4 (3) A person injured by a motion picture recording violation 5 may recover damages described in subsection (1) only if a formal 6 incident report that contains factual allegations that the 7 defendant committed a motion picture recording violation is filed 8 with a local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the 9 location where the violation took place. However, recovery under 10 this section is not dependent on the outcome of a criminal 11 prosecution.

(4) A person injured by a motion picture recording violation may bring an action to enjoin a person from the unauthorized recording, receipt, or transmission of a recording or transmission of a motion picture or a part of a motion picture obtained or made by a motion picture recording violation or from committing a motion picture recording violation. A person may bring an action under this subsection regardless of whether the person has suffered or will suffer actual damages.

20 (5) An action under this section is in addition to any other21 criminal or civil penalties or remedies provided by law.

22 (6) As used in this section:

(a) "Motion picture recording violation" means a violation of section 465a of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.465a.

(b) "A person injured by a motion picture recordingviolation" includes, but is not limited to, the owner or lessee
