House Resolution No. 316.

A resolution recognizing April 8, 2008 as Child Abuse Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The members of the Michigan House of Representatives are dedicated to providing a safe and healthy environment to all children in Michigan; and

Whereas, The citizens of Michigan recognize that child abuse and neglect is a serious and growing problem affecting millions of our nation's children; and

Whereas, Research shows child maltreatment is associated with problems throughout adolescence and into adulthood, including increased risk of teen pregnancy, drug use, lower educational attainment, and the perpetuation of abusive behavior; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan, through its support of prevention and community activities, is making significant progress in preventing child abuse and neglect throughout our communities; and

Whereas, Community collaboration is necessary in order to provide services to families at risk for child abuse and neglect, and to ensure a safe and secure future for the children of our communities; and

Whereas, We are committed to providing all children the safest and healthiest of environments in the world; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body recognize April 8, 2008 as Child Abuse Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

House Resolution No. 317.

A resolution marking the 63rd anniversary of the end of the Holocaust, and declaring April 18, 2008, as Holocaust Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The horrors of the Holocaust should never be forgotten. This year marks the 63rd anniversary of the end of the Holocaust, which was ruthlessly and tragically carried out by Nazi Germany under the leadership of Adolf Hitler and his collaborators; and

Whereas, The Holocaust involved the genocide of millions of innocent Jewish men, women, and children and other minorities throughout Europe. In addition, there was an enormity of suffering inflicted on the many survivors through mistreatment, brutalization, violence, torture, slave labor, involuntary medical experimentation, death marches, and numerous other acts of cruelty that have come to be known as "crimes against humanity"; and

Whereas, In the past 63 years, the Holocaust has provided the people of the world with a critical lesson in the importance of compassion, caring, and kindness. The Holocaust also has served as a reminder of the dangers inherent in bigotry, racism, and intolerance in the world; and

Whereas, Recognition of the 63rd anniversary of the end of World War II and the liberation of the concentration camps is crucial. We encourage all Americans to commemorate the occasion through reflection, acts of compassionate caring, and learning about the terrible consequences and lessons of the Holocaust; and

Whereas, On April 18, 2008, we recognize the Holocaust Commemoration Ceremony, Legacies of Justice, in memory of the 63rd anniversary of the liberation of Nazi concentration camps and the subsequent prosecution under international law of the major Nazi war criminals at Nuremberg, Germany; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body mark the 63rd anniversary of the end of the Holocaust and declare April 18, 2008, as Holocaust Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

House Resolution No. 318.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to extend a freeze on active mortgage foreclosures in Michigan.

Whereas, Our nation, the state of Michigan in particular, is facing one of the most severe economic challenges in recent history. This is reflected in rising energy costs, falling home values, and increased mortgage foreclosures. Indeed, Michigan's automotive industry and other related businesses have seen unprecedented job losses and restructuring as they adjust to the new economic realities of the Twenty-First Century. Mortgage foreclosures and other signs of economic malaise are the natural result of these economic setbacks; and

Whereas, Home ownership is the vital key to a vibrant and ever-growing community. Social stability, strong family values, and individual financial growth are all fostered in neighborhoods and communities with higher rates of homeownership. Mortgage foreclosures, however, eat at the heart of this anchor of our society. Vacant homes foster crime and decay and ultimately lower everyone's home values. In an effort to address the rash of home foreclosures, the Congress of the United States has before it a number of initiatives to help struggling homeowners prevent foreclosure. These include bills such as the Foreclosure Prevention and Homeownership Protection Act (H.R. 3666 and S. 1386), which propose federal funding for state foreclosure prevention and mortgage restructuring programs; and

Whereas, In the interim, however, countless numbers of homeowners are facing the crisis of foreclosure now. Immediate help is needed before these hardworking homeowners lose one of their most valuable possessions—their family homes—while waiting for long-term preventative measures to be enacted in Washington; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we hereby memorialize the Congress of the United States to extend a freeze on active mortgage foreclosures in Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Banking and Financial Services.
