Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Wojno, Prusi, Kaza, Callahan, Freeman, Middaugh, Rocca, Lowe, Gubow, Baade, Scott, Tesanovich, Hale, Bogardus, Martinez, Murphy, Kelly, Schermesser, DeHart, Hanley, Kukuk, Kilpatrick, Crissman, London, Cherry, Thomas, Palamara, Galloway, Fitzgerald, Goschka, Raczkowski, Green, Anthony, Baird, Bodem, Dalman, McBryde, Llewellyn, Profit, McNutt, Harder, Wetters, Scranton, Cropsey, Cassis, Jelinek, Richner, Bankes, Parks, Voorhees, Dobb, Oxender and Varga offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 271.

A resolution recognizing May 10 through May 16, 1998, as Police Week in the City of Warren.

Whereas, The City of Warren will recognize the week of May 10 through 16, 1998, as "Police Week" in the City of Warren. May police officers across our city and state know of our deep appreciation for their public service and their sacrifice; and

Whereas, In 1962, President John F. Kennedy proclaimed the week of May 15th as National Police Week with one day set aside as National Police Officers Memorial Day. This proclamation has helped us focus on the sacrifices made by our police officers over the last three decades and remains a symbol of our nation's commitment to them; and

Whereas, Warren's law enforcement officers undertake a demanding and dangerous job every day they put on their uniform. They have been sworn to uphold our laws and to protect our lives and property from harm. Our ability to live as free citizens is completely dependent on the faithful performance of their duties. Our law enforcement officers have been exemplary public servants, and National Police Week is another reminder of the dangers that they face. National

Police Officers Memorial Day, which is observed during this week, is a special reminder of the officers who have fallen in the line of duty and deserve our recognition; and

Whereas, We appreciate support of Warren's Police Officers, who have earned our sincere thanks. May the citizens of Warren continue to recognize the blessings of a police force made up of such devoted individuals. As we go about our business, let us pause to remember both the officers who died while protecting us and those who have lost a family member; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That members of this legislative body recognize the week of May 10 through 16, 1998, as "Police Week" in the City of Warren. May all the citizens of Warren be encouraged to recognize the important services and protection police officers across our city and state provide; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Warren Police Department as evidence of our highest esteem.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Gagliardi moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Reps. Richner, Gernaat, Middaugh, Lowe, Gilmer, Kukuk, Horton, Birkholz, Crissman, Raczkowski, Perricone, Green, Dalman, McBryde, Llewellyn, McNutt, Wetters, Scranton, Cassis, Jelinek and Voorhees offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 272.

A resolution to urge the United States Environmental Protection Agency to rescind its interim guidance to treat certain environmental concerns as civil rights issues.

Whereas, Michigan's public officials fully support the implementation of environmental programs to protect citizens and the environment in full compliance with Title VI of the federal Civil Rights Act. Our state has a strong commitment to preventing discrimination based on race, locality, or any other consideration. Michigan believes that sound enforcement of laws and regulations is the best way to provide environmental equity; and

Whereas, The United States Environmental Protection Agency has issued its Interim Guidance for Investigating Title VI Administrative Complaints Challenging Permits. This is intended to provide a framework for processing complaints filed under federal civil rights statutes. The EPA is soliciting comments during a 90-day period that began February 5, 1998; and

Whereas, The interim guidance would conflict with state and local land use policies, brownfield clean-up and redevelopment, and urban revitalization efforts. The EPA's proposal does not provide definitions, standards, or methodologies that are precise or are based on sound, peer-reviewed science, especially in the area of assessing cumulative exposure. Many people feel that the EPA's interim guidance goes far beyond the President's 1994 Executive Order concerning environmental justice and would have serious, unintended consequences; and

Whereas, The states have the primary responsibility to implement most of the nation's environmental programs. The promulgation of the proposed interim guidance in its current form would disrupt the management of environmental programs and would not achieve its desired purpose; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the United States Environmental Protection Agency to rescind its interim guidance to treat certain environmental concerns as civil rights issues. We urge the EPA to work with the states to develop a policy that maintains state authority and establishes definitions, standards, and methodologies to deal with issues such as cumulative exposure and human health, local zoning and land use, urban economic revitalization efforts, brownfield and redevelopment programs, and related matters; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Conservation, Environment and Recreation.

Reps. Prusi, Gubow, Agee, Anthony, Tesanovich, Mathieu, Emerson, Hood, Schroer, Cherry, Schermesser, Kelly, Quarles, Rison, Frank, Baade, Oxender, Brackenridge, Gagliardi, Mans, Brater, Parks, Hanley, Price, Hale, Wojno, DeHart, Schauer, Kilpatrick, Brown, Callahan, Thomas, Dobronski, Kaza, Freeman, Gernaat, Middaugh, LaForge, Rocca, Lowe, Willard, Scott, Bogardus, Martinez, Gilmer, Murphy, Kukuk, Horton, Birkholz, London, Palamara, Galloway, Fitzgerald, Jellema, Goschka, Raczkowski, Green, Baird, Bodem, Dalman, McBryde, Llewellyn, Profit, McNutt, Harder, Wetters, Scranton, Cropsey, Cassis, Jelinek, Richner, Bankes, Voorhees, Dobb and Varga offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 273.

A resolution honoring the 1998 Winter Olympians from Michigan.

Whereas, The 1998 Olympics have come to an end in Nagano, Japan and Michigan's Winter Olympians have returned home. These athletes have united many communities and made a profound impact across Michigan. It is a great pleasure and a privilege to welcome Olympians Shelley Looney, Chris Thorpe, Mark Grimmette, Wendel Suckow, Erin Gleason, Julie Goskowicz, Andy Erickson, Scott Koons and Tom O'Hare back home to the great State of Michigan; and

Whereas, The United States Women's Hockey Team won the first gold medal in Olympic Women's Hockey. Shelley Looney of Brownstown Township was a member of this inspirational team. Shelley, a forward, scored midway through the third period of the gold medal game against Canada. The final score was 3-1; and

Whereas, Olympic luge competitions in the past have been dominated by Germans, Italians, Austrians and the former Soviets. Chris Thorpe, from Marquette, along with his partner Gordy Sheer, and Mark Grimmette of Muskegon, along with his partner Brian Martin, became the first Americans to win Luge Medals in the Winter Games since 1964. Chris and Gordy had the European teams mystified when Chris would shout to Gordy "don't choke" prior to every race since the 1992 Olympics. This year the team "did not choke" and captured the Olympic Silver medal in the Men's Doubles Luge competition. Mark Grimmette and his partner Brian Martin captured the bronze medal in the Men's Doubles Luge; and

Whereas, Wendel Suckow a former World Cup Champion, also of Marquette, finished sixth in the Men's Singles Luge Competition. Wendel trained in Lake Placid New York for the Olympics but, has been a very active participant in the Marquette community. Wendel is indeed a fine young man who has become a source of great pride to the community; and

Whereas, Five other Olympic Athletes have been training at the United States Olympic Education Center (USOEC) in Marquette. The USOEC is the nation's first and only Olympic Education Center located on Northern Michigan University's Campus. The USOEC allows athletes to continue their education while training for the Olympics. These five athletes: Erin Gleason, Julie Goskowicz, Scott Koons, Tom O'Hare and Andy Erickson all made their first appearance at the Olympic games in Nagano; and

Whereas, Erin and Julie are short track speedskaters. Erin is the current U.S. record holder in the 1,500 and 3,000 meter relay and a 1996 World Championship bronze medalist.
