791.243 Applications for pardon; filing, information.

Sec. 43. All applications for pardons, reprieves and commutations shall be filed with the parole board upon forms provided therefor by the parole board, and shall contain such information, records and documents as the parole board may by rule require.

Popular name: Department of Corrections Act