Sister Mona Schwind of the Grand Rapids Dominican Sisters offered the following invocation:

Lord, God, Father, Mother, Creator of all, Destiny of all, let us do well the work You set before us: works of service and of stewardship.

As Your servants and stewards, let us be and do as You have taught us: doing what we shalt, refraining from what we shalt not.

As Your servants and stewards, let us ask the questions You ask of us: Who is our neighbor? Who is our brother? What is the greatest? What is the least? What is the one thing necessary?

As Your servants and stewards, let us look to the ways of our houses and of our Senate: How are Michigan's widows and orphans, her lame, her halt, her least of cared for? How is life—all life, in all its forms—protected and promoted in Michigan?

Be with us, Father God, that we act justly, love tenderly, and walk humbly in Your ways for Your honor and for the good of Michigan and all its people. Amen.

Resolutions

The question was placed on the adoption of the following resolution consent calendar:

Senate Resolution No. 29

The resolution consent calendar was adopted.

Senator Young offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 29.

A resolution to congratulate Michigan Consolidated Gas Company (MichCon) as they celebrate 150 years of business in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, With great respect for the consistency of its outstanding service, we salute the people behind the success of MichCon as this corporation marks its 150th anniversary. With its record in adapting to a world of changes, MichCon has set a standard of excellence that has been of great value to the economy of Michigan and to the countless families and businesses who have been the direct recipients of this company's good work. This milestone is being marked with a special birthday reception on March 12, 1999, at the historic Guardian Building located in the heart of Detroit's financial district; and

Whereas, Tracing its roots back to 1849, the company began as the City of Detroit Gas Company and was later renamed the Detroit Gas Light Company. In 1851, the company created safer communities by bringing gas light to the streets of downtown Detroit—an achievement that only a few other Midwestern cities had made at that time. Less than a century later, MichCon developed Austin Field, the first gas storage field in Michigan. This helped to ensure a stable supply of natural gas to meet their consumers' growing energy needs; and

Whereas, During its 150 years of success, MichCon has developed a philosophy of achievement which encourages exploration of new technology and innovative advancements, while retaining a long-standing commitment to customer satisfaction. MichCon has also established a reputation for giving back to the community. Since its inception in 1984, the MichCon Foundation has contributed more than $15.6 million to support economic development, educational programs, environmental endeavors, and United Way agencies across Michigan. Clearly, this is an enterprise that has been effectively managed and, as a result, has played a significant role in Michigan's diversified economy; and

Whereas, Last year, MichCon's 2,750 employees safely delivered natural gas through 18,900 miles of pipeline to bring warmth and convenience to 1.2 million customers in more than 500 Michigan communities. With the 21st century upon us, MichCon's commitment to Michigan is being raised to new levels. In 1998, the company signed an agreement to provide comprehensive energy services for the Detroit-Wayne County Metropolitan Airport's Midfield Terminal. MichCon also recently invested $55 million in state-of-the-art customer information and communications management technology; and

Whereas, Few things can testify to MichCon's ability to get results than 150 years of success. Generations of families have relied on MichCon to provide a very important service. This heritage of service promises much continued success; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we commend and congratulate MichCon for 150 years of business in the state of Michigan. May the owners, management, and employees know of our admiration and warmest wishes for many more years of prosperity; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to MichCon in celebration of this historic milestone.
