CAROL MOREY VIVENTI
Secretary of the Senate

PAMELA HARDEN NYQUIST
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

Secretary of the Senate

Carol Morey Viventi, Secretary of the Senate
Pamela Harden Nyquist, Assistant Secretary of the Senate

The Secretary of the Senate is elected by the senate as a statutory officer at the beginning of the 4-year senate term. The Secretary's most visible role is the work on the podium during session — reading in bills, recording votes, serving as a parliamentary adviser, and, occasionally, presiding in the absence of designated presiding officers. The Secretary also has many statutory record-keeping responsibilities such as the “care and preservation” of bills and senate records, including the recording and validating of official senate actions; the enrolling of bills; the preparation of the journal of each day's proceedings; and the dissemination of bills, resolutions, and amendments to senators. The Secretary also serves as the senate's chief administrative officer, responsible for a broad range of administrative functions, from the administration of the senate budget to supervisory authority for the care and control of the senate's physical plant. The Secretary of the Senate's office is located in Room S-5, State Capitol, Lansing, MI 48933. Phone: (517) 373-2400.

Senate Fiscal Agency

Gary Olson, Director

The Senate Fiscal Agency provides nonpartisan analytical services to the senate. The staff provides technical, analytical, and preparatory support for all appropriations and retirement bills. The agency also prepares an objective written analysis of all bills and administrative rules under consideration by the senate.

Fiscal analysts of the Senate Fiscal Agency review and evaluate state programs, proposed policies, proposed rules, budgetary requests, and the fiscal impact of all bills before the senate. The agency also provides economic and revenue analysis and forecasting, analyzes the impact of federal budget decisions on the state, monitors the state's long-term and short-term debt, and monitors the state's compliance with constitutional and statutory fiscal requirements.

Legislative analysts of the Senate Fiscal Agency are responsible for providing objective bill analysis for members. Analysts prepare summaries of bills in committee to provide a straightforward explanation of the changes a bill would make to present law. Once a bill is reported out of committee, a full analysis is prepared describing the changes a bill would make in present law, the reason for the bill's introduction, supporting and opposing arguments, and fiscal implications. Analyses are updated as bills are amended throughout the course of the legislative process. The Senate Fiscal Agency is located in the Victor Center, 8th Floor, 201 N. Washington Square, Lansing, MI 48933. Phone: (517) 373-2768.

Clerk of the House of Representatives

Gary L. Randall, Clerk
Linda J. Benedict, Assistant Clerk

The Office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives is the parliamentary office for this chamber of the Michigan legislature.

The Clerk of the House performs a wide range of operations in the house of representatives. These responsibilities include direct supervision of the preparation of various legislative documents, including the house journal and the daily calendar, which specifies the order of pending business; the printing and reproduction of bills, acts, or other documents; and the responsibility for the care and preservation of each bill introduced in the house or received from the senate.

The Clerk of the House, whose duties are stipulated in statute, house rule, joint senate and house rules and at the direction of the membership, is elected by the members of the house of representatives. The clerk has an active parliamentary role during legislative sessions. The clerk calls the roll, announces the proceedings of the house, records votes, and serves as parliamentarian and presides in the absence of a designated presiding officer. Assisting the clerk at the podium during session is the assistant clerk and the clerks responsible for bill amendments, bills and resolutions, and the journal.

The Clerk of the House is also the administrator of the House Sergeant-at-Arms police agency. The clerk's offices are located in the State Capitol. Phone: (517) 373-0135.

House Fiscal Agency

Mitch Bean, Director

The House Fiscal Agency is a nonpartisan agency within the Michigan House of Representatives. Agency personnel provide confidential, nonpartisan assistance to the House Appropriations Committee and all other members of the House on legislative fiscal matters.

Fiscal Analysts assist legislators with developing the state budget; review and prepare budget and supplemental appropriations bills and certain transfer requests; provide fiscal impact statements on proposed legislation; monitor, research, and analyze fiscal issues; and prepare reports and documents to assist legislative deliberations. Economists analyze legislation related to tax and lottery issues, monitor state revenue, track state and national economic conditions, and prepare reports on revenue and other economic issues. Legislative Analysts prepare nonpartisan summaries and analyses of bills. The Agency Director, by statute, is one of three state officials charged with forecasting state revenues at Consensus Revenue Estimating Conferences.

House Fiscal Agency reports and publications are available on the Agency's website (www.house.mi.gov/hfa); bill summaries and analyses are available on the Michigan Legislative Information System website (www.michiganlegislature.org).
