FORMER STATE LEGISLATURES, 1835-2002 (Cont.)

¹The provisions of the Constitution of 1835 governed the 1st through the 15th legislatures, while the Constitution of 1850 regulated the actions of the 16th through the 44th legislatures. The 45th through the 3rd session of the 72nd legislature acted under the terms of the Constitution of 1908. The 1964 session of the 72nd legislature and all subsequent sessions have been governed by the provisions of the Constitution of 1963.

The 1st through the 12th legislatures also met in Detroit, then the capital of the state. Beginning with the 13th legislature, all subsequent sessions have convened in Lansing, designated Michigan's capital by Act 60 of 1847, Laws of Michigan.

²The date listed is that of the last adjourning house, if applicable.

³The length of the sessions of the 1st through the 41st legislatures is calculated in calendar days from the opening to the adjournment of each session. Beginning with the 42nd and ending with the 72nd legislature, the number listed is the actual number of session days of the last adjourning house.

⁵For the 1st through the 47th legislatures, the number of resolutions listed may include joint, concurrent, or regular resolutions. Beginning with the 48th legislature and with the exception of 1925, this number includes only joint resolutions.

⁶Political data has been included in the table since 1885. The political make-up of the earlier legislatures was ascertained as nearly as possible by researching newspapers of the period, of which 1850 was the earliest obtainable.

⁷As Allegan County was organized by an act of the territorial council after adoption of the proposed constitution for submission to a vote and before actual adoption by the voters, the county was entitled to 1 representative in the house upon the effective date of the constitution. Therefore, the house of representatives admitted the Allegan County delegate, increasing its membership to 50. See Const. 1835, art. 4, §4, and Sched. §12.

⁸Under the terms of the Constitution of 1835, art. 4, §3, the legislature enacted Act 82 of 1838, Laws of Michigan, apportioning house of representatives members and arranging senate districts.

⁹See Act 61 of 1841, Laws of Michigan, reapportioning house of representatives membership and senate districts.

¹⁰See Act 25 of 1846, Laws of Michigan, reapportioning house of representatives membership and senate districts.

¹¹Organized as counties in March 1850, prior to the adoption of the Constitution of 1850, both Tuscola and Montcalm Counties were entitled to 1 representative each under the provisions of the Constitution of 1835, art. 4, §4. The house of representatives admitted both delegates to increase its membership to 68.

¹²The Constitution of 1850, art. 4, §2, increased the number of senators to 32. Art. 4, §3, established a range in the number of representatives. Act 167 of the Extra Session of 1851, Laws of Michigan, reapportioned house membership within that range.

¹³See Act 104 of 1855, Laws of Michigan, reapportioning house of representatives membership. Saginaw County was inadvertently omitted from the reapportionment act, but was entitled to 1 seat in the house.

¹⁴Bay County was organized in 1857. Having met the requirements for representation of the Constitution of 1850, art. 4, §3, the house of representatives admitted its delegate, increasing membership to 81.

¹⁵Alpena County, organized in 1857 and originally a part of another district, met the population requirements of the Constitution of 1850, art. 4, §3, thereby entitling it to 1 representative. Muskegon County was organized in 1859 under the terms of the Constitution of 1850. Therefore, the house of representatives admitted both delegates to increase its membership to 83.
