Rev. Richard Dake, Pastor of Clarkston United Methodist Church in Clarkston, offered the following invocation:

“Gracious, Loving and Eternal God, many of us have children who are growing with excitement for Christmas wishes and dreams to be fulfilled. Our dreams for them, and all children, include gifts of enough food to eat, safe schools, healthy families and equal opportunity. I pray You will guide all in this room to do the work of securing the welfare of all the children of this state. Like a loving parent, this will require legislators who are willing to put their needs secondary to those they serve. Protect their hearts and minds from partisanship, cynicism or misguided priorities that would squelch the dreams or potential of even one child.

Lord, You have blessed each member of this House with talent and passion. Now I ask You to also give to us all the gifts of humility to listen to each other and the courage to do what is right over the expedient. Help us to see that the issues of our State are never larger than the collective ability You have given these who serve.

Michiganders look to its leaders to protect jobs, guarantee rights, keep our communities safe, and preserve the resources of this great Peninsula. We need adequate health care, protection for the vulnerable and necessary resources for teachers and first responders. We look to leaders unafraid to address difficult issues and fix what is broken in our land. That is a lot to ask. So we turn to You Lord and ask for what seems impossible. We dare to do so because with You all things are possible. Lead us to not settle for the acceptable, but remain diligent until Your possible is the end result of our efforts.

Bless our elected leaders and the work they will do today. We have placed our confidence in them and we place our trust in You. For the sake of all the people of this Great Lake State, I offer this prayer in the name of Christ. Amen.”

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Lauwers moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Noble:

“Thank you Mr. Speaker. This is rather interesting for me to stand here before you. Number one. I’m not used to standing behind a pulpit for any given amount of time, I have to walk around. The second thing is I’m used to speaking between 30 and 45 minutes on a regular basis. I promise you I won’t do this today, but if you would like to come I will be preaching every Sunday morning 11 o’clock at Four Winds church in Northville. Feel free to stop on by, we will accommodate you.

I am blown away by the opportunity we’ve had here these last two years. It’s been a blast to work with you, to watch you and to be around you has been a highlight of my life and I know that sounds very political. But the fact of the matter is I have just been amazed. When I talk to you and hear your accomplishments and hear the things that you’ve done, especially those of you who are so much younger than I am. I stand just in awe of your abilities and your accomplishments. I am truly blessed to be able to stand here with you and to be able to serve these last two years.

In his book Purpose Driven Life pastor Rick Warren wrote these words in the first line of the first chapter, he said it’s not about you, and Representative Theis along the same lines, you were saying he goes on to explain that our personal satisfaction isn’t just our satisfaction is not just about us. It’s about what we do for others and how we encourage others and how we support one another. And when I came to this house; my desire was to encourage you, my desire was to bring some civility to what could be a very toxic and very adverse of environment. I hope that I was able to do that in some small fashion, to listen to you and to respect you, whether we agreed or not. I also recognize that when I came to this floor it was temporary. Whether I was going to serve here two years, four years or six years. I knew it was just a finite amount of time that I was going to be on this floor and every day that I walked in here, this is no lie, every day I walked in here I would look around and go ‘I get to be here one more day!’. I would be there in my chair when we had those little lulls in between in between debates and I would look up and I would just see this wonderful place in which we get to call our office and I was just thrilled. I would tell folks, it’s just so cool to be here, day in and day out. I will indeed miss this opportunity because it was indeed something that I knew was temporary. It ended a little quicker than I had hoped, but I am thankful for the time that we had.

I have some thank yous that I’d like to share. I’d like to thank Senator Patrick Colbeck and his wife Angie. They were the ones that initially approached me about running for this office and were very instrumental along with Sharon and Marco Lollio, Matt Dame, Estelle and Mike Oliansky, Arné, Rose, Dan and a host of others that put forth all kinds of effort to see us get elected the first time.

I would like to thank the people of the 20th District, Northville, Plymouth and Canton, I had a great time representing you and I thank you for giving me that opportunity. Please know that I will continue to work for our community even though I will not be here on this floor. I echo the sentiments of all of my colleagues who thanked the staff and thanked the sergeants. Chief Dickson and my sister Alice back there in the back. Oh, what a blessing, what a joy to see your smiling faces and know that you were doing your job and doing it with expertise. I'd like to thank Speaker Leonard, you have been a man of integrity, honesty and I respect to you greatly. It's been an honor to serve with you. To Speaker-elect Chatfield up there, you've got a big job ahead of you. You've got some big shoes to fill. But you've done a great job as a Speaker Pro Tem and I think you're going to do a wonderful job as the speaker, but I do leave this with you. Of course, being a pastor, I've got to throw a little bit of scripture in every once in a while. So I want to share this with you as sort of my challenge to you, Micah 6:8 says 'he has shown you oh man, what is good. What does the Lord require of you but to act justly to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.' You keep that first and foremost in your service, you will serve well in this chamber.

I would also like to point out some friends that I have across the aisle that have been a blessing to me. I really came here with all intentions of getting to know everyone, but some of you would not let me into your life. That's okay. I at least tried, but the fact of the matter is a couple guys really blessed me. Jim Ellison I want to thank you, even though we disagreed on so many policies. I liked you from the minute I met you and we've been good friends. These last two years and Blessings to you and your wife.

Abdullah Hammoud, I'd like to also thank you so much for actually accepting an invitation of mine to go to a firing range. I actually took him with me, he and his fiancé, and we went down to the firing line and I showed him what responsible gun ownership was all about and we put a lot of ammo down range and had a great time and he learned that there were some things that he really didn't know. But he was willing to learn and I've got to give him credit for that. And if at any time he gives me any problem, just remember, I have pictures of that event right here on my phone.

My only regret with my Democratic colleagues is that I just never met Representative Scott. I hope that I had. Do any of you know her over there? Just please send out my best wishes. That's all I can say. Anyway, couple of folks from my caucus Laura Cox you are my rock star you have been a mentor to me and you had a super hard job and yet you handled it with grace and courage and I appreciate you and all the insight you've given me through these two years. Lana Theis, you are indeed a Proverbs 31 woman and I praise God for you and all that you have done to encourage me during these times.

My committee chairs, Tim Kelly in education reform. Great job. You are my hero. When it comes to that committee you put up with a lot of garbage and sifted through a quite well. I'm very impressed by how you handle committee

Daire Rendon, children seniors, thank you for letting me be your vice chair. You were a great influence on how we handle things and I just really appreciate your sweet spirit, it was awesome.

Triston Cole, Transportation and Infrastructure. You handle a committee like a cowboy handles a horse, man you did great and I really was impressed by how you just made it happen. And I just really am grateful for you.

And finally, Hank Vaupel, one of the three doctors that surrounds me. Two medical or physical doctors and a veterinarian. I knew I was covered regardless of what happened to me there. If I had a heart attack or something like that, I knew one of the three of them would be able to bring me back. But you did a great job as well in education reform. I really appreciate all you did.

To my conservative mentors, Representative Shane Hernandez, Steve Johnson, John Riley and Gary Glen you guys were huge in helping me with some of these bills and understanding some of the points that I may not have seen right up front.

To my seatmates, Holly Hughes and Ned Canfield, it's one of the cases where there's a thorn between two roses because they were indeed a blessing to me. I thank you for your insight, your guidance and your wisdom and thanks for being patient because I know I drove you nuts some days.

To my wonderful staff, Chelsea Alcock, who Representative Leutheuser stole out from under me, but I still love you, brother. But anyway, Chelsea did a great job.

Nick Leto who took her spot and then had to go and ended up and finding another spot right after I lost my election, but he's doing great and he's already been picked up by another office.

Tim Holland, my legislative director who was huge in keeping me informed and understanding some of the Issues. He was a big help. And he too is going on to another office.

Also we have some interns, Emily Binienda and Michael Robertson who helped us during the session trying to get letters out. They were wonderful in the things they did.

The girl that I just want to mention is Alyssa Van Hyfte, she was willing to work very hard and help us to deal with issues and other things in district. I just want to give a shout out to her as well.

Finally, and most importantly, I want to give thanks to the Lord who gave me this opportunity, but I also want to give thanks to my precious bride. A lot of you have prayed for her and encouraged me to encourage her and I am deeply grateful for that. She was planning on being here today, but her health situation didn't allow her to do that. I love my bride and I refer to her as my bride. Gentlemen, if you don't call your wife your bride, you're making a big mistake because I think wives like to know that they're still your bride regardless if we've been married 32 years. My wife is still my bride. She is my prime rib. She is my Swiss Army wife. I love her and I am grateful to have her in my life.

Thanks for my daughters who were so instrumental in encouraging me along with my wife to do this, they have all been huge. And I've just got to say I love my grandson Lucas and also just so you guys know, don't tell anybody, but my second daughter, she and her husband are expecting a child next August. So I thought I'd let you guys know that I'll be a grandpa again.

Finally, and I know I've gone over my time, but thank you Speaker Glenn for being so kind. I just want to share a couple things with you real quick that I've learned that I want to share with you. I hope that we've been able to encourage you during the time here. I hope that I haven't pushed my faith on you. I've been available and I've answered a lot of your questions and tried to help and pray with you. I hope that was beneficial. But let me just share with you, things that I know I came here to do and I want to share with you as well.

Number one, I think it's really important as legislators that we begin to practice that our yes actually means yes and our no means no. This waffling back and forth and wishy washy is a kind of a dangerous thing. The Bible even teaches that James 5:12, let your yes be yes and your no mean no.

I also believe that a person will never care what you know until they know that you care. We're servants. I know they call us representatives, but we're servants. We serve the people of our districts and I've tried to attend to it that way. Folks will say well how in the world do you go from the pulpit to politics. I said it's the same thing. You're just simply trying to help people find solutions to the needs in their lives. All we've tried to do is to make sure that they know that we care before they try to understand what we know.

I also believe that the one who yells first loses because the minute you start yelling nobody's listening anymore. So keep that in mind. I would much rather talk with you than be talked to by you and so please just talk with one another, encourage one another, listen to one another, because at the end of the day when all this is said and done, it's really going to come down to one thing, who you love and who loved you and I have to tell you, I have prayed for all the staff and everybody here. I love you and have been blessed to be here with you. So God bless you all so much.

And one little side note, if you're going to use the Bible to put your point across. Please use it in context. The Bible says in numerous places don't take it out of context because you'll be bringing judgment on yourself. Proverbs 3:6 says don't add to his words he will rebuke you and make you a liar. So don't do that.

Finally, if you're going to point your finger at somebody else, always remember there's three fingers coming back at you. Make sure that how you're judging someone else you're making sure you're using that same standard. Again that's a biblical teaching, how you judge others is really how you're going to be judged yourself.

That's my little sermon that's my little opportunity. I close with this. Like I've said that three or four times now. Back in the day I used to be music pastor and I used to do a lot of concerts going around from churches. I've gotten old now. I don't have a voice anymore but I used to sing a lot and there was a song that I used to end a lot of concerts with it was written by a group called Geoff Moore and The Distance back 25 years ago, probably. It was called When All Is Said And Done and the words are pretty simple:

When the music fades into the past when my time round here is through what will be remembered where I've come when all is said and done. Will they say I love my family, that I was a faithful friend, will they say I lived to tell of God's love when all is said and done. Oh how I long to see the hour when I will hear that trumpet sound, so I could rise to see my Savior's face, to see him smile and say, 'Well done' you can forget my name and the song I've sung, every rhyme and every tune, but remember the truth of Jesus' love, when all is said and done. When all is said and done.

Thank you. God bless you."

Rep. Cox:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. When I was a Wayne County Commissioner and announced that I was running for the State House, my colleagues – all Democrats and former state Representatives like Joey Palamara, Irma Clark Coleman, Martha Scott, and Gary Woronchak – were so happy for me.

Wait a minute...come to think of it – could it be...maybe they were happy that I was leaving? No, truth be told, they told me that this would be the best job of my life. And they were right! I love this job-more than I ever could have imagined or dreamed. I love the BIG THINGS and I love the SMALL THINGS. The big things like the beauty of this chamber and the small things like the detail in the rotunda.

Another small thing. I love wearing the lapel pin – when it doesn't mess up the fabric of my outfit – Ladies you know what I am talking about. It's that small item-a pin which signifies something so big.

But mostly I love that while some things may seem BIG and some things may seem SMALL. Everything here – and everything we do – matters.

I value the professionalism of the employees at the HOB and the Capitol. I know the folks at facilities will be happy to see me go-given the numerous requests to turn up the temperature in the Appropriations Committee room.

I am sorry but it has been freezing for the entire 4 years I have served. All kidding aside-they have been patient, professional, and just plain awesome.

I love the sergeants and of course Chief Dickson. I remember one time walking down the stairs from my office reading some documents and not really paying attention to the commotion.

I heard this booming voice firmly state ‘clear the way –move out of the way’ over and over while he parted the sea of folks to get me safely into the chamber. For the large, for the small, and for every other in between tasks the Sergeants have done for us – thank you.

I want to thank Clerk Randall and Assistant Clerk Brown and their staff. When I held the gavel your assistance was invaluable. It was such an honor to run session and this team before us are simply amazing.

To fellow wrestling mom Joelle Demand – her name is illustrative of her strength! Joelle can herd cats like a pro and I will miss sharing our sons’ wrestling war stories about skin diseases, cutting weight and broken bones! I cannot give away all the rostrum secrets, but rest assured, the smoothness of each session happens because of their advice and counsel.

I want to thank the people of the 19th District for entrusting me with this job. I loved helping constituents navigate government services and work with them on legislative issues. I have enjoyed making positive impacts in our community like grants for the Livonia Chorus and building a universal playground for all children to name a few. Things that are seemingly small, but matter so much.

I want to thank Speaker Cotter for his leadership and trust in me-even after I picked the wrong horse for the leadership race. He put that aside (which does not happen often in this business) and appointed me chair of the General Government Budget – which I thoroughly enjoyed.

And to Speaker Leonard thank you for entrusting me with the chairmanship of the Appropriations Committee. Besides being a mom and wife – it is my favorite job, really vocation, that I have ever held.

As silly as it may sound, this job makes my heart sing-why you ask?

Let me tell you why-because I firmly believe all policy comes to life through appropriations. Our revenue is from the people of this great state – from their hard work and sweat, from their paychecks, their businesses and their investments and I worked very hard to honor this truth; that each appropriation should reflect the sacrifices of Michigan’s taxpayers.

Thank you to House Fiscal. You are awesome, and neither I nor anyone on the Appropriations Committee, could do this job without your research and analysis. Mary Ann Cleary and Bethany Wicksall you both rock. Ben, Perry, Kevin, Dan and the rest of the crew you really are an integral part of the budget process and I thank you for all your good work.

To all the staff in Republican Caucus Services-you are great! John Perry-you run a mean tele town hall-thank you for making me look smooth under pressure. Mike Quillinan thanks for trying to get candid photos of me WITHOUT my mouth open!

To the folks at the Republican Policy Office – thanks for your detailed analysis for each and every bill and quickly answering my questions on bills no matter how big or small.

Thank you to central staff especially Josiah Kissling and Hassan Beydoun– you have helped with so many issues dealing with process and procedure- I appreciate your guidance and counsel.

Becky Burtka-I am not sure how or why – but you get me-maybe because you worked for Senator Kahn before me and he broke you in? You are smart, organized and patient. You and I have had meetings about meetings that we are about to go to. I never knew a pre-meeting was so important – but rest assured folks– it is!

Thanks to Matt Carnagie– a very solid and calm clerk who has kept me on track and focused. Multi-tasking is a necessity as Approps Chair: Running the meeting, listening to folks testify, fielding texts from staff and members about future issues and concerns AND making sure members respect the rules and the process.

To ALL the members on Appropriations – it’s been a blast. Thank you for your faith, hard work and support these past 2 years. I am privileged to work alongside you while crafting 2 balanced budgets. On time. You should be proud of all we have accomplished!

I have absolutely loved the art of the deal. I think I might be a little crazy but I thoroughly enjoyed the hours we spent pouring over the numbers to make sure we made good solid budget decisions.

Vice Chairman Rob VerHeulen: you have been a great ally. Thanks for your partnership and your never ending focus on doing what is right. To all my sub-committee chairs – you have been great advisors and great soldiers and I have loved working with each of you while crafting the budget. Your focus on hitting targets, managing the details and meeting quick timelines has been invaluable.

Minority Vice Chair Durhal- it’s been fun having a Wayne County ally for 4 years-I can’t wait to see what the future has in store for you. Minority Leader Singh-I believe you were the FIRST person I gaveled down in General Government-you deserved it –but I admire your willingness to fight for what you believe in.

And while he is not in the People’s House, and therefore a little suspect-a special thank you to Chairman Hildenbrand – you have pushed me to be a better chairman and I am thankful for that. And it’s been fun working with you these past 2 years. And I am thankful for that as well.

Thank you Budget Directors Al Pscholka and John Walsh –always prepared and patient when necessary. It was a pleasure working with you and your staff. I always believe the key to good negotiations is everyone leaves the room having wins and losses. TRANSLATION: where the House leaves with wins and the Governor and Senate leave with losses!! But, truthfully, I have learned much from both of you. I always felt that happened each time we came to an agreement.

There are so many people to mention and I don’t have time to name them all. Thank you to all the members who sponsored my swear jar rants in caucus-I might have to put a fund together for members to follow in my footsteps!

To Docs Bizon and Canfield-your care and diagnoses – even for my kids who lived hundreds of miles away - - you have been life savers to me and my kids these past 4 years!

To anyone who shared a laugh, eye roll or genuine conversation – thank you-that’s what makes this job so special!

To all the members I have discussed or “whipped a vote” with-if you flipped to a yes vote-thank you-if you didn’t change your vote-you’re still wrong!

Seriously it has been a great experience working with people, learning what motivates them and finding successes in the legislative process.

Seatmate Daniela Garcia-thank you for all the laughs, bitmojis, sharing my fondness for handbags and saving my life with Benadryl. One late night, Rep Glenn inadvertently tried to poison me with peanut butter in his brownies and Daniela saved the day!

Floor Leader Lauwers thanks for all the deadpan jokes, the laughs, and snacks-I will miss our chats and I will miss joining you in the Senate!

To Elect Speaker Chatfield-you’re a great seatmate-when you are actually in your seat. You and I sat next to each other in our first caucus 4 years ago, and despite our differences, we became quick friends. I believe our friendship embodies what our Legislature is all about. I am confident that you will be one of the great Speakers in Michigan’s history. Good luck to you.

Now my closest colleagues. The people that others call my staff and that I call my lifeline: Angela Madarang, Stephanie Young, Kim Wadaga and Laurel Cummings-you are simply the best. You always make sure I have everything I need for whatever I am doing - always.

We have been to battle and won. And we have been to battle and lost. But there is no one, no one that I would choose to be with me, you ladies always have my back.

Thank you for your patience, your laughs, your guts, your support and your friendship. Recently, a fellow Rep asked me about one of my staff. He was considering whether to interview one and asked if I would hire her again. I responded not missing a beat – I would hold them close and never let them go.

Maybe that sounds sappy, perhaps a bit over the top, it was the truth. In this position we deal with people’s lives, people’s livelihood, and their wellbeing, no matter what their stature in life, age or abilities. And I have been so blessed to have a great staff to deliver assistance to the people of the 19th District and the State.

I always have been lucky enough to have the very best political and fundraising advisors for basically the price of several beers and a lot of laughs! I want to thank my Wayne 11th Republican buddy Shannon Price and Cox team supporters Stu Sandler and Mike Garavaglia for all they have done for team Cox.

Finally, I want to thank my family. Mom and Dad-thank you for the life you have given me-supporting all my follies-from playing the violin, drama classes, graduate school and running for office. I am Blessed.

To my Cox Mom and Dad-and extended family-thank you for all your support for all my adventures since I joined your family-rarely have you said no to any request and for that I am grateful. I am Blessed.

To my Lindsey, Sinead, Conor and Rory –thank you for all your love and support.

I appreciate your willingness—or let me be more clear -caving to my threats or desperate cries for help on the campaign trail! Because of this job I have missed track and wrestling meets, school events and parent pick-ups. You have sacrificed your mom- for a greater good without complaint-I thank you for your selflessness. I am Blessed.

To my husband Mike-words can’t express how lucky I am to have you by my side. Whatever I ask of you-whatever dream I chase – you reply firmly and confidently, ‘Laura – Yes you can!’ And for the record, you said those words before a certain Senator from Illinois did in 2008. I am Blessed.

This experience has been life changing in all the right ways. It has challenged me each and every day. For that I am forever indebted to the people of the 19th district. Farewell my friends, thank you for all the Big and Small memories.”

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. VerHeulen:

“Thank you Mr. Speaker,

September 11, 2001. Everyone here can remember where they were when they first heard the news of terrorism on our soil. That was also the day I won my first election. It was a primary and I won over 50% of the votes in a 3 way race for Mayor in our hometown of Walker, which meant I was automatically elected and could forego the general election in November. I stand here now, over 17 years later, at the end of my service as an elected public servant. I echo the words of George H. W. Bush as he left the White House: ‘I’ve tried to serve with no dishonor...nothing to sully this beautiful place and this job I’ve been privileged to hold.’

I want to recognize my mother, Dorothy DeMaagd, for the example of perseverance she has set for me. My father, a World War II Navy veteran, died at the age of 30 from complications of malaria that he contracted serving in the Pacific theater. I was 4 years old. My sister was 7 and my brother was 7 months old. Four years later my mother remarried and buried her second husband many years later. She also had the heartbreak of burying my brother and my sister.

I worked for Meijer, Inc. for 30 years. The last 10 years I was privileged to be Fred Meijer’s personal attorney. What a ride! I could write a book about the experiences I’ve had with Fred and Lena Meijer, two of the finest people I have known.

When I became a member of this body it was to experience a whole new range of learning and relationships. I especially note the friendship and loyalty of Chris Afendoulis, Daniela Garcia, Mike McCready, Jason Sheppard and Mike Webber who supported me in an unsuccessful yet rewarding race for Speaker. Thank you also Speaker Leonard, as well as former Speakers Cotter and Bolger. You each rewarded me with the awesome responsibility of chairing various appropriations subcommittees, with my leadership position within the caucus, and with support on a number of legislative initiatives.

I consider myself fairly low key. Working in this House has exposed me to some of the most unique personalities imaginable. My appropriations work brought me into interaction with characters including Al Pscholka, Jon Bumstead, Brandon Dillon and Harvey Santana. Nothing was ever dry with this group of appropriators.

Another member who made a deep impression on me was David Rutledge. We were from different parties and different regions of the state, but I always took note when he had something to say. He is a principled individual with strong convictions, but conducted himself with civility and kindness and set an incredible example for me.

When I think of some of the accomplishments over the past six years I cannot identify any one piece of legislation for which I will be known over the coming decades. However, I am proud of the many accomplishments we collectively have achieved over this time and the fact that I was able to contribute. The condition of the budget, the road funding package, the pension reform, the Grand Bargain bipartisan package regarding the City of Detroit, and the energy package all stand out in my mind.

I am constantly reminded of one of my bills - particularly this time of year. This was my bill allowing municipal snow plows to use green lights which science tells us are much more visible - especially in snow conditions. My seat mate my first term was Ken Goike - my first exposure to Macomb County legislators. Ken fought me all the way on this bill, claiming that green means proceed so I was inviting motorists to run into snow plows. After the first winter I sent Ken a note saying that I had checked and we had no reported accidents where motorists ran into snow plows thinking a green light meant to proceed and drive into the plow.

I am grateful to all those who serve the House in so many different capacities. Chief Dickson and the Sergeants, Clerks Randall and Brown, Alice, Joelle Demand, the policy and fiscal teams and all who provide us with a safe and efficient environment in which to work.

My staff. Lindsey Koorndyk Thiel has been with me for the entire six years through six budgets, including the DHHS budget my second term. During this time Lindsey and her husband Joe have been blessed with the birth of two beautiful daughters. Mike Krombeen was with us my first term before moving on to the lobbying ranks. Zach Sikkema has been with me the last two terms and will be on board with my successor. Congratulations to Zach and Stacy on the birth of their son last week. I owe each of them a great deal of gratitude for taking this incredible journey with me and for their service to the 74th district.

My family. My wife Norma and our four daughters have provided unconditional love and support to me over the 11 years I served as Mayor and the 6 years here in the House. Norma, in particular, was there every step of the way... leadership races, fundraising events, late night sessions, irate and abusive comments from those who did not agree with something I said or did, and the ups and downs that we experience in this life.

Our four daughters, Rachel, Kate, Laura, and Mary, have expanded our family to include four wonderful sons and have blessed us with ten grandchildren.

Thank you to the People of the 74th district, especially the People of Walker. It has been an honor to serve you.

In closing, I want to share one of my favorite verses from the Book of Micah which I have tried to make my North Star. Micah 6:8: 'He has shewed thee, O man, what is good; And what does the Lord require of you, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?'

God bless you.

Thank you Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Glenn to the Chair.

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Today I voted no on SB 1176 to keep dark money out of politics. In addition to the problem that this so-called personal privacy act presents for Attorney General and Secretary of State, it further serves to allow a shield for non-profit organizations and their members that defies the will of the people of Michigan. The people of Michigan want more transparency in our government and political process — not less. They do not want a shield for dark money shoved through the legislative process. Exempting nonprofits from disclosing their donors puts the integrity of our electoral process further at risk. We were given an F by the Center for Public Integrity, and we owe it to our citizens to not have a continual race to the bottom and live in the quagmire of darkness. Our integrity laws are an embarrassment to the nation. Passage of this bill will only make that worse.

Our citizens have a right to know who is funding the nonprofit organizations that use their pocketbooks to influence our elections and this bill has the unintended consequence of shielding hate groups that hide behind the guise of primarily dealing with research and education around the issues of immigration and race.

Sixty hate groups in this country are also listed as among the 29 types of nonprofit 501 c organizations; 29 hate groups are in Michigan, according to the Southern Poverty Law Center. Hate speech and activity across the nation and right here at home is on the rise and these organized hate groups have perpetrated all sorts of atrocities against citizens—especially against marginalized groups of people.

However, the most insidious weapon these hate groups could have is the shield this bill would provide for their campaign donations. To pass this bill is to embolden those groups to pour more money into candidates they believe will support their twisted agenda.

Regardless of a candidate’s decision to work with such groups, the people have a right to know if an organization that despises their existence is supporting a candidate on their ballot. I wasn’t sent to Lansing to make it more difficult for Michiganders to access the information they are entitled to or to take power from other duly elected officials. My constituents sent me here to fix the real problems facing our state and this bill does none of that. Instead, what it ensures is that we will be complicit in allowing nefarious actors a louder, albeit secret, voice in our elections. I voted no because we cannot allow Michigan to become a mask for hate groups to operate in darkness.”

The brakes need to be put on SB 1244. Senate Bill 1244 does nothing to protect the environment, and limits the right of the State to regulate environmental toxins and cedes our power to a federal government that in some cases has zero standards or toxicity levels for some toxins. We need environmental legislation that is grounded in science and that does not make the process of identification, clean-up, or remediation more laborious. Especially in light of the recent passage (and signing into law) of the DEQ permitting panel bill, and especially given the continued discovery of yet more PFAS and PFOS contamination in our communities, this bill is ill-timed and bad for Michigan and for her environment.”

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 473.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Rob VerHeulen.

Whereas, Upon the conclusion of his service to the Michigan House of Representatives, this legislative body extends heartfelt congratulations to Representative Rob VerHeulen. He worked tirelessly on behalf of the people of the Seventy-fourth District and the entire state; and

Whereas, Representative VerHeulen came to Lansing after a notable career in the public and private sectors. He attended Grand Rapids Community College, later graduating with a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Michigan before earning a juris doctorate from Wayne State University. He spent 30 years as an attorney with Meijer, Inc. and the Meijer Foundation, as well as serving 11 years as the mayor of Walker; and

Whereas, Representative VerHeulen made a major impact on our state during his time in the Legislature, sponsoring more than a dozen public acts and playing a key role in six budget cycles. He served on the Appropriations Committee, including as vice chair during the 2017-2018 term. He chaired Appropriations subcommittees on Transportation, General Government, Judiciary, and Health and Human Services, while serving on several others. He also served on the Health Policy Committee; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Rob VerHeulen for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Representative VerHeulen as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 474.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Laura Cox.

Whereas, It is a pleasure to honor Representative Laura Cox as she concludes her time as a member of the Michigan House of Representatives. Her leadership within this legislative body and her commitment to the people of the Nineteenth District will be missed; and

Whereas, Representative Cox was a devoted public servant prior to her election to the House of Representatives. After earning a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and master's degree in criminal justice research and planning at Michigan State University, she went to work battling drug trafficking and financial crimes as a special agent with the U.S. Customs Service. After 13 years in law enforcement, Representative Cox was elected to the Wayne County Commission in 2004; and

Whereas, Representative Cox quickly became an influential member of the Legislature, serving on the Appropriations Committee during her first term where she was chair of the subcommittee on General Government, vice chair of the subcommittee on Judiciary, and a member of subcommittees on Health and Human Services, Higher Education, and Licensing and Regulatory Affairs. During her second term, she rose to chair of the Appropriations Committee. In addition to shepherding the state's budget through the House, she worked to pass legislation on a variety of issues including retirement, adult foster care, and human trafficking; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Laura Cox for her notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Cox as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 475.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Dan Lauwers.

Whereas, It is a distinct pleasure to honor Representative Dan Lauwers as his three terms in the Michigan House of Representatives come to an end. Representative Lauwers has been a thoughtful and hard-working advocate for his constituents in the Eighty-first District since his election in 2012; and

Whereas, Representative Lauwers' education and experience prepared him for his work in the House of Representatives. He earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics at Michigan State University and has been the owner and general manager of Eastern Michigan Grain for many years. He has also worked for the W.K. Kellogg Foundation and the National Milk Producers Federation, in addition to serving as a congressional staffer; and

Whereas, Representative Lauwers' expertise made him a natural fit for the Agriculture Committee, which he chaired during the 2015-2016 term. He also represented his constituents as the vice chair of the Government Operations Committee and on the Energy and Technology; Michigan Competitiveness; Transportation and Infrastructure; Regulatory Reform; and Workforce and Talent Development committees. Representative Lauwers embraced leadership opportunities during his time in the House, taking on the important and demanding task of serving as the Majority Floor Leader during his final term; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Dan Lauwers for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Lauwers as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes as he moves onto the Senate.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Anthony, Faris, Lasinski, Love, Sneller, Sowerby and Wittenberg offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 476.

A resolution to declare December 16-22, 2018, as Children's Savings Account Awareness Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Children's savings accounts (CSAs) are savings or investment accounts sponsored by financial institutions, which usually offer behavior-based incentives and savings-match opportunities to help families maximize their investments. CSAs are often used to build up funds to pay for a college education or career training and are instrumental in preparing young people for a stable economic future. Many institutions also offer financial coaching and other educational tools to help young people better understand financial markets and develop positive saving habits. The majority of CSA programs in the United States operate using a 529 plan, a financial tool that allows tax-free withdrawals for post-secondary tuition and other education-related expenses; and

Whereas, Approximately 450,000 children nationwide have a CSA. There are more than 80 CSA programs in operation across the country, with initial deposits and matches from funding sources such as community foundations, individual donors, businesses, and state, local and federal agencies. According to the Community Economic Development Association of Michigan, there are currently 6 operational CSA initiatives in Michigan, servicing at least 12,635 individuals over the last two years; and

Whereas, School based initiatives can create a strong framework for community collaboration and improved outcomes for students. Lansing Student Accounts Valuing Education (SAVE) is one example of a partnership between the City of Lansing, the Lansing School District, and MSU Federal Credit Union that automatically enrolls students in a CSA during their first semester of kindergarten. In Barry County, the "Kickstart to Savings" program has also been exemplary in this arena, serving as the first universal, automatic, county-wide CSA program; and

Whereas, While children with dedicated college savings are four times more likely to complete a degree by age 26, CSAs are often underutilized by families who could benefit the most. When considering college graduation rates for low income students, the benefit of CSAs is apparent. Only 7 percent of low income students without a CSA graduate from college, compared to a 33% graduation rate for those who do. A recent publication from "Prosperity Now" shows disparities between race and income level for use of CSAs. Over 51 percent of CSA participants are white, 27 percent are Latino, and 11 percent are African American. Low-income and immigrant families are also less likely to be aware of CSA programs. Increasing awareness of CSAs and improving access for minority groups is an important step toward ensuring equitable outcomes for all of Michigan's children; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare December 16-22, 2018, as Children's Savings Account Awareness Week in the state of Michigan. We demonstrate our commitment to giving all of Michigan's children the opportunity to pursue their dreams, regardless of their financial beginnings.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Cole moved that consideration of the resolution be postponed for the day.

The motion prevailed.
