
Compiler's note: The repealed section pertained to consent required for building or constructing gasoline filling station and public automobile garage.