Sister Mary Giovanni, from the Felician Order in Livonia, offered the following invocation:

“Creator God, we come together to pray in gratitude for Your love of us. You have called us together in peace and love to re-examine the vision and to nourish the seeds that have been planted. With joy and thanksgiving, we ponder the growth You have worked in us and through us. We celebrate Your great love that has made this vision and its growth possible. O God of love, grant to us Your gifts, as we come together to represent You effectively in our discordant world. Shower Your Spirit of wisdom and love on those gathered here today to do Your work. We come from many places, and many experiences—with many gifts. Give us the strength to continue to use these varied gifts to lift up those we defend. Give us the courage to put our lives on the line in communicating life and truth to all Your creatures. Where there is injustice, may we diagnose its cause and discover its cure. Where there is bigotry, teach us how to love and how to encourage others to love. Where there is poverty, help us share the wealth that comes from Your hand. Where there is war and violence, may we be peacemakers that lead all to Your eternal peace. Help us, O God, to become what You have destined and empowered us to become. Where there is darkness, may we become the ray of Your sun that banishes the gloom of lonely lives. Where there is drought, let us be like fresh flowers that turn barren deserts into green meadows. Where there is ugliness and distortion, enable us to portray the beauty and order of Your will and purposes. Great God, You are in our world. Your majesty is reflected in Your creation about us, but there are multitudes who do not feel Your concern or acknowledge Your love. It is because Your servants have failed to carry out Your command and commission, that we have yet to sense the significance of our salvation and the purpose of our mission. Forbid, O God, that we be deaf to the cries of the poor and indifferent to those who have needs. May we identify with those who are oppressed, and help to bear the burdens of those who suffer. May we hear Your voice of concern and feel Your loving touch through Your servants who are in this world to manifest You to all about them. The glory is Yours, O God, and we shall praise Your name and celebrate Your cause together. Glory to You, source of all being. Amen.”

Rep. Scott moved that Reps. Rison and Thomas be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. DeWeese moved that Rep. Tabor be excused from today’s session.

Rep. Vaughn, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I am voting no on this bill because this is a smack in the face of local control. School districts across the state of Michigan already have the right to search school student’s lockers. This is posturing of the highest order! No wonder there is a strong effort across this state to stop this legislature from micro-managing issues that should be decided at the local level. Let the people decide what they want in their own school districts.

You already micro-manage the Detroit public schools. Please don’t continue to violate the rights of the people of this state. I vote no on this bill and yes for local control!”

House Resolution No. 263.

A resolution honoring Mr. Samuel Logan, Jr.

Whereas, It is a pleasure to join with family, friends, and co-workers of Samuel Logan, Jr. in extending our best wishes upon the occasion of his retirement as Publisher and CEO of the Michigan Chronicle. At this milestone in his life, we are proud to recognize all that he has accomplished, not only throughout his association with Michigan Chronicle, but also in all other aspects of his life; and

Whereas, Over the course of Samuel Logan, Jr.'s long and productive service with the Michigan Chronicle, he has contributed to its growth and to the reputation it has developed during this period. In fact, during his stewardship, the paper won the "Best Black Newspaper" award for two consecutive years, 1992 and 1993; and

Whereas, With Samuel Logan, Jr.'s 32 years of experience at the Michigan Chronicle, the people who have come to rely upon this enterprise have benefited enormously. In the months and years to come, the example that Samuel Logan, Jr. set in all facets of his career, will continue to be of value as well; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That members of this legislative body offer congratulations to Samuel Logan, Jr. as he embarks upon the more leisurely pursuits of retirement. May the future be filled with ample time to play golf, smoke the finest cigars and enjoy life and the love of family and friends; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Mr. Samuel Logan, Jr. as a token of our esteem.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Raczkowski moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Gilbert, Hansen, Raczkowski, Kukuk, Faunce, Mead, Van Woerkom, Voorhees, DeVuyst, Kuipers, DeHart, Kelly, Vander Roest, Gosselin, Koetje, Dennis, Mans, Cassis, Hager, Vear, Ehardt, Vaughn, Kowall, Shulman, Julian, Cherry, LaSata, Scranton, Lemmons, Caul, Richardville, Hale, Switalski, Martinez, Pappageorge and DeRossett offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 264.

A resolution proclaiming December 15, 2000, as Bill of Rights Day.

Whereas, The First Ten Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, known collectively as the Bill of Rights, were ratified on December 15, 1791; and

Whereas, The Bill of Rights recognizes, affirms, and protects fundamental and civil rights for which persons of all races have struggled for thousands of years; and

Whereas, To preserve the rights and freedoms secured by the Bill of Rights, our Forefathers, and hundreds of thousands of men and women serving on the police agencies and Armed Forces of the United States, have sacrificed, suffered, and died; and

Whereas, The rights and freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights deserve perennial celebrations, the sacrifices made to protect the Bill of Rights deserve eternal remembrance; and

Whereas, In the State of Michigan there has been no regular formal observance of a special day commemorating the ratification of the Bill of Rights. Several of the original States refused to ratify the Constitution without the Bill of Rights; and

Whereas, To commemorate the Bill of Rights with a special day, December 15, would honor the fundamental rights it enshrines and the sacrifices made to create and preserve these rights, and would proclaim these rights to the citizens of the State of Michigan, to this Nation, and to the World; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That a copy of the Bill of Rights be conspicuously posted at the State Capitol Building and provided to all citizens upon request. That December 15 of every year be designated Bill of Rights Day in the State of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That all government agencies and schools be encouraged to observe the annual Bill of Rights Day in a manner that brings to mind the meaning and importance of each of the Ten Articles contained in that Bill; and be it further

Resolved, That the first annual commemoration of the Bill of Rights Day shall be on December 15, 2000.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Raczkowski moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Lemmons, Hansen, Raczkowski, Rivet, DeHart, Kelly, Clark, Dennis, Baird, Daniels, Quarles, Scott, LaForge, Mans, Bovin, Jamnick, Bogardus, Vear, Vaughn, Lockwood, Cherry, Hardman, Minore, Hanley, Hale and Switalski offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 265.

A resolution honoring Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg.

Whereas, It is with sincere appreciation for the manner in which Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg’s outstanding leadership has enriched lives throughout the entire community that we join with the grateful Congregation of the Home of Love and WQBH in giving thanks for her great accomplishments. The counsel, encouragement, and direction that she shared in all aspects of her life, has had a positive influence far beyond the church, it has also graced the entire Detroit Metropolitan area; and

Whereas, Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg was one of the great voices heard during the 1967 riots in Detroit, or “rebellion” as she insisted—that ravaged the city. It was during the riots that she made a name for herself, broadcasting for 48 hours straight, urging people to come in off the streets and find more peaceful solutions; and

Whereas, Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg has been meeting the spiritual needs of the good people of the Home of Love since 1975. With a heartfelt concern for others, that was apparent to all who met her, Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg brought hope to many individuals and families. While several events and milestones in her life provided obvious evidence of the good works of Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg, less tangible, but no less important, are the gifts of the deepened faith and serenity of many, made possible through her ministry; and

Whereas, Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg began her radio career as a part-time DJ at WDIA in Memphis. She landed a weekend on-air shift at WDIA before hosting the Tan Town Homemaker’s Show, which gained her ratings. She moved to Detroit in 1963 to work at WCHB-AM. She played gospel and blues songs and sprinkled her trademark phrase—“I betcha”—between songs. She switched in 1967 to WJLB-AM(1400), a bigger station with a wider audience. During that summer’s Detroit riots, she preached peace and harmony for 48 straight hours. A self-ordained minister, in 1975 she opened the Home of Love, a church and community center on the west side of Detroit. In 1982, she moved from WJLB-AM to WQBH-AM(1400) as a broadcast personality and part-owner. She bought the station in 1997 for 3.9 million dollars. Until two weeks ago, she was on the air three hours a day, giving advice and inspirational messages. In 1993, “The Queen”, draped in gold sequins from head to toe, hosted the 37th annual NAACP Freedom Fund Dinner in Detroit. She was elected to the Black Radio Hall of Fame in 1993 and later was inducted to the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland. She was given recognition as “Detroit News Michiganiaan of the Year” in 1996; and

Whereas, With the passing of Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg, the family of worshipers in the entire City of Detroit are losing not only a spiritual mentor, but also a friend. With all that they have shared over the years, however, there can be little doubt that her words and strength will long continue to be of the greatest value in the months and years to come; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That members of this legislative body join with the family, the Home of Love, WQBH and citizens of the City of Detroit in remembrance of this great woman, a true leader whose memory will continue to inspire; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Martha Jean “The Queen” Steinberg’s Family and Home of Love Church as a token of our esteem.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
