257.72 "Traffic control signal" defined.

Sec. 72. "Traffic control signal" means any device whether manually, electrically or mechanically operated, by which traffic is alternately directed to stop and to proceed.