SENATE BILL NO. 205

March 16, 2023, Introduced by Senators CAVANAGH, BAYER, IRWIN, MOSS, CHERRY, MCMORROW, SHINK, WOJNO, CHANG and KLINEFELT and referred to the Committee on Housing and Human Services.

A bill to amend 1972 PA 348, entitled
"An act to regulate relationships between landlords and tenants relative to rental agreements for rental units; to regulate the payment, repayment, use and investment of security deposits; to provide for commencement and termination inventories of rental units; to provide for termination arrangements relative to rental units; to provide for legal remedies; and to provide penalties," (MCL 554.601 to 554.616) by amending the title and by adding section 1c.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN ENACT:

TITLE
An act to regulate relationships between landlords and tenants relative to rental agreements for rental units; to guarantee full and equal access to, and full and equal use and enjoyment of, residential rental accommodations regardless of a tenant's or prospective tenant's source of income; to regulate the payment, repayment, use, and investment of security deposits; to provide for commencement and termination inventories of rental units; to provide for termination arrangements relative to rental units; to provide for legal remedies; and to provide penalties.

Sec. 1c. (1) A landlord shall not, based on the source of income of a prospective or current tenant, do any of the following:

(a) Deny or terminate a tenancy to the prospective or current tenant.

(b) Make any distinction, discrimination, or restriction against the prospective or current tenant in the price, terms, conditions, fees, or privileges relating to the rental, lease, or occupancy of a rental unit or in the furnishing of any facilities or services in connection with the rental, lease, or occupancy of a rental unit.

(c) Attempt to discourage the rental or lease of any rental unit to the prospective or current tenant.

(d) Assist, induce, incite, or coerce another person to commit an act or engage in a practice that violates this section.

(e) Coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of the person having exercised or enjoyed or having aided or encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of, any right granted or protected under this section.

(f) Represent to the prospective or current tenant that a rental unit is not available for inspection or rental when the rental unit in fact is available for inspection or rental.

(g) Otherwise make unavailable or deny a rental unit to the prospective or current tenant because of the prospective or current tenant's source of income.

(2) A landlord shall not publish, circulate, issue, or display, or cause to be published, circulated, issued, or displayed, any communication, notice, advertisement, or sign of any kind relating to the rental or lease of any rental unit that indicates a preference, limitation, or requirement based on any source of income.

(3) If a landlord requires that a prospective or current tenant have a certain threshold level of income, any source of income in the form of a rent voucher or subsidy must be subtracted from the total of the monthly rent before calculating if the income criteria have been met.

(4) A person who suffers a loss as a result of a violation of this section may bring an action to recover actual damages or up to 4.5 times the monthly rent of the rental unit or units at issue, whichever is greater, together with court costs and reasonable attorney fees.

Enacting section 1. This amendatory act does not take effect unless Senate Bill No. 206 of the 102nd Legislature is enacted into law.
