(6) An apprentice electrician or specialty apprentice technician registration expires on August 31 of each year and is renewable within 30 days after that date upon payment of a renewal fee of $10.00 if paid after September 30, 2012 and a $15.00 renewal fee if paid on or before September 30, 2012. An applicant shall submit proof of a sponsoring employer for initial or renewal registration.

(7) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8), a license issued under this act expires on December 31 of each year and is renewable not more than 60 days after that date upon application and payment of the appropriate fee. After March 1 of each year or after March 1 of the renewal year in the case of electrical contractors, fire alarm contractors, and sign specialty contractors, a license not renewed is void and may be reinstated only upon application for reinstatement and payment of the appropriate license fee for the appropriate class.

(8) The license for an electrical contractor, fire alarm contractor, and sign specialty contractor expires December 31 of every third year. The license for an electrical contractor, fire alarm contractor, and sign specialty contractor is renewable not later than on March 1 every third year upon application and payment of $200.00 if paid after September 30, 2012 and $300.00 if paid on or before September 30, 2012 by electrical contractors and fire alarm contractors and application and payment of $120.00 if paid after September 30, 2012 and $200.00 if paid on or before September 30, 2012 by sign specialty contractors. (9) Beginning July 23, 2004, the department of energy, labor, and economic growth shall issue an initial or renewal license for electrical contractors, fire alarm contractors, and sign specialty contractors not later than 90 days after the applicant files a completed application. Receipt of the application is considered the date the application is received by any agency or department of the state of Michigan. If the application is considered incomplete by the department of energy, labor, and economic growth, the department of energy, labor, and economic growth shall notify the applicant in writing, or make the information electronically available, within 30 days after receipt of the incomplete application, describing the deficiency and requesting the additional information. The 90-day period is tolled upon notification by the department of energy, labor, and economic growth of a deficiency until the date the requested information is received by the department of energy, labor, and economic growth. The determination of the completeness of an application does not operate as an approval of the application for the license and does not confer eligibility of an applicant determined otherwise ineligible for issuance of a license.

(10) If the department of energy, labor, and economic growth fails to issue or deny a license within the time required by this section, the department of energy, labor, and economic growth shall return the license fee and shall reduce the license fee for the applicant's next renewal application, if any, by 15%. The failure to issue a license within the time required under this section does not allow the department of energy, labor, and economic growth to otherwise delay the processing of the application, and that application, upon completion, shall be placed in sequence with other completed applications received at that same time. The department of energy, labor, and economic growth shall not discriminate against an applicant in the processing of the application based upon the fact that the license fee was refunded or discounted under this subsection.

(11) Beginning October 1, 2005, the director of the department of energy, labor, and economic growth shall submit a report by December 1 of each year to the standing committees and appropriations subcommittees of the senate and house of representatives concerned with occupational issues. The director shall include all of the following information in the report concerning the preceding fiscal year:

(12) The board shall provide for an examination to be given to an applicant seeking licensure under this act for a specific class of license. The board and department of energy, labor, and economic growth, acting jointly, may develop an examination or contract for the use of an examination developed by another governmental subdivision or any other entity including, but not limited to, the national assessment institute, which the department of energy, labor, and economic growth and the board, acting jointly, review and determine is designed to test the qualifications and competency of applicants seeking licensure under this act.

(13) The examination for electrical journeymen and master electricians shall include, but not be limited to, questions designed to test an individual's knowledge of this act, any rules promulgated under this act, the Stille-DeRossett-Hale single state construction code act, and any code adopted pursuant to section 4 of that act and any code adopted pursuant to section 8a of that act as well as the theory relative to those codes. In the case of the examination for an electrical contractor's license, the examination shall include, but not be limited to, questions designed to test an individual's knowledge of this act, any rules promulgated under this act, the Stille-DeRossett-Hale single state construction code act, and the administration and enforcement procedures of any code adopted pursuant to section 8a of that act.

(14) The board shall provide for an examination to be given to an applicant seeking fire alarm specialty licensure under this act. The examinations for fire alarm specialty licensure shall include questions designed to test an individual's knowledge of this act, any rules promulgated under this act, and the Stille-DeRossett-Hale single state construction code act, as relating to fire alarm systems. The board and department of energy, labor, and economic growth, acting jointly, may require, as a condition for licensure, certification of the applicant in the field of fire alarm systems technology by the national institution for certification in engineering technology or equivalent as determined by the board.

(15) The board shall provide for an examination to be given to an applicant seeking sign specialty licensure under this act. The examinations for sign specialty licensure shall include, but not be limited to, questions designed to test an individual's knowledge of this act and any rules promulgated under this act relating to electric signs and applicable sections of the code.

(16) Examinations shall be offered at locations throughout the state as determined by the board. The department of energy, labor, and economic growth in consultation with the board may designate a person to give the examination at any location. Copies of examinations developed by a governmental subdivision shall be presented for board approval and shall remain the property of the governmental subdivision and shall be returned to that governmental subdivision without having been copied or reproduced in any manner.

(17) The department of energy, labor, and economic growth shall annually submit to the members of the legislature a comprehensive report detailing the expenditure of the additional money resulting from the 1989 amendatory act that increased the fees contained in this section.

(18) As used in this section, "completed application" means an application complete on its face and submitted with any applicable licensing fees as well as any other information, records, approval, security, or similar item required by law or rule from a local unit of government, a federal agency, or a private entity but not from another department or agency of the state of Michigan.
