

THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE (EXCERPT)
Act 175 of 1927

767.72 Indictment for manslaughter; added count for abortion; admissibility of dying declaration under either count.

Sec. 72. An indictment or information for manslaughter may contain also a count for procuring or attempting to procure an abortion and the jury may convict of either offense. Dying declarations shall be admissible in evidence in proof of either count.

History: 1927, Act 175, Eff. Sept. 5, 1927;—CL 1929, 17286;—CL 1948, 767.72.