Pastor Shawn Smith, Pastor of Heritage Baptist Church in DeWitt, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Heavenly Father,

Thank You for the grace and mercy You have shown to us. Your wisdom is offered to us and Your enabling is available to all who seek it. I pray that You will give this legislative body Your wisdom to perform the duties required of them. That they would make the right decisions and actions that would help the people of our states to have better lives and ensure a better future for our families. I pray that You would give this body a spirit of humility as they work together for that purpose. You have taught us in Your word that we are to seek peace and pursue it. You have taught us to be kind one to another, tender hearted and forgiving toward one another. True leadership is not proud or forceful, a true leader is a servant of those whom he is leading. May today be a day of service and may the efforts of this body be profitable to the people of this state today. We thank You that You are a God Who answers prayer. It is in Your name we pray, Amen.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Tedder to the Chair.

Rep. Lauwers moved that Rep. Maturen be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Wittenberg, Brinks, Chirkun, Clemente, Cochran, Elder, Ellison, Faris, Geiss, Greig, Howrylak, Hughes, Jones, Liberati, Love, Sneller and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 128.

A resolution to declare July 9-15, 2017, as Sarcoma Awareness Week and July 15, 2017, as Leiomyosarcoma Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, A soft tissue sarcoma is a rare type of cancer, accounting for approximately 1 percent of all newly diagnosed cancers, that arises in the connective tissue of the body; and

Whereas, The National Institutes of Health designates sarcoma as a rare form of cancer, with sarcoma containing approximately 70 different subtypes; and

Whereas, Sarcomas are largely resistant to current chemotherapy agents, immunotherapy agents, and radiation therapies, posing a formidable challenge for researchers and specialists; and

Whereas, Sarcoma subtypes have largely not received benefit from immunotherapies due to the complexity of the DNA, genomes, and mutations associated with the many variations in the sarcoma subtype landscape; and

Whereas, Leiomyosarcoma (referred to in this preamble as “LMS”) is a malignant, aggressive subtype of soft tissue sarcoma derived from smooth muscle cells typically of uterine, gastrointestinal or soft tissue origin, and can metastasize to the bone, spine, brain, and liver; and

Whereas, The National Institutes of Health classifies LMS as a rare disease, accounting for approximately 15 percent of all sarcomas, and LMS itself encompasses at least four different LMS subtypes within; and

Whereas, LMS primarily affects adults, there are no gender boundaries, and research and clinical trials remain complicated and the survival and longevity remains difficult; and

Whereas, Multidisciplinary care coordination teams, because of their expertise and experience, are critical to the health of sarcoma and LMS patients; and

Whereas, Sarcoma and LMS research will allow medical professionals to improve the quality of care for affected patients, lead to better clinical outcomes, and promote longer survival for patients; and

Whereas, Increased education and awareness about sarcoma and LMS will contribute to the wellbeing of the communities of the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare July 9-15, 2017, as Sarcoma Awareness Week and July 15, 2017, as Leiomyosarcoma Awareness Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize the challenges faced by sarcoma and leiomyosarcoma patients, and commends the dedication of organizations, volunteers, researchers, and caregivers across the country working to improve the quality of life of sarcoma and leiomyosarcoma patients and their families.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Geiss, Love, Elder, Greimel, Rabhi, Peterson, Hertel, Pagan, Chang, Lucido, Hoadley, Sabo, Durhal, Lasinski, Santana, Chirkun, Brinks, Green, Scott, Sneller, Schor, Liberati, Wittenberg, Jones, Neeley, Faris, Cochran, LaGrand, Moss, Camilleri, Hammoud, Ellison, Guerra, Sowerby, Yanez, Miller, Gay-Dagnogo, Clemente, Greig and Singh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 129.

A resolution to declare August 26, 2017, as Women's Equality Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, At every level of society, women are leaders at the forefront of progress. Serving as judges and members of Congress, setting world records in sports, founding groundbreaking companies, and fighting on the front lines of combat, women continue to tear down barriers and shatter glass ceilings; and

Whereas, The women of United States are to be commended and supported in their organizations and activities; and

Whereas, No woman should earn less than a man for doing the same job, equal pay for equal work should be a fundamental principle of our economy and our democracy; and

Whereas, We must strengthen paid sick, maternity, and family leave. Too many families are forced to make difficult choices between caring for a newborn and receiving a paycheck or staying home to help a sick child or parent and keeping their job; and

Whereas, Ensuring all young women can live full and healthy lives is vital to their pursuit of personal and professional goals; and

Whereas, The women of the Michigan have united to assure that these rights and privileges are available to all citizens equally regardless of sex; and

Whereas, The women of the Michigan have designated August 26, the anniversary date of the certification of the Nineteenth Amendment, as a symbol of the continued fight for equal rights; and

Whereas, The women of Michigan are to be commended and supported in their organizations and activities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare August 26, 2017, as Women's Equality Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Geiss moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Resolution No. 129.

A resolution to declare August 26, 2017, as Women's Equality Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, At every level of society, women are leaders at the forefront of progress. Serving as judges and members of Congress, setting world records in sports, founding groundbreaking companies, and fighting on the front lines of combat, women continue to tear down barriers and shatter glass ceilings; and

Whereas, The women of United States are to be commended and supported in their organizations and activities; and

Whereas, No woman should earn less than a man for doing the same job, equal pay for equal work should be a fundamental principle of our economy and our democracy; and

Whereas, The women of the Michigan have designated August 26, the anniversary date of the certification of the Nineteenth Amendment, as a symbol of the continued fight for equal rights; and

Whereas, The women of Michigan are to be commended and supported in their organizations and activities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare August 26, 2017, as Women's Equality Day in the state of Michigan.

The motion prevailed and the substitute (H-1) was adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Geiss, Love, Elder, Greimel, Rabhi, Peterson, Hertel, Pagan, Chang, Lucido, Hoadley, Sabo, Durhal, Lasinski, Santana, Brinks, Chirkun, Green, Sneller, Schor, Wittenberg, Liberati, Jones, Neeley, Faris, Cochran, LaGrand, Moss, Camilleri, Hammoud, Ellison, Guerra, Sowerby, Yanez, Miller, Bizon, Gay-Dagnogo, Clemente, Greig, Kesto, Singh and Hughes offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 130.

A resolution to declare August 2017 as Breastfeeding Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Extensive research, especially in recent years, documents diverse and compelling advantages to infants, mothers, families, and society from breastfeeding and the use of human milk for infant feeding. These include health, nutritional, immunological, developmental, psychological, social, economic, and environmental benefits; and

Whereas, Breastfeeding provides significant health benefits to the mother as well as the infant, provides maternal protection from breast cancer, osteoporosis, and other cancers. Research indicates the incidence of breast cancer in the United States and other developed countries could be reduced by longer duration of breastfeeding; and

Whereas, Worldwide studies show that babies who are breastfed have higher rates of survival; and

Whereas, Breastfed babies have reduced numbers of viral and bacterial infections resulting in fewer cases of necrotizing enterocolitis, diarrhea, otitis media, meningitis, and respiratory infections; and

Whereas, Any genuine promotion of family values should encourage acceptance of this most basic act of nurture between a mother and her child; and

Whereas, The Michigan Legislature encourages breastfeeding and commends employers, both in the public and the private sector, who make accommodations for breastfeeding mothers whenever feasible; and

Whereas, The Michigan Legislature recognizes that breastfeeding is an important and basic act of nurture that should be supported in the interests of maternal and child health; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare August 2017 as Breast Feeding Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Rep. Reilly offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 131.

A resolution to support President Donald J. Trump’s decision to withdraw the United States from the Paris Climate Agreement.

Whereas, President Obama signed the Paris Climate Agreement, an international treaty, without ratification by the United States Senate in 2016. The agreement committed the United States to donating billions of dollars to foreign nations and to imposing crippling economic restrictions at home, ostensibly to alleviate global climate change. Making this commitment to foreign nations without proper ratification has led to conflict between the United States and rest of the world over the nature of our obligation to carry out the conditions of the agreement; and

Whereas, The agreement lacks an enforcement mechanism to ensure donor nations’ money would be used to achieve the agreement’s goals. The agreement may, in effect, be little more than a slush fund to the recipient third-world nations and minimally helpful to efforts to curb carbon dioxide emissions; and

Whereas, Complying with the terms of the agreement would unreasonably burden the American economy by mandating inefficient energy generation, causing wholesale job loss in certain energy sectors while driving up energy costs; and

Whereas, The Paris Climate Agreement places the greatest burden on the American people and benefits competing nations, especially China and India, while allowing those other nations to maintain and even expand their carbon footprints without repercussions; and

Whereas, The degree to which human activity affects global temperatures is a matter of scientific controversy. Meeting the objectives of the treaty may therefore be trivial or impossible; and

Whereas, President Trump announced his intention to withdraw the United States from the Paris Climate Agreement on June 1, 2017, asserting the United States’ sovereignty and informing the international community that the United States has no obligation to enforce any aspect of the Paris Climate Agreement absent ratification by the Senate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we support President Donald J. Trump’s decision to withdraw the United States from the Paris Climate Agreement; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources.

Rep. Lauwers moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Geiss, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

On the face of it, HB 4054 makes sense to provide additional electronic signage on school buses to help improve visibility of slowing and stopped school busses. Unfortunately, the bill does not take into account the cost to school districts to outfit their school bus fleets with the new lighting or the cost associated that a private contractor could pass on to the district. Many districts are already struggling financially and would not be able to afford this optional provision. Furthermore, there is no language that would make enforcement stronger for a motorist that ignores the new lighting and passes a school bus that is slowing or has stopped to receive or discharge students. Furthermore, since the language is permissive, it means that the districts that can afford to retrofit their fleets (or purchase busses with this type of lighting) will be able to have safer kids. All of our kids, statewide deserve to be safe. This bill should have become mandatory and with an appropriation attached to it so that all school districts could provide safer buses for its students.”

Rep. Rabhi, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I, Yusef Rabhi, of the 53rd District, opposed the passage HB 5054. I am concerned that this bill prioritizes the safety of children in affluent school districts over children in less affluent areas. Giving schools the option of installing the signs and not providing any funding to ensure that it is done gives children in districts that can afford the sign an upper hand. If we were to move forward with this, all school districts should be subjected to the same standard and the state should fund this initiative. Children should have equal and adequate access to safe transportation to and from school, regardless of income or the community they live in.”

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Lauwers moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Geiss, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Thank you Mr. Speaker. Today, I rise in opposition to House Bill 4647—the bill to amend the Michigan Public Schools Employees Retirement System or MPSERS, as we call it colloquially. And today, I am not only speaking as a member of the legislature, I am speaking as a higher education teacher AND as a parent of children who attend public school in my district—one of the few parents in this body, I might add, that has children currently in Michigan’s traditional public schools.

A lot of the rhetoric around MPSERS has been solely about teachers. Now, our teachers are professionals and their profession needs to be valued both while they are charged with educating and nurturing our children, but also so that they can adequately save for retirement. But our public schools are more than the teachers. Keep in mind—this is about the Michigan Public Schools Employees Retirement System. And that does not only affect K-12 teachers, it affects the employees community colleges, intermediate school districts, school districts, certain district libraries, and participating public school academies. It affects a vast number of people that are integral parts of the school day, school week and school year of our children not only while they are with them but also in the hours that they are not face-to-face with them.

Let me share a real-world, daily example of how far and broadly the reach of MPSERS system is even when we're only talking about public elementary schools. Here's who my kids see in their typical school day. It starts with the bus drivers. (My school district thankfully has been able to keep its transportation system in place and not have to contract it out to a private company.) They are greeted by their principle when they get off the bus. They see the office staff, cafeteria workers, maintenance & custodial staff, librarians throughout the day as well as their own classroom teachers and the ones who teach their specials. These are people who are household names, who provide more than just reading, writing and arithmetic. And let me tell you who these people are: they're not only the folks who 'simply' work in our schools—as Bob McGrath from Sesame Street would sing, these are the people in our neighborhoods. Some of them are also parents or grandparents of kids in our schools. They are part of our communities.

Now, to my next point, as an adjunct at Wayne County Community College District, in addition to the traditional community college population, I have taught dual enrollment students—and for those that don't know, they are public high school students who take college-level courses at our community colleges in addition to their regular high school curriculum. These kids—and they are kids—are entrusted to me by their parents and school district to help further their education.

According to our nonpartisan House Fiscal Analysis, the bill would increase costs related to providing retirement benefits by $23 million in FY 2017-18 according to estimates provided by the Office of Retirement Services—and just so that we're aware of timing—that means the school year that begins this fall. The costs would grow annually as the number of employees in the new hybrid and DC plans grows. The risk to the state and local units of government is uncertain.

House Bill 4647 does not address the $29 billion unfunded liability associated with the current pension system that has been closed to new enrollees since 2010, and which still has a higher assumed rate of return than what is being currently offered by this bill.

Additionally, this bill creates a fiscal burden on school districts with its 'new' 401K plan. The additional 1% that districts will need to add to their budgets for the 401K to go from 3% to 4% could cause some districts to fall below the mandatory 5% fund equity and go into state management. State management is not a scenario any of our districts want to experience.

Further, this bill makes retirement age a moving target for most new hires. It also would eliminate the purchase of service credit (other than credit for active duty in the armed forces) in the Basic and Member Investment Plans (employees hired prior to July 1, 2010) unless the purchase is initiated by September 29, 2017. Employees in the hybrid plan hired since July 1, 2010 are not eligible to purchase service credit. In other words it penalizes teachers (who are primarily women) for taking leave to start families or any of the other reasons for which they might elect to purchase service credits.

Now, in full disclosure, as an adjunct at Wayne County Community College District, we are part of the MPSERS system. And because of my hire date, this bill has no further effect on me personally than it does on any other tax-payer.

But I am not going to stand here and say to the other teachers and professionals in our public education system who start after me 'I'm going to get mine, forget the rest of you,' which is EXACTLY what this bill does...and it does it to some of the very kids I taught (my kids...because I still consider them my kids—all of us teachers do), who may be on track to graduating in a couple of years with their teaching degrees. I cannot and will not do this to them or to any other future fellow teacher. Maybe Members don't have kids in public schools, but a Member's neighbor might. A Member's best friend might. A Member's relatives might. How on earth can we say that we devalue their children's education, that we devalue the very people who care for our kids every day, to be willing to offer our Michigan Public Education Employees a shoddy updated retirement package that fiscally does nothing to solve our fiduciary issues and assumes even greater risk. As a teacher, I give this bill a failing grade and urge a no vote."

Rep. Pagan, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

No vote explanation HB 4647

I cast a no vote on House Bill 4647 because this bill takes money directly out of the classroom and does not reduce costs to school employees, all while taking away the promise of a secure retirement. In Michigan, where we are facing a teacher shortage and less college students are studying to become teachers, we must do everything we can to attract and retain talent in the teaching profession. This bill does the opposite by raising the cost of retirement on both the employee and school district, increases the investment risk by placing all retirement decisions on the state of Michigan, and enacts changes in the current legacy plan by taking away the ability to purchase credits for paid sick leave and maternity leave. The quality of our public education system goes down when we do not provide incentives that keep the very best teachers in the classroom. Therefore, I could not support this bill."

Rep. Yaroch, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

My no vote on House Bill 4647 reflects the concerns I have with the legislation in its current form. While I appreciate that we need to take action to address the unfunded liability in the current teachers' retirement system, I cannot support legislation that blocks a referendum of the people with an attached appropriation. This bill includes a $5 million dollar appropriation, which blocks our citizens from exercising their constitutional right to bring forth a referendum. The right of the people to challenge the decisions of our elected officials is a fundamental check on our democracy. Additionally, to gain my support I would like to have seen more deliberations on the issues in the bill.”

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to revise, consolidate, codify, and add to the statutes relating to crimes; to define crimes and prescribe the penalties and remedies; to provide for restitution under certain circumstances; to provide for the competency of evidence at the trial of persons accused of crime; to provide immunity from prosecution for certain witnesses appearing at criminal trials; to provide for liability for damages; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts inconsistent with or contravening any of the provisions of this act,”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Lauwers moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Howrylak, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Female genital mutilation is a terrible crime and we should work hard to eradicate it from this world. I appreciate the efforts and the intent of the bill sponsors in this regard. However, Federal law already makes female genital mutilation a crime. In fact, we have recently seen the impact of the federal enforcement of this crime here in Michigan.

These bills create a punishment that is significantly harsher than Federal statute. There are numerous potential unintended consequences that haven’t been addressed or remedied in the bills. For example, newcomers from overseas lands where genital mutilation is widespread may not seek medical care or other services for their children, for fear of being charged, having their children removed and being deported. Additionally, penalizing child victims again by removing them from their families will do nothing but damage the children. Removing children from their families would be traumatic and runs counter to the bill sponsors’ stated goal of protecting children. A more sensible and effective approach to ending female genital mutilation would be to focus on educating parents, families and community leaders instead of instituting a very harsh and punitive punishment. Indeed, true change starts in communities and families first.

Additionally, because the language in these bills is overly broad, it will have the unintended consequence of penalizing individuals who are intersex and those who are seeking gender reassignment surgery. Neither of these circumstances are part of the stated intent of these bills. With more thoughtful consideration, these bills could have been more thoughtfully and carefully written to be narrowly tailored enough to only prohibit female genital mutilation.”

Announcements by the Clerk

The Clerk received the following dissent on House Bill No. 4647, from Reps. Hammoud, Schor, Green, Wittenberg, Greig, Rabhi, Jones, Guerra, Camilleri, Brinks, Hoadley, Elder, Lasinski, Dianda and Chang:

I dissent to the failure of the House to recognize a record roll call vote when 1/5 of the members properly demanded it. I, along with more than 22 of my colleagues, asked for a record roll call. The Michigan Constitution requires the body to take this recorded vote and I dissent that it was not recognized.

The Clerk received the following dissent on House Bill No. 4647, from Rep. Rabhi:

I dissent to the action of the house whereby I was denied my ability to address the body for speaking to an issue that was addressed in the previous speaker’s statement. Whereas my colleagues statement was germane to the same topic as mine, my comments were deemed out of order whereas my colleague was allowed to speak.

The Clerk received the following dissent on House Bill No. 4647, from Rep. Chang:

I dissent to the failure of the House to recognize a record roll call vote on amendment 1A to House Bill 4647 when 1/5 of the members properly demanded it. I, along with more than 22 of my colleagues, asked for a record roll call. The Michigan Constitution requires the body to take this recorded vote and I dissent that it was not recognized.
