The question being on concurring in the House substitute to the Senate substitute,
Senator Gilbert offered the following substitute to the House substitute:
Substitute (S-8).
The question being on the adoption of the substitute,
Senator Gilbert offered the following amendments to the substitute:
1. Amend page 25, line 8, after “THE” by striking out “2009” and inserting “2010”.
2. Amend page 25, line 9, after “AFTER” by striking out “2009” and inserting “2010”.
The amendments to the substitute were adopted.
The substitute, as amended, was adopted.

Protest

Senator Brater, under her constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against the adoption of the Senate substitute to the House substitute to the Senate substitute to House Bill No. 5408 and moved that the statement she made during the discussion of the Senate substitute be printed as her reasons for voting “no.”
The motion prevailed.
Senator Brater’s statement is as follows:
It is 4:45 a.m. Saturday morning; the public is asleep. About a month ago, we were in this chamber at the same time passing what was supposed to be a correction to an ongoing budget problem. Now we are back here doing the same thing again in the middle of the night. Those of us on the Democratic side came in here a couple of minutes ago, were told what was negotiated, and now we’re being asked to vote.
I do not want to go home and take those phone calls again from my constituents that say, “Why did you do this in the darkness of night? Why didn’t you have deliberations and let the public have their input?” I just protest this procedure, and for that reason, I can’t support it.
The question being on concurring in the House substitute to the Senate substitute, as substituted, the substitute, as substituted, was concurred in, a majority of the members serving voting therefor, as follows:

Not Voting—0

In The Chair: President

Senator Cropsey moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Gilbert offered to amend the title to read as follows:

A bill to amend 2007 PA 36, entitled “An act to provide for the imposition, levy, computation, collection, assessment, reporting, payment, and enforcement of taxes on certain commercial, business, and financial activities; to prescribe the powers and duties of public officers and state departments; to provide for the inspection of certain taxpayer records; to provide for interest and penalties; to provide exemptions, credits, and refunds; to provide for the disposition of funds; to provide for the interrelation of this act with other acts; and to make appropriations,” by amending the title and sections 105, 111, 113, 201, 239, 265, 403, 405, 409, 413, 445, 447, 515, and 601 (MCL 208.1105, 208.1111, 208.1113, 208.1201, 208.1239, 208.1265, 208.1403, 208.1405, 208.1409, 208.1413, 208.1445, 208.1447, 208.1515, and 208.1601), section 201 as amended by 2007 PA 90, and by adding chapter 2C and section 451; and to repeal acts and parts of acts.

The amendment to the title was adopted.

The Senate agreed to the title as amended.

Protests

Senators Brater and Cassis, under their constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against concurring in the House substitute to the Senate substitute, as substituted, to House Bill No. 5408.

Senator Brater moved that the statement she made during the discussion of the Senate substitute be printed as her reasons for voting “no.”

The motion prevailed.
Senator Brater’s statement is as follows:

It is 4:45 a.m. Saturday morning; the public is asleep. About a month ago, we were in this chamber at the same time passing what was supposed to be a correction to an ongoing budget problem. Now we are back here doing the same thing again in the middle of the night. Those of us on the Democratic side came in here a couple of minutes ago, were told what was negotiated, and now we’re being asked to vote.

I do not want to go home and take those phone calls again from my constituents that say, “Why did you do this in the darkness of night? Why didn’t you have deliberations and let the public have their input?” I just protest this procedure, and for that reason, I can’t support it.

Senator Cassis’ statement is as follows:

I voted “no” on the fiscal year ’08 budgets above 2.1 percent projected rate of inflation, and “no” on growth of overall general fund increase in spending of 8.2 percent. I voted “no” against the service tax. The surcharge represents a 22 percent tax increase on Michigan’s smaller and medium-sized businesses, and shifts a larger proportion of tax burden to them.

I authored the repeal of the service tax, Senate Bill No. 838. On November 20, I voted for a 14 percent MBT surcharge tie-barred to the repeal of the service tax, Senate Bill No. 838, and a three-year hard date sunset.

This morning, December 1, I voted against a 22 percent MBT surcharge, an almost 8 percent increase, that will be in place for ten years, the biggest overall tax increase in a generation. No meaningful reforms, no budget reductions occurred as a result of House Bill No. 5408. In my opinion, House Bill No. 5408 says, “Yes to some pork, yes to more spending, $119 million left in the BSF, and somewhere around $150 million lapsed funds.”

The original MBT will be more than just revenue-neutral and now compounds the MBT with a 22 percent surcharge. How does this advance Michigan’s competitiveness with other states that have no surcharge? While the service tax represents poison that would kill businesses, the 22 percent surcharge just leaves them maimed. The service tax, brought to us, as was said, in the wee hours of the morning, has now been morphed into the emperor’s new clothing in the garb of a “shift-and-shaft” surcharge tax.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of

Motions and Communications

Senator Cropsey moved that when the Senate adjourns today, it stand adjourned until Tuesday, December 4, at 10:00 a.m.

The motion prevailed.
