House Resolution No. 366.

A resolution recognizing May 5-9, 2008, as National Charter Schools Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Charter schools are locally established and founded in communities across the state, offering new educational opportunities to over 100,000 students and their families; and

Whereas, Michigan's 230 charter schools, and the dedicated staff and students who work therein, are bringing fresh ideas and perspectives to K-12 education; and

Whereas, Charter schools are giving all parents more choices in their children's education; and

Whereas, Charter public schools encourage competition and are accountable to the public through public universities, community colleges, and local and intermediate school districts that help establish and oversee these schools; and

Whereas, Michigan's charter experience has resulted in a nationally-recognized system of leadership, performance, and accountability that delivers effective results for the students and families it serves; and

Whereas, Charter schools are making great progress toward closing the achievement gap for urban, minority, and poor children across our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body recognize May 5-9, 2008, as National Charter Schools Week in the state of Michigan in honor of these schools and their past, present, and future achievements.
