125.3202 Zoning ordinance; determination by local legislative body; amendments or supplements; notice of proposed rezoning.

Sec. 202. (1) The legislative body of a local government may provide by ordinance for the manner in which the regulations and boundaries of districts or zones shall be determined and enforced or amended, supplemented, or changed. Amendments or supplements to the zoning ordinance shall be made in the same manner as provided under this act for the enactment of the original ordinance.

(2) If an individual property or 10 or fewer adjacent properties are proposed for rezoning, the zoning commission shall give a notice of the proposed rezoning in the same manner as required under section 103.

(3) If 11 or more adjacent properties are proposed for rezoning, the zoning commission shall give a notice of the proposed rezoning in the same manner as required under section 103, except for the requirement of section 103(2) and except that no individual addresses of properties are required to be listed under section 103(3)(b).

(4) An amendment to a zoning ordinance by a city or village is subject to a protest petition under section 403.

(5) An amendment for the purpose of conforming a provision of the zoning ordinance to the decree of a court of competent jurisdiction as to any specific lands may be adopted by the legislative body and the notice of the adopted amendment published without referring the amendment to any other board or agency provided for under this act.
