333.17744c Person administering opioid antagonist under certain conditions; immunity from criminal prosecution or sanction.

Sec. 17744c. A person that administers an opioid antagonist to an individual who he or she believes is suffering an opioid-related overdose and that acts in good faith and with reasonable care is immune from criminal prosecution or sanction under any professional licensing act for that act.

Popular name: Act 368