Thank You for Your Service . . .

It is indeed a pleasure to serve veterans who gave so much of themselves to preserve the freedoms we enjoy today. Your sacrifices have given us the security of peace in our homeland and abroad, as well as preserved and protected our constitutional right of self-government, for which we are very grateful.

This booklet compiles material from federal, state, and local agencies for you, our veterans and your families, to:

• Provide information about benefits and services
• Provide links to direct sources – computer-based and professional – for answers to specific questions
• Assist in communicating more effectively with your elected representatives
• Educate state, nonprofit, and community providers about benefits and services available through other agencies or service providers

Eligibility for most Veterans Affairs (VA) benefits is based upon discharge from active military service under other than dishonorable conditions. Active service means full-time service as a member of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or as a commissioned officer of the Public Health Service, or the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. Current and former members of the Selected Reserve and National Guard may be eligible for benefits.

Any Michigan veteran, or dependent of a veteran, can request the assistance of a Veterans Service Officer or County Counselor. See page 44 for the listing of Veterans Service Organizations.

The Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency can be reached at 1-800-MICH-VET (1-800-642-4838) or visit the website at www.michigan.gov/mvaa. The Federal Veterans Affairs Benefits and Services number is 1-800-827-1000.

This booklet provides information about many of the programs and services available for you and your family. To obtain the reference benefits, please contact the included sources.

Thank you for your service.
The Post-9/11 GI Bill (Chapter 33) is an education benefit program for service members and veterans who served on active duty on or after September 11, 2001. Benefits are payable for training pursued on or after August 1, 2009. No payments can be made under this program for training pursued before that date.

To be eligible, the service member or veteran must serve at least 90 aggregate days on active duty after September 10, 2001, and remain on active duty or be honorably discharged.

Veterans may also be eligible if they were honorably discharged from active duty for a service-connected disability after serving 30 continuous days after September 10, 2001. Eligibility also extends to veterans who received a Purple Heart and were honorably discharged.

Generally, service members or veterans may receive up to 36 months of VA education benefits under the Post-9/11 GI Bill. Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits do not expire for service members released from active duty after January 1, 2013 per the Forever GI Bill enacted in 2017. For individuals who left service prior to January 1, 2013, there is a 15-year time limit for the use of Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits.

The Forever GI Bill also allows for the use of benefits to pay for work study activities and technical education schools; the restoration of education benefits lost after the ending of the Reserve Educational Assistance Program; an increase of educational assistance under the Survivors’ and Dependents’ Educational Assistance Program; and changes to monthly housing allowances.

Transferable benefits include money to pay for tuition, housing, books, supplies, and fees for national standardized tests and licensing and certifications. Spouses may use these benefits either while the service member is on active duty or after they have separated from service. Children may begin to use the benefits after the service member has completed at least 10 years of service.

www.va.gov/education/survivor-dependent-benefits/dependents-education-assistance

Dependents are not eligible for both the Fry Scholarship and DEA based on the same event. Unless a parent died prior to August 1, 2011, the child will be required to elect benefits from only one program.
Montgomery GI Bill Active Duty (MGIB-AD)

The Montgomery GI Bill Active Duty (MGIB-AD) provides educational and training benefits to honorably discharged veterans who served at least two years on active duty. Eligible veterans must have a high school diploma, GED, or 12 hours of college credit. Veterans should visit the website below to review additional eligibility requirements.

Veterans who first entered active duty after June 30, 1985 and served continuously for at least two to four years, veterans with remaining entitlement under the Vietnam Era GI Bill (Chapter 34), veterans who were separated under the Voluntary Separation Incentive program of Special Separation Benefit program, and former Veterans Educational Assistance Program participants who elected to convert to MGIB during the open window periods may be eligible for MGIB-AD benefits.

Certain National Guard service members may also qualify if they served on full-time active duty in the National Guard between July 1, 1985 and November 28, 1989, elected to have National Guard service count toward establishing eligibility for MGIB during the 9-month window ending on July 9, 1997, and paid $1,200.

Assistance may be used for college degree and certificate programs, technical or vocational courses, flight training, apprenticeships or on-the-job training, high-tech training, licensing and certification tests, entrepreneurship training, certain entrance examinations, and correspondence courses. Remedial, deficiency, and refresher courses may be approved under certain circumstances. Benefits are generally payable for 10 years following your release from honorable active service.

Veterans who qualify for MGIB-AD benefits will receive a monthly payment amount based on the veteran’s length of service, type of education or training program, eligibility factors, qualification for a college fund or kicker, and participation in the $600 MGIB “Buy-Up” program. MGIB payments are made directly to the veteran, irrespective of the tuition and fees charged by the school.

Federal Pell Grant Program
The Federal Pell Grant Program provides need-based grants to low-income students to promote access to postsecondary education. Applicants must be undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor’s degree. Each applicant must be a U.S. citizen or an eligible noncitizen and needs to have a high school diploma or a GED or demonstrate the ability to benefit from the program.

Pell Grant Eligibility
The U.S. Department of Education uses a standard formula established by Congress to evaluate the information a student supplies when applying for a Pell Grant. This formula produces an EFC (expected family contribution) number, which will determine if the student is eligible for the grant. The formula relies heavily on families’ federal tax returns.

Award Amount
The amount of the Federal Pell Grant depends on the student’s EFC, the cost of attendance, and other factors.

How and When to Apply
Students apply not only for Pell Grants, but for federal, state, and institutional financial aid programs by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FASFA). States and colleges also use FASFA information to award their own grants, scholarships, and loans. The FASFA form is available online and must be submitted before July 1. Each state also has its own deadline for each academic year. Michigan’s deadline for submission is May 1.

Eligibility

Educational and vocational counseling services are available to honorably discharged veterans who have a service-connected disability rating of at least 10% from VA. Veterans discharged from active duty before January 1, 2013 have a 12 year eligibility period. Veterans discharged after do not have a time limit on eligibility. Reemployment Rights

Under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, a person who left a civilian job to enter active duty in the armed forces may be entitled to return to the job after discharge or release from active duty.

To be reemployed, four requirements must be met:

• The person must give advance notice of military service to the employer
• The cumulative absence from the civilian job shall not exceed five years (with some exceptions)
• The person must submit a timely application for reemployment
• The person must not have been released with a dishonorable or other punitive discharge

The law calls for the returning veteran to be placed in the job as if the veteran had remained continuously employed. This means that the person may be entitled to benefits that are based on seniority, such as pensions, pay increases, and promotions. The law also prohibits discrimination in hiring, promotion, or other advantages of employment on the basis of military service.

Applications for reemployment should be given, verbally or in writing, to a person authorized to represent the company for hiring purposes. A record should be kept of the application. If there are problems gaining reemployment, the employee should contact the Department of Labor Veterans’ Employment and Training Service (VETS). Reemployment rights apply to private sector, as well as state, local, and federal government employees, including the Postal Service.

Apprenticeship Programs for Discharged Veterans

U.S. Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration

Michigan veterans can advance their employment prospects by learning a trade or skill through participation in VA and federal Department of Labor on-the-job training or apprenticeships. These programs typically involve entering into a training contract for a specific period of time with an employer or union. There are many on-the-job training and apprenticeship opportunities including software developer, financial analyst, electrical technician, and others.

www.va.gov/education/about-gi-bill-benefits/how-to-use-benefits/on-the-job-training-apprenticeships

Helmets to Hardhats

Helmets to Hardhats is a national, nonprofit program that helps transitioning military, guardsmen, and reservists find quality career opportunities in the construction industry. Most career opportunities offered by the program are connected to federally-approved apprenticeship training programs. Such training is provided by the trade organizations themselves at no cost to the veteran. No prior experience is needed. All participating trade organizations conduct three- to five-year, earn-while-you-learn apprenticeship training programs. Because these apprenticeship programs are regulated and approved at both federal and state levels, veterans can utilize their Montgomery G.I. Bill benefits to supplement their income while they are learning valuable skills and on-the-job training.

Basic Eligibility

Service members who served in the active military, naval, or air service and were separated under any condition other than dishonorable may qualify for VA health care benefits. Current and former members of the Reserves or National Guard who were called to active duty by a federal order and completed the full period for which they were called or ordered to active duty may be eligible for VA health care benefits as well.

Most veterans who enlisted after September 7, 1980, or entered active duty after October 16, 1981, must have served 24 continuous months or the full period for which they were called to active duty in order to be eligible. This minimum duty requirement may not apply to veterans who were discharged for a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty, for a hardship or “early out,” or those who served prior to September 7, 1980. Since there are a number of other exceptions to the minimum duty requirements, VA encourages all veterans to apply so that it may determine their enrollment eligibility.

www.va.gov/health-care/eligibility/
Costs Overview

Many veterans qualify for cost-free health care services based on a compensable service-connected condition or other qualifying factor. Other veterans may be required to pay copays for treatment of their nonservice-connection condition. While some veterans qualify for free health care based on certain eligibilities, most veterans will be required to complete a financial assessment at the time of enrollment to determine whether they are eligible for enrollment and for free health care services. If the veteran’s gross household income (including spouse and dependents, if applicable) exceeds the VA income limits, the veteran may be required to pay a copay for health care services.

www.va.gov/health-care/about-va-health-benefits/cost-of-care/

Services Requiring Copays

Veterans whose income exceeds the established VA income limits as well as those who choose not to complete the financial assessment must agree to pay required copays to become eligible for VA health care services.

Some veterans qualify for free health care and/or prescriptions based on special eligibility factors. In addition, some services are exempt from inpatient and outpatient copays.

Veteran Community Care

The Veteran Community Care program allows veterans to receive care from a community provider, and paid for by VA, when VA cannot provide the required care. Generally, veterans must receive approval from the VA prior to obtaining care from a community provider. Veterans will be charged a copayment for nonservice-connected care.

Veterans must meet one of six criteria to be eligible to receive community care:

- The veteran is in need of a service not available at a VA medical facility
- The veteran lives in a state or territory without a full-service VA medical facility
- The veteran has been grandfathered under the distance eligibility criteria of the former Veterans Choice Program
- The VA cannot provide care within certain designated access standards
- It is in the veterans best medical interest to receive community care
- A VA service line does not meet certain quality standards

Foreign Medical Program

Through the Foreign Medical Program, VA will pay for health care services, medications, and durable medical equipment for the service-connected conditions of eligible veterans who are permanently relocating to a country under the program’s jurisdiction.

Caregiver Programs and Services

VA has long advocated for caregivers as vital partners in providing care worthy of the sacrifices by America’s veterans and service members. VA medical centers house a designated caregiver support point of contact to coordinate caregiver activities and serve as a resource expert for veterans, their families, and VA providers. Several programs are available for veteran caregivers including:

- Caregiver support line 1-855-260-3274
- Caregiver support coordinator
- Peer support mentoring
- Caregiver education and training programs
- Family support services

Enhanced services are available for eligible caregivers and may include respite care, health care insurance, counseling, travel benefits, and financial stipend under the Program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers. Veterans may be eligible if they have a service-connected disability and are in need of personal care services for a minimum of six continuous months. This program can be applied for online or by filling out VA Form 10-10CG.

Same-day access to emergency mental health care is available at any VA health care facility nationwide. All VA medical centers offer emergency stabilization care for former service members who arrive at the facility with an emergent mental health need, no matter the individual’s discharge status. Individuals with other-than-honorable discharge may receive care for up to 90 days on an inpatient, residential, or outpatient basis. If it is determined that the mental health condition is a result of a service-related injury, the service member becomes eligible for ongoing coverage for that condition, even with an other-than-honorable discharge.

Mental Health Residential Rehabilitation Treatment Program

Mental Health Residential Rehabilitation Treatment Programs (MH RRTPs) provide residential rehabilitative and clinical care to eligible veterans with illnesses or rehabilitative care needs. Evidence-based treatment for mental illnesses, including PTSD and substance use disorders, is provided. An assessment is required to determine admission to MH RRTP facilities.

Dental Treatment

VA dental care benefits are provided based on benefit classes. Veterans may be eligible for dental services if one of the following applies:

Nursing Home Care
Veterans may obtain VA benefits to help pay for nursing home care. Nursing home settings include:
• Community Living Centers, owned and operated by VA
• State Veterans Homes, owned and operated by the states
• Community Nursing Homes, private organizations that contract with VA

Each program has admission and eligibility criteria specific to the program. Nursing home care is available to veterans who meet eligibility criteria involving service-connected status, level of disability, and income. VA-provided nursing home care for all other veterans is based on available resources.

Readjustment Counseling
Vet Centers are community-based counseling centers that provide professional counseling to eligible veterans, service members, and their families. Individual, group, marriage, and family counseling is offered in addition to referral and connection to other VA or community benefits and services. Counseling is offered to help veterans adjust to civilian life and process traumatic events experienced in the military.

Veterans are eligible for readjustment counseling if they served in any combat theater or area of hostility, provided mortuary services or direct emergent medical care while on active duty, experienced military sexual trauma, served as a member of an unmanned aerial vehicle crew providing direct support to operations in a combat zone, served on active duty in response to a national emergency or disaster, participated in a drug interdiction operation while in the Coast Guard, are a current member of the Reserve with a behavior health condition or physiological trauma related to military service, or are pursuing a course of education covered by assistance benefits. Veterans who served in the active military during the Vietnam-era are eligible if they requested services at a Vet Center prior to January 2, 2013. Family members are also eligible if their participation would support the growth and goals of the veteran or service member.

Bereavement Counseling is available at community-based Vet Centers to family members of service members who died while on active duty, by suicide, or while the veteran was receiving Vet Center services.

The Vet Center Call Center is an around-the-clock confidential call center where combat veterans and their families can call to talk about their military experience or any other issue they are facing in their readjustment to civilian life.

Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder

According to the National Center for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, the condition known as Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, or PTSD, is a mental health problem that can occur following the experience or witnessing of life-threatening events such as military combat, natural disasters, terrorist incidents, serious accidents, or violent personal assaults like rape. Most survivors of trauma return to normal given a little time. However, some people will have stress reactions that do not go away on their own, or may even get worse over time. These individuals may develop PTSD. People who suffer from PTSD often relive the experience through nightmares and flashbacks, have difficulty sleeping, and feel detached or estranged, and these symptoms can be severe enough and last long enough to significantly impair the person’s daily life.

PTSD is marked by clear biological changes as well as psychological symptoms. PTSD is complicated by the fact that it frequently occurs in conjunction with related disorders such as depression, substance abuse, problems of memory and cognition, and other problems of physical and mental health. The disorder is also associated with impairment of the person’s ability to function in social or family life, including occupational instability, marital problems and divorces, family discord, and difficulties in parenting.

VA has provided information about PTSD and treatment options through an interactive “PTSD Treatment Decision Aid” that can be accessed online. PTSD treatment programs are also provided across the U.S. and offer various types of therapy, medicine, and inpatient care programs.

Traumatic Brain Injury

Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) is an injury to the head that disrupts the normal functioning of the brain. It can be caused by direct or indirect involvement with an Improvised Explosive Device (IED), mortar, grenade, bullet, car accident, or fall.

It is sometimes called the invisible wound because the injury can be sustained without visible external wounds. The extent of damage from TBI might not be realized until after the service member is back home. Further, the symptoms may not be recognized as TBI and may even be confused with PTSD.

Veterans who use VA health care must undergo mandatory TBI screening if they served in combat operations. The Brain Injury Association of Michigan (BIAMI) works to improve the lives of those affected by brain injury through education, advocacy, research, and local support groups.

Coaching Into Care

Coaching Into Care provides a “coaching” service for family and friends of veterans who become aware of a veteran’s post-deployment difficulties and need assistance in finding help for the veteran. Coaching involves helping the caller figure out how to motivate the veteran to seek services. The service is free and provided by licensed clinical social workers and psychologists. The goal of the service is to help the veteran and family members find the appropriate services in their community. All calls are confidential, except for cases in which the lives of the caller, the veteran, or others may be in danger.

Military Exposures

Veterans may have been exposed to a range of chemical, physical, and environmental hazards during military service. VA offers health care benefits for veterans who may have been exposed to certain hazards, including Agent Orange related illnesses, Gulf War veterans’ illnesses, certain infectious diseases, conditions linked to toxic embedded fragments, TBI, injuries from cold or desert climates, rabies, radiation exposure related diseases, and other job related hazards.

www.publichealth.va.gov/exposures

Agent Orange, Radiation, Depleted Uranium, and Gulf War Exposures

Certain veterans are presumed to have been exposed to Agent Orange and other herbicides used in support of military operations during their time of service. Nineteen illnesses are presumed by VA to be service-connected for such veterans.

Veterans eligible for the agent orange registry health exam include veterans who served in Vietnam between January 9, 1962 and May 7, 1975, those who served on smaller river patrol and swift boats (Brown Water Veterans), and Blue Water Navy veterans; veterans who served in or near the Korean Demilitarized Zone between September 1, 1967 and August 31, 1971; and certain air force and army veterans who served in Thailand anytime between February 28, 1961 and May 7, 1975. Other eligible veterans include those who may have been exposed to herbicides during a military operation or as a result of testing, transporting, or spraying herbicides for military purposes.

For veterans who participated in “radiation risk activities” as defined in VA regulations while on active duty, active duty training, or inactive duty training, certain conditions are presumed to be service-connected, including leukemia (except for chronic lymphocytic leukemia); several cancers; bronchiolo-alveolar carcinoma; multiple myeloma; lymphomas (other than Hodgkin’s disease), and primary liver cancer (except if cirrhosis or hepatitis B is indicated).

To determine service connection for other conditions or exposures not eligible for presumptive service connection, VA considers factors such as the amount of radiation exposure, duration of exposure, elapsed time between exposure and onset of the disease, gender, family history, age at time of exposure, the extent to which a non-service-related exposure could contribute to disease, and the relative sensitivity of exposed tissue.
Gulf War veterans with chronic disabilities may receive disability compensation for chronic disabilities resulting from undiagnosed illnesses and/or medically unexplained chronic multi-symptom illnesses defined by a cluster of signs or symptoms. A disability is considered chronic if it has existed for at least six months.

The undiagnosed illnesses must have appeared either during active service in the Southwest Asia theater of operations or by December 31, 2026 and be at least 10% disabling.

Veterans Treatment Court

Michigan’s Veterans Treatment Courts address the need to better support Michigan veterans and assist them with their transition to civilian life. Veterans Treatment Courts use a hybrid integration of drug court and mental health court principles. The courts promote sobriety, recovery, and stability by collaborating with community and state-wide partners. To be eligible to participate in a Veterans Treatment Court, a veteran cannot be charged with a violent offense and must complete a confidential pre-admissions screening and evaluation assessment. Twenty-two district and six circuit courts have established veterans treatment courts as allowed by law.

Homeless Veterans

The Health Care for Homeless Veterans (HCHV) program aims to reduce homelessness amongst veterans by providing various services related to housing.

HCHV Contract Residential Services Programs allow VA medical centers to contract with community-based agencies to provide short-term residential care and treatment to eligible veterans who need an immediate housing placement as they seek permanent housing or additional care and services.

The VA also uses Stand Down events to reach homeless veterans to provide food, shelter, clothing, health screenings, counseling, and referrals. Stand Downs are typically one- to three-day events and are held in numerous cities each year.

Through the Supportive Services for Veteran Families program, VA aims to improve very low-income veteran families' housing stability by providing supportive services to families in, or transitioning to, permanent housing. VA funds community-based organizations to provide eligible veteran families with outreach, case management, and assistance in obtaining benefits. VA Disability Compensation

VA disability compensation is a monetary benefit paid to veterans who are disabled by injury or disease incurred or aggravated during active military service. The service of the veteran must have been terminated through separation or discharge under conditions that were other than dishonorable. Disability compensation varies with the degree of disability and the number of dependents, and is paid monthly.

Veterans with disability ratings between 30 and 100 percent are eligible for additional allowances for a spouse and for each minor child, child 18-23 years of age attending school, child disabled before 18 years of age, and dependent parent. The amount depends on the disability rating.

Pensions

Pension benefits are available to certain veterans based on need. To be eligible for pension benefits, a veteran must be 65 or older, or totally and permanently disabled, or a patient in a nursing home receiving skilled nursing care, or receiving social security disability benefits. Service requirements also apply. The veteran’s discharge must have been under conditions other than dishonorable and their disability must be for reasons other than their own willful misconduct. Payments are made to bring the veteran’s total income, including other retirement or Social Security income, to a level set by Congress. Unreimbursed medical expenses may reduce countable income for VA purposes.

Social Security Benefits

Social Security provides expedited processing of disability claims for disabled veterans. Monthly retirement, disability and survivor benefits under Social Security are payable to veterans and dependents if the veteran has earned enough work credits under the program. In addition, a veteran may qualify at age 65 for Medicare’s hospital insurance and medical insurance. Medicare protection is available to people who have received Social Security disability benefits for 24 months, and to insured people and their dependents who need dialysis or kidney transplants, or who have amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (more commonly known as Lou Gehrig’s disease).

Those 65 or older and those who are blind or otherwise disabled may be eligible for monthly Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments if they have little or no income or resources. States may supplement the federal payments to eligible persons and may disregard additional income.

Upon the veteran’s death, a one-time payment may be made to the veteran’s spouse or child.

Additional Monetary Benefits for Eligible Military Retirees

Combat-Related Special Compensation (CRSC) provides military retirees a monthly compensation that is intended to replace some or all of their retired pay that is withheld due to receipt of VA disability compensation.

Disabilities related to in-service exposure to hazards (e.g., Agent Orange, Gulf War illnesses, radiation exposure) for which VA awards disability compensation are considered combat-related for CRSC purposes.

Monetary Benefits

Disability Compensation for Presumptive Conditions – VA presumes that specific disabilities diagnosed in certain veterans were caused by their military service. If one of these conditions is diagnosed in a veteran in one of these groups, VA presumes that the circumstances of his/her service caused the condition, and disability compensation can be awarded. Certain time limits for diagnosis apply depending on the disease.

All veterans who develop Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS), also known as Lou Gehrig’s Disease, at any time after separation from service may be eligible for compensation for that disability.

Home Loan Guaranties – U.S. Federal Programs

Veterans Affairs loan guaranties may be made to eligible service members, veterans, reservists, National Guard, and unmarried surviving spouses for the purchase of homes, condominiums, and manufactured homes and for refinancing loans. VA home loans are usually handled by private lenders, with the VA “standing behind” the loan to guarantee a portion of it. Applicants must have a good credit rating, have an income sufficient to support mortgage payments, and agree to live in the property.

A VA loan guaranty can be used to:

• Buy or build a home
• Buy an approved residential condominium
• Repair, alter, or improve a veteran’s home
• Refinance an existing home loan
• Buy a manufactured home and/or a lot
• Install a solar heating or cooling system or other energy-efficient improvements

Service Eligibility

To be eligible, applicants must have been discharged under other than dishonorable conditions.

Veterans may be eligible for financing if they served during the following time periods:

WWII 09/16/40 to 07/25/47
Post WWII 07/26/47 to 06/26/50
Korean Conflict 06/27/50 to 01/31/55
Post Korean Conflict 02/01/55 to 08/04/64
Vietnam Era 08/05/64 to 05/07/75 or beginning 02/28/61 for veterans who served in the Republic of Vietnam
Post Vietnam Era 05/08/75 to 08/01/80
Persian Gulf Era 08/02/90 to the present

Reservists and National Guard members are eligible if they were activated after August 1, 1990, served 6 years and have 90 days of active service, and received an honorable discharge.

Persons on active duty are eligible after serving 90 continuous days. Eligibility must be reestablished upon discharge or release from active duty.

Unless exempt, a funding fee must be paid to VA at the time of loan closing. The fee may be paid in cash or included in the loan. Closing costs such as VA appraisal, credit report, loan processing fee, title search, title insurance, recording fees, transfer taxes, survey charges, or hazard insurance may not be included in the loan.
VA Assistance to Veterans in Default

VA urges all veterans who are encountering problems making their mortgage payments to speak with their servicers as soon as possible to explore options to avoid foreclosure. Contrary to popular opinion, servicers do not want to foreclose because foreclosure costs a lot of money. Depending on a veteran’s specific situation, servicers may offer any of the following options to avoid foreclosure:

- Repayment Plan
- Special Forbearance
- Loan Modification
- Short Sale
- Deed-in-Lieu of Foreclosure
- Additional time to arrange a private sale

If the loan servicer is unable to help, the VA has loan technicians in eight Regional Loan Centers and a special servicing center who take an active role exploring all options to avoid foreclosure. Veterans with VA-guaranteed home loans can call 1-877-827-3702 to reach the nearest VA office where loan specialists are prepared to discuss potential ways to help save the loan. Veterans with non-VA-guaranteed loans may also call this number. However, VA does not have the legal authority to intervene on a non-VA-guaranteed borrower’s behalf.

Veterans may be able to refinance a non-VA-guaranteed loan with a VA-guaranteed loan which may be helpful in situations where the veteran is at risk of defaulting. Finally, VA warns homeowners behind in their payments to be careful about accepting help from strangers. Contact your mortgage lender or the Loan Guaranty Division for assistance.

Specially Adapted Homes

VA has two grants available for veterans with certain service-connected disabilities to assist in either building a new specially adapted home, adapting a home they already own, or in purchasing an existing home to modify and remodel to meet their disability requirements. Eligible veterans may receive a grant up to three times the sum total not to exceed the maximum dollar amount. The maximum dollar amount for the Specially Adapted Housing (SAH) grant is $109,986 for fiscal year 2023. The maximum dollar amount for the Special Home Adaptation (SHA) grant is $22,036 for fiscal year 2023. Eligible veterans should apply early.

Tax Benefits

The Home Heating Credit is designed to assist low-income families and seniors in paying their home heating costs. Homesteads can include permanent homes, rented apartments, and mobile homes. Qualified disabled veterans or their spouses may be eligible for an increased credit. Applications for the Home Heating Credit are accepted from mid to late January through September 30 of each year.

The Michigan Homestead Property Tax Credit is available if the homestead is located in Michigan, the owner was a Michigan resident for at least six months during the tax year, and the owner pays property taxes or rents a house or apartment in the state. Not all taxpayers are eligible for this tax credit. Some veterans are eligible for an increased credit (see MI-1040CR-2). Homestead Property Tax Credit forms must be filed by the time state income tax forms are due each April. Tax forms MI-1040CR-2 or MI-1040CR can be found online.

https://www.michigan.gov/taxes/property/ind-exempt-defer/homestead-property-tax-credit-information

The Disabled Veteran Property Tax Exemption allows certain honorably discharged, disabled veterans (or their surviving unremarried spouses) to apply for an exemption for their homestead from property taxation. To qualify, a veteran must meet one of these three qualification categories:

- The disabled veteran must have been determined by the United States VA to be permanently and totally disabled as a result of military service and entitled to veterans' benefits at the 100% rate.

- The disabled veteran must have received a certificate from the United States VA, or its successors, certifying that he or she is receiving or has received pecuniary assistance due to disability for specially adapted housing.

- The disabled veteran must have been rated by the United States VA as unemployable.

A qualified veteran must annually submit an affidavit and a certificate from the VA confirming the monetary assistance for specially adapted housing. Contact your township supervisor or other assessing officer for further information and deadlines.

Contact the Michigan Department of Treasury for further information on the Homestead Property Tax Credit.
Veterans’ Group Life Insurance (VGLI)

Active duty members and reservists of uniformed services are automatically enrolled for up to $500,000 under the Service Members’ Group Life Insurance (SGLI). Service members pay a monthly premium that is taken out of their base pay. The current basic SGLI premium rate is 6 cents per $1,000 of insurance coverage, and includes an additional $1 per month for traumatic injury protection coverage.

At the time of separation from service, SGLI can be converted to either Veterans’ Group Life Insurance (VGLI) or a commercial plan through participating companies. You must apply to convert SGLI to VGLI within one year and 120 days from discharge. If you submit your application within 240 days after discharge you do not need to submit evidence of good health. Those who apply after the no-health period are required to answer questions about their health.

Under VGLI, veterans may be eligible to receive between $10,000 and $500,000 in term life insurance benefits, depending upon the amount of coverage the veteran had when they left the military. Rates are based upon the veteran’s age and amount of coverage.

www.va.gov/life-insurance/options-eligibility/vgli

Service members who are totally disabled at the time of separation are eligible for free SGLI Disability Extension of up to two years. Individuals covered under SGLI Disability Extension are automatically converted to VGLI subject to payment of premiums. They must apply to the Office of Service Members’ Group Life Insurance (OSGLI) for the SGLI Disability Extension.

www.va.gov/life-insurance/options-eligibility/totally-disabled-or-terminally-ill

Spousal and dependent coverage cannot at present be carried over into the Veterans’ Group Life Insurance program; however, spouses have the option of converting their coverage to a private life insurance policy with a participating company within 120 days of the service member leaving active duty or if the service member drops the primary SGLI coverage.

Veterans Affairs Life Insurance

Veterans Affairs Life Insurance provides up to $40,000 in whole life insurance coverage to veterans who applied for VA disability compensation before turning 81 years old, received a service-connected disability rating after turning 81, and applied for VALife within two years of getting a disability rating, even if the rating is 0%. Premium amounts depend upon age and coverage. Benefits, including cash value, will begin two years after a veteran applies and pays the required premiums.

Veterans’ Mortgage Life Insurance (VMLI)

VMLI is mortgage protection insurance that helps pay off a mortgage in the event of a severely disabled veteran’s death. The maximum amount of mortgage life insurance available to severely disabled veterans granted a specially adapted housing grant is $200,000. Protection is automatic when the veteran submits required information, assuming he/she does not decline coverage. Coverage terminates when the mortgage is paid off. If a mortgage is disposed of, VMLI may be obtained on the mortgage of another home. Payment is to the current mortgage lender.

Burial Benefits

Headstones and Markers

Veterans and retired Reservists and National Guard service members are eligible for an inscribed headstone or marker for their unmarked grave at any cemetery. VA will deliver a headstone or marker at no cost, anywhere in the world. For eligible veterans or service members who died on or after November 1, 1990 and are buried in a private cemetery, VA may furnish a government headstone or marker (for marked or unmarked graves). A medallion to affix to an already existing privately-purchased headstone or marker for those who served on or after April 6, 1917 can be requested as well.

Spouses and dependent children are eligible for a government headstone or marker only if they are buried in a national or state veterans cemetery.

Before ordering, check with the cemetery to ensure that the government-furnished headstone or marker will be accepted. All installation fees at private cemeteries are the responsibility of the applicant.

Families of veterans buried in national cemeteries may donate the burial flags of their loved ones to be flown on patriotic holidays.

Reimbursement of Burial Expenses

VA burial allowances are flat-rate monetary benefits paid for an eligible veteran’s burial and funeral costs. Eligible surviving spouses of record are paid automatically upon notification of a veteran’s death. With some exceptions, the burial allowance for a non-service-connected death is $300, and $2,000 for a death connected to military service. Individuals are eligible for this benefit if they have not been reimbursed by another program or entity after paying for a veteran’s burial or funeral, and the veteran was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

Financial Emergencies and Veterans Resources

Programs – State of Michigan

Michigan Veterans Trust Fund Emergency Grant Program

Financial assistance may be available to certain Michigan veterans serving at least 180 days of active duty who were discharged under honorable conditions. The program assists with an unforeseen situation that causes a temporary or short-term financial emergency or hardship that a grant will resolve. Examples of such needs include delay in unemployment benefits or other income or unexpected hospitalizations that cause reductions in income to meet household needs. The grants may assist with housing, utilities, car payments, or insurance or medical assistive devices. Coordination is made with other agencies that may also assist with these types of needs.

State of Michigan – Department of Health and Human Services

The Department of Health and Human Services provides cash assistance to families with children and pregnant women to help them pay for living expenses such as rent, heat, utilities, clothing, food, and personal care items. Assistance in finding a job or developing needed job skills, help with transportation, child care, and other needs related to employment and training may also be provided.

Soldiers Relief Commission

In some counties, emergency relief grants are available to Michigan veterans who do not meet Michigan Veterans Trust Fund criteria. Funds are limited, so the commission makes an effort to refer veterans who are eligible to other sources of financial assistance.

Issues with Claim Assistance

How to file a complaint
If a veteran thinks a person or organization assisting with a VA benefit claim has done something illegal or unethical, a complaint should be filed with the Office of General Counsel in the VA’s office or the Federal Trade Commission. The Office of General Counsel is authorized to investigate complaints and remove an individual’s VA accreditation. A complaint should include a detailed summary of allegations of misconduct by the individual or organization, a completed and signed VA Form 3288 and additional information pertinent to the complaint.

Veteran Holidays

Veterans Day

Veterans Day is an opportunity to publicly commemorate the contributions of living veterans. Armistice Day officially received its name in America in 1926 through a congressional resolution. It became a national holiday 12 years later by similar congressional action.

If World War I had indeed been “the war to end all wars,” November 11 might still be called Armistice Day. Realizing that peace was equally preserved by veterans of World War II and Korea, Congress decided to make the day an occasion to honor all those who have served America. In 1954, President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed a bill proclaiming November 11 as Veterans Day. (Historically, the first Veterans Day parade was held in 1953 in Emporia, Kansas.)

A law passed in 1968 changed the national commemoration of Veterans Day to the fourth Monday in October. It soon became apparent, however, that November 11 was a date of historic significance to many Americans. Therefore, in 1978 Congress returned the observance to its traditional date.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day was officially proclaimed on May 5, 1868 by General John Logan, national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, and was first observed on May 30, 1868, when flowers were placed on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers at Arlington National Cemetery. The first state to officially recognize the holiday was New York in 1873.

By 1890 it was recognized by all of the northern states. The South continued to honor their dead on separate days until after World War I (when the holiday changed from honoring just those who died fighting in the Civil War to honoring Americans who died fighting in any war). It is now celebrated as a federal holiday on the last Monday in May (passed by Congress with the National Holiday Act of 1971 (P.L. 90-363) to ensure a three-day weekend for Federal holidays).

Flag Etiquette

Federal law stipulates many aspects of flag etiquette. The section of law dealing with American flag etiquette is generally referred to as the Federal Flag Code. Some general guidelines from the Federal Flag Code answer many of the most common questions.

Flag Displayed Outdoors

Over the Middle of the Street

The flag should be suspended vertically with the union or blue field to the north on an east and west street or to the east on a north and south street.
Flown at Half-Staff
The flag should be first hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to the half-staff position. The flag should again be raised to the peak before it is lowered for the day. “Half-staff” means the flag has been lowered to one-half the distance between the top and bottom of the staff.

Flown on the Same Halyard with Non-National Flags
The American flag should always be at the peak. When flags are flown from adjacent staffs, the flag of the United States should be hoisted first and lowered last. No flag or pennant may be placed above or to the right of the flag of the United States.

Suspended Over a Sidewalk
The flag may be suspended from a rope extending from a house to a pole at the edge of the sidewalk. The flag should be hoisted out, union first, from the building.

From a Staff Projecting Horizontally or at an Angle
The flag may be projected from a window sill, balcony, or front of a building, with the union of the flag placed at the peak of the staff unless the flag is at half-staff.

In a Parade with Other Flags
The flag, when carried in a procession with another flag, or flags, should be either on the marching right (that is, the flag’s own right), or, if there is a line of other flags, in front of the center of that line.
Crepe streamers may be affixed to spear heads or flagstaffs in a parade only by order of the President of the United States.

With Non-National Flags
The flag of the United States should be at the center and at the highest point of the group when a number of flags of states or localities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs.

With Other National Flags
When flags of two or more nations are displayed, they are to be flown from separate staffs of the same height. The flags should be of approximately equal size. International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of another nation in time of peace.

With Another Flag Against a Wall from Crossed Staffs
The American flag should be on the right (the flag’s own right which is the viewer’s left) and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.
Flag Displayed Indoors

From a Staff in a Church or Public Auditorium on a Podium

The flag of the United States should hold the position of superior prominence, in advance of the audience, and in the position of honor at the clergyman’s or speaker’s right as he/she faces the audience. Any other flag so displayed should be placed on the left of the clergyman or speaker (to the right of the audience).

From a Staff in a Church or Public Auditorium off the Podium

Custom – not the Flag Code – holds that the flag of the United States should hold the position of superior prominence, as part of the audience, in the position of honor at the audience’s right.

Used to Cover a Casket

The American flag should be so placed on a casket that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder of the deceased. The flag should not be lowered into the grave or allowed to touch the ground.

Other than Being Flown from a Staff

The flag should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the flag’s own right (that is, to the observer’s left). When displayed in a window, it should be displayed in the same way (that is, with the union to the left of the observer in the street). When festoons, rosettes, or drappings are desired, bunting of blue, white, and red should be used, but never the flag itself.

Read a more comprehensive set of Flag Code etiquette rules for display of the American flag.

P.L. 110-181 amended section 9, title 4, USC, to allow veterans to render the hand salute to the United States flag. The section reads: “During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag or when the flag is passing in a parade or in review, all persons present in uniform should render the military salute. Members of the Armed Forces and veterans who are present but not in uniform may render the military salute. All other persons present should face the flag and stand at attention with their right hand over the heart, or if applicable, remove their headdress with their right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart. Citizens of other countries present should stand at attention. All such conduct toward the flag in a moving column should be rendered at the moment the flag passes.”

State Policy for Flying American Flags at Half-Staff

State policy for displaying the United States flag at half-staff as a mark of respect for the memory of military personnel who are killed in the line of duty is found in Executive Order 2013-10.

As recognized under Proclamation 2003-4, the flag of the United States shall be displayed at half-staff throughout the State of Michigan on a day designated by the Governor when a member of the Michigan National Guard or a Michigan resident servicing as a member of the United States Armed Forces is killed in the line of duty.

When an order providing for the flag to be displayed at half-staff on a statewide basis is issued, Michigan residents, businesses, schools, local governments, and other organizations also are urged to display the flag at half-staff. Flag honor news can be found online.

Flag Disposal
The United States Flag Code provides:

“The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning.”

Many veterans service organizations conduct ceremonies for the destruction of unserviceable flags by burning. Such ceremonies may be done on June 14, Flag Day, to mark the dignity and solemnity of the occasion. Some local governments may also conduct these ceremonies.

In practice, for individuals who wish to destroy a flag in poor condition, this should be done discreetly so the act of destruction is not perceived as a protest or desecration.
