poor and the disinherited. Give them a mind to legislate so that the orphan, the aged and the defenseless are protected, the hungry fed, the homeless housed, the naked clothed and the prisoner rehabilitated, the sick in mind and body provided with the resources for healing, the child educated, the jobless employed and the disabled assured access.

Create in them a mind to be seekers of peace and architects of reconciliation in a state that far too often draws artificial divisions based on race, age, creed, color, religion, physical abilities sexual orientation, class and gender. Create in them a burning heart to write laws that dispense justice impartially, while giving them an aversion to promulgate laws that seek revenge. Calm their fears and increase their capacity for forgiveness so that the laws that emanate from the Michigan State House might reflect upon them as a body dedicated to restoration and renewal.

O God, You have placed within their stewardship both natural and financial resources. Give them a profound respect for this stewardship that they might protect and preserve them where possible. Strengthen their ethical core that they may not fall prey to the vagaries of the time.

O Creator God, we also petition You to take into Your grace and mercy each individual for whom personal pain, doubt and fear might be a hindrance to a life of abundance and or a clarity of mind. Bless these Your servants as they undertake with humility this awesome task of legislative governance. Amen.”

Rep. Jacobs moved that Reps. Bogardus, Reeves and Whitmer be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
 Rep. Richardville moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
 The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Drolet, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted ‘No’ on this Bill because it extends a bad idea to a misguided government policy. It is wrong for government to force taxpayers, whether an individual or a business, for the ‘privilege’ of being taxed. This bill extends the practice of allowing local governments to impose a ‘tax tax.’ People actually pay an additional tax to cover the local government’s cost of collecting taxes from them.

The misguided government policy to which I refer is the policy of governments choosing certain taxpayers to 'win' by granting them tax abatements while their business competitors 'lose' by being forced to shoulder the full government tax burden. While I support taxpayers keeping as much of their earned money as possible, I cannot support doing so selectively.

I am voting against this bill because, while I oppose selective tax abatements, I cannot support any extension of the 'tax tax.' The proper policy is to eliminate this tax for all taxpayers, not extend it further. If it is too costly for governments to collect taxes, perhaps they shouldn't."

Rep. Hale entered the House Chambers.

House Resolution No. 80.

A resolution honoring Mr. W. Sidney Smith upon the occasion of the conclusion of his service on the Central Michigan University Board of Trustees.

Whereas, With the conclusion of his ten years as a member of the Central Michigan University Board of Trustees, Mr. Smith brings to a close a decade of outstanding service to the university, his community, and the entire state of Michigan; and

Whereas, Mr. Smith has been a tireless advocate for the Central Michigan University and has played a leading role in one of the most significant periods in the school's history. During his tenure, the university has experienced historic growth and academic successes that have greatly increased the stature of the school. As chair of the board for two years and a member of every major board committee, Mr. Smith has helped lead the university through this incredibly successful time; and

Whereas, Mr. Smith's efforts on behalf of Central Michigan University have gone well beyond his duties as a trustee. With his wife, Judy, and their entire family, he has unselfishly donated his valuable time and efforts to better the school and its community. Mr. Smith's boundless dedication to his alma mater truly knows no limits. The students and staff of Central Michigan University, the Mt. Pleasant community, and the entire state of Michigan have directly benefited from his tireless efforts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body honor Mr. W. Sidney Smith upon the end of his service on the Central Michigan University Board of Trustees. May this resolution serve as a testimony of recognition of the high esteem in which he is held by the people of the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Mr. W. Sidney Smith as evidence of our appreciation and gratitude.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Patterson moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Raczkowski, Kooiman, Koetje, Ruth Johnson, Kowall, George, Woronchak, Newell, Julian, Gielegem, Bogardus, Lipsey, Vander Veen, Voorhees, Birkholz, Howell, Vander Roest, Spade, Richardville, DeRossett, Lockwood, Gosselin, Schauer, Jelinek, Minore, Jacobs, Woodward, LaSata, Hager, Shulman, DeVuyst, Cassis, Hansen, Sheltrown, Kolb, Lemmons, Faunce, Van Woerkom, Mead, Stewart, Ehardt, Scranton, Middaugh, Pappageorge, Caul, Meyer, Vear and Bishop offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 81.

A resolution to urge the Federal Communications Commission to approve the Michigan Public Service Commission's request for telecommunications number conservation techniques.

Whereas, Many of Michigan's area codes are quickly exhausting available phone numbers due to the lack of efficient number distribution and the lack of FCC approval for the Public Service Commission to institute 1,000 block number distribution and number pooling; and

Whereas, Currently numbers are distributed in blocks of 10,000 numbers, with some carriers utilizing a very small portion of allocated numbers. As a result, there are currently some 70 million phone numbers allocated for Michigan's 9 million residents, with many numbers remaining unused; and

Whereas, Unused numbers become "stranded" and unavailable for public distribution and contribute greatly to the fact that Michigan has seen the addition of more than five new area codes since 1994; and

Whereas, The creation of additional area codes and overlays is costly and confusing to state and local governments, businesses, and citizens; and

Whereas, The Public Service Commission was granted authority by the Legislature to exercise authority and implement area code relief on August 1, 2000; and

Whereas, The Michigan Public Service Commission has sought approval from the FCC to institute number conservation techniques, such as 1,000 block number distribution and number pooling. These changes would greatly alleviate the need for new area codes; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Federal Communications Commission to grant the Michigan Public Service Commission's request to institute number conservation techniques that can extend the life of current area codes and minimize the further addition of new area codes and overlays; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Federal Communications Commission, the Michigan Public Service Commission, and the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

Reps. Frank, Rivet, Minore, Bogardus, Zelenko, Lockwood, Williams, Rison, Raczkowski, Spade, Ruth Johnson, Lipsey, Schermesser, Adamini, DeRossett, Garza, Schauer, Waters, Jacobs, Woodward, Callahan, LaSata, Hansen, Neumann, McConico, Wojno, Kolb, Gielegem, Daniels, Lemmons, Faunce, Mead, Stewart, Ehardt, Dennis, Caul, Meyer, Voorhees, Jamnick, Hardman, Murphy, Bernero, Vear, Rocca, Kilpatrick, Hale, Clarke and Phillips offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 82.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to provide full funding for the sewer overflow control program.

Whereas, One of the most challenging environmental issues facing Michigan and the nation is the problem of separating storm sewers from wastewater systems. The contamination of surface waters from sewage overflows is a major threat to water quality. Remedying this situation will require the expenditure of billions of dollars as our communities upgrade their infrastructure; and

Whereas, Many wastewater facilities are out of compliance with federal mandates. In 1996, the EPA estimated that $140 billion would be needed over a 20-year period. By 1999, this estimate had increased to $200 billion, and other groups' projections are far higher. Clearly, delays in addressing this problem will be costly; and

Whereas, The 106th Congress enacted legislation authorizing a new sewer overflow control grant program to help local communities upgrade and improve their wastewater collection and treatment systems. This two-year grant program is to be administered by the Environmental Protection Agency. Under this legislation (P.L. 106-554), grants are to be awarded to help with both combined sewer overflow and sanitary sewer overflow programs. Priority consideration is extended to communities that have already invested locally in this effort and to financially distressed communities; and

Whereas, The benefits of solving these problems and meeting these serious infrastructure needs are considerable. This initiative is vital to the quality of our communities and our nation's future. It is essential that Congress realize this potential by fully funding this program; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to provide full funding for the sewer overflow control program; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Land Use and Environment.

Reps. Hale, Vander Roest, Spade, Lipsey, Schermesser, Frank, Adamini, DeRossett, Garza, Lockwood, Schauer, Waters, Zelenko, Minore, Rison, Newell, Jacobs, Woodward, LaSata, Hansen, Sheltroun, Neumann, McConico, Kolb, Gielegghem, Daniels, Lemmons, Van Woerkom, Mead, Ehardt, Scranton, Dennis, Meyer, Voorhees, Jamnick, Hardman, Murphy, Bernero, Kilpatrick, Clarke, Rivet and Phillips offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 83.

A resolution establishing the month of April as Michigan Minority Health Month.

Whereas, In 2000, the U.S. Surgeon General of the Public Health Service announced as a goal, the elimination by 2010 of health disparities experienced by racial and ethnic minorities in health access and outcome in six areas including infant mortality, cancer screening, cardiovascular disease, diabetes, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, and human immunodeficiency virus infection, and immunizations; and

Whereas, Despite notable progress in the overall health of the nation, there is a crisis of minority health, consisting of continuing disparities in the burden of illness and death experienced by African-Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans, Alaska Natives, Asians, and Pacific Islanders, compared to the United States population as a whole; and

Whereas, Minorities suffer more than 60,000 excess deaths annually compared to nonminorities. They are more likely than nonminorities to die from cancer, cardiovascular disease, stroke, chemical dependency, diabetes, infant mortality, violence, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, and more likely to suffer from oral health diseases; and

Whereas, Minority populations are not benefiting equitably from advances in medical research and technology. The minority population face substantial cultural, social, and economic barriers to obtaining access to and delivery of health care; and

Whereas, Minorities have made significant contributions to the state of Michigan, yet are under represented in the health care professions. The crisis in minority health results in losses of billions of dollars by the state of Michigan because of reduced productivity and increased health care expenditures; and

Whereas, The establishment of a Michigan Minority Health Month for the month of April would encourage all health organizations in the state of Michigan to host activities to promote healthfulness in minority communities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That it is the sense of the Michigan Legislature that there should be established a Michigan Minority Health Month. That the Governor should issue a proclamation encouraging all health organizations in the state of Michigan to host activities to promote healthfulness in minority communities and calling upon the people of the state of Michigan to observe such a month with appropriate programs and activities; and be it further

Resolved, That in conjunction with such a month, the Director of Community Health should make information available to the public on the health problems currently facing minority populations and on the careers and contributions of minority health professionals and present public service announcements on health promotion and disease prevention among minorities in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That this legislative body believes that there is a crisis in minority health, consisting of continuing disparities in the burden of illness and death experienced by minorities compared to the population of the state of Michigan as a whole and the population of nonminorities. Public awareness of the effects of the crisis in minority health should be increased. The minority representation in the health care professions should be increased, greater state appropriations should be made for activities directed toward improving the health of minorities in this state, particularly health research and education, and targeted health promotion and disease prevention in initiatives should be presented in a manner that is culturally sensitive to minority populations.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

Reps. DeRossett, DeVuyst, Allen, Plakas and Basham offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 84.

A resolution to salute Founders Week and Orange Risdon.

Whereas, During the week of April 22-28, 2001, the residents of the city of Saline will join with visitors and friends to celebrate Founders Week in honor of Orange Risdon (1786-1876), surveyor of the Chicago Road and founder of Saline. Orange Risdon married Sally Newland on March 16, 1816, and they became parents seven times; and

Whereas, It is known that Mr. Risdon founded the village of Saline. He received an approved land patent on April 5, 1825, signed by President John Quincy Adams, for 160 acres that includes Saline proper today. He built the first house in Saline proper in 1829. The house was built with twelve fireplaces in twelve rooms and served as an inn. It was the site of the first township election and first village meeting. It was also used as a hiding place for runaway slaves as a station on the "Underground Railroad"; and

Whereas, Saline got off to a great start through the efforts and leadership of Mr. Risdon. He donated land for schools and churches. He named Saline from the river of that name; and

Whereas, He was the first justice of the peace in Saline and served for twelve years. He was the first postmaster and served for ten years. He performed the first wedding in Saline. He was invited to the corner stone laying of the first state capitol building in Detroit in 1823 and the corner stone laying of the present capitol building in Lansing in 1838; and

Whereas, Orange Risdon was elected, as a democrat, to the Michigan House of Representatives in 1838 and was held in high esteem. The United States government employed him as a surveyor until 1856. He surveyed or resurveyed 75 townships throughout Michigan, drew the first map of the Michigan territory in 1825, and was asked to survey the Sauk Trail or Chicago Road; and

Whereas, Mr. Risdon, as a member of the Masonry, demonstrated knowledge of the moral lessons to earn the Master Mason's degree. The Masons bestowed the degree of the Royal Arch, one of 33, on Mr. Risdon in 1813. At ceremonies held in New York City in 1815, he received the order of the High Priesthood and Knight Templar Degree, the highest in the York Rite; and

Whereas, Orange Risdon possessed an unrelenting work ethic, an honest devotion to his profession of surveying, and a dedication to his family. He carried on throughout his life in a quiet unassuming manner; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body salute Founders Week and Orange Risdon; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Saline Historical Society as evidence of our esteem and admiration.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Patterson moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
