The House agreed to the title of the bill.

Rep. Gagliardi moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Reps. Anthony, Bogardus, Callahan, DeHart, Freeman, Hale, Kukuk, Martinez, Profit, Prusi, Schauer, Schermesser, Scott, Tesanovich, Vaughn, Willard and Wojno were named co-sponsors of the bill.

Rep. Cassis moved that her name be removed as sponsor of the bill.

Rep. Jaye, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This bill gives binding arbitration authority to non teaching school employees including food workers, hall monitors, garage employees and office secretaries. Binding arbitration laws should only extend to government employees who provide services essential to the public health and welfare, like police, fire fighters and hospital emergency room staff. Hall monitors etc. are not essential for the public health and safety. The binding arbitration laws for even police and firefighters has greatly abused the taxpayers by imposing salary and benefit increases which the community cannot afford and lead to tax increases. Binding arbitrators are unelected unaccountable bureaucrats who also impose racist and sexist minority preference programs on cities and townships with no record of discrimination lawsuits. Legislators who vote for House Bill 4775 appear to be puppets of public employee unions. The heavy hand of state government and bureaucrats should not interfere with the negotiations between private parties. Once again the state teacher’s union is flexing its muscles and showing it’s dominance and control over the Democrats and a few liberal, pro union-anti employer Republicans.”

Rep. Raczkowski, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This bill dealt with changes in collective bargaining provisions affecting nonteaching school employees. Although changes within the law are at the Legislatures pleasure; it is imminently unfair for the legislature to single out one group above another in collective bargaining. We should treat each law with diligence and prudence to make fair inequities, not yield to special interest.”

Rep. Cassis, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

School boards are not required or mandated to contract-out services. This is a local control issue. The respective parties are operating within a fiscal environment that encourages responsibility to the community’s taxpayers while recognizing that many non-instructional employees provide excellent, quality services that might be reduced or diminished if privatization were to occur. Furthermore, many non-instructional employees reside within their school district boundaries and their jobs are important.”

“SEC. 51804. BEFORE CONDUCTING A PRESCRIBED BURN IN A PROJECTED BURN AREA THAT ADJOINS A STATE TRUNK LINE HIGHWAY OR COUNTY ROAD, THE DEPARTMENT SHALL CONSIDER EXCLUDING FROM THE PRESCRIBED BURN AN AREA ALONG THE HIGHWAY OR ROAD TO SERVE AS AN AESTHETIC BUFFER STRIP.”

The House agreed to the title of the bill.

Rep. Gagliardi moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Kukuk, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted 'No' on this legislation because it forces teachers to take time and energy away from their duties teaching Michigan's children.

Teachers decide to enter their profession because they love to teach children. This bill would require that teachers spend time making policy and program decisions that are the responsibility of their local school board and other administrative bodies. Teachers should focus on teaching students and administrators should administrate.

This bill forces teachers to become involved in decision making processes that should be voluntary, not mandatory.”

Rep. Goschka, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted against House Bill 4181 because I believe decisions involving local school buildings are properly made by locally elected school boards. Individuals who have been elected to serve on local school boards have been duly entrusted to make such decisions. It is in this manner that the hand knows what the foot is doing, and that the electorate is ensured accountability.”

The House returned to the consideration of

House Bill No. 4799, entitled

The Chair ruled that a majority of the Members elected and serving is required to pass HB 4234. The bill does not require a 3/4 vote pursuant to Const 1963, Art 9 § 3 because it does not propose to increase the maximum allowable tax rate for operating purposes.

Rep. LaForge moved to amend the bill as follows:

1. Amend page 3, following line 26, by inserting:

I voted ‘No’ on this legislation because it promotes gambling in family-oriented establishments.

Bowling is a family recreational activity. The presence of gambling on the premises detracts from that environment and serves as a bad example to children and others. In addition, this bill would allow gambling in facilities which serve alcoholic beverages.

I have consistently opposed expansion of gambling in our state.”

House Resolution No. 117.

A resolution honoring Mr. Leo A. Kahan upon the occasion of his 90th Birthday.

Whereas, The ninetieth birthday of Leo A. Kahan provides an excellent opportunity for the members of the Michigan House of Representatives to honor an individual whose long and highly productive life is truly an example of the benefits of hard work and industriousness. His many adventures along the pilgrimage through time are a clear reflection of his love for life and his commitment to his community; and

Whereas, Leo A. Kahan was born to Jacob and Clara Kahan in Germany on June 27, 1907. The Kahans reared their children in Konisberg, now the Baltic seaport of Kaliningrad. Tragically, their peaceful lives began to be disrupted in 1933 when Adolph Hitler came into power. From that day forward, Leo Kahan's native country and the success, freedom, and sense of security once enjoyed by the Kahan family rapidly diminished. Throughout the 1930s, the power of Hitler and the Nazi Party increased. Having read "Mein Kampf," Leo Kahan instinctively foresaw the horrible destruction that was about to befall the Jewish race and his country. Knowing what lay ahead, in March of 1938, he and his family fled to America where they began a new life in Saginaw, Michigan. Indeed, Leo is a man of great resilience, vitality, and determination. These qualities are perhaps best demonstrated by the fact that he immediately began the process of becoming an American citizen just one day after arriving in Michigan; and

Whereas, Leo Kahan has enriched his adopted homeland through the energies, talents, and gifts of caring he has shared with others. Resolved by the House of Representatives, That tribute be hereby accorded to congratulate Mr. Leo A. Kahan as he marks his ninetieth birthday; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Mr. Kahan as evidence of our best wishes on this happy occasion.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
